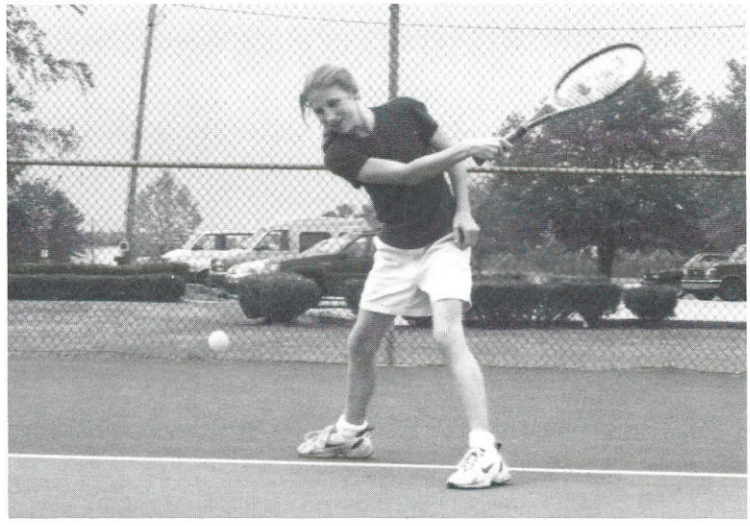
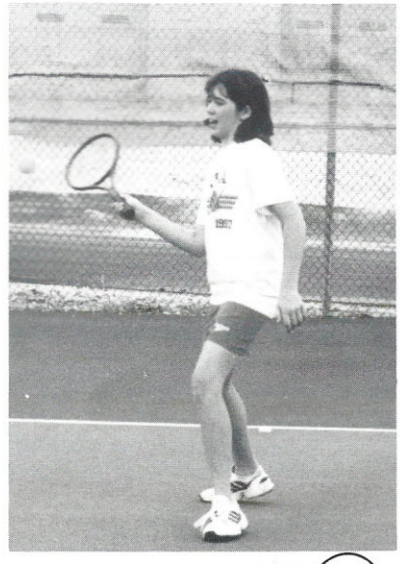
J.V.'S NET EXPERIENCE

POWER SERVE. Seventh grader Ashley Mills practices her serve. The J.V.'s used this year to get things started for the future tennis team.

I GOT IT. Andrea Lyles uses her forehand swing to power the ball over the net. This year was a starting point for many of the girls.



A HELPING HAND. At the net, coach Hannah Pifer hits the ball to her eager players. She helped them learn the basics by giving much of her time and advice.

GETTING IN THE SWING OF THINGS. Mary-Gray Bunting follows through on her swing and watches the ball as it glides over the net. The girls learned a lot about tennis this year.


SWINGING AWAY. With her mouth held in just the right position, Anna Bolick takes a swing at the ball. Anna, along with the other players, enjoyed learning and playing tennis.
