W. Hanahan Wylie Dies At White Oak

Fairfield Man Passes Friday Evening after Illness of Months. Funeral Services Held Sunday Morning.

William Hanahan Wylie, 50, life-long resident of Fairfield county, died at his home in White Oak Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock. He had been in declining health for almost six months, and for eight weeks he was critically ill. 12/1940

Mr. Wylie, the son of the late Hilliard Gayden Wylie and Mrs. Maggie Weir Wylie, was born October 28th, 1890, at the family home three miles north of Winnsboro. Like his father before him, he was a farmer and planter, and this occupation he followed thruout his entire life, all of which was spent in Fairfield county.

He married Miss Agnes Patrick, of White Oak, and she, with two children, William Hanahan Wylie, Jr., and Mary Agnes Wylie, survive him. Also surviving are four sisters and three brothers: Mrs. Samuel Lindsay, Misses Ida L. and Carrie Wylie, D. C., H. G., and J. E. Wylie, all of Winnsboro, and a twin sister, Mrs. E. L. Jager, of Charleston, S. C. Mrs. Jager had been with him constantly since his confinement.

Funeral services, conducted by Dr. Oliver Johnson, were held on Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock, from the White Oak A. R. P. church, and interment was in the A. R. P. cemetery in Winnsboro.

Active pallbearers were Killough H. Patrick, Matthew W. Patrick, D. R. Coleman, Jr., Weldon Gibson, Cornwell Gibson and A. W. Brice.

John Haynes Young Is Accident Victim

Word was received in Winnsboro at two o'clock Wednesday morning of the death of John Haynes Young, of Amory, Miss, which occurred about nine o'clock Tuesday evening in an automobile accident. No particulars are available at this time .

He was the eldest son of Mrs. Rosebud Haynes Young, formerly of Winnsboro, and is survived by his parents and two brothers.

Mrs. J. D. McMeekin, Mrs. Charles Harris and John Haynes left early Wednesday morning for Amory. 6/1940

W. B. Yarborough, Jenkinsville Dies 2/1940

William Burns Yarborough, son of the late William Burns Yarborough and Elizabeth James Yarborough passed away at his home in Jenkinsville February 10, after a few days illness of pneumonia. Mr. Yarborough would have been 81 years old May 17.

"Uncle Willie" as he was known had made his home in Jenkinsville since retiring from the mercantile business in Savannah, Ga., in 1922.

He is survived by one brother, the Rev. J. H. Yarborough of Chester and a large number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. P. Isenhower, assisted by the Rev. J. A. Inabinet at the Jenkinsville Baptist church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon with interment in Little River cemetery in the family plot. The following nephews acted as pallbearers: Thomas W. Yarborough, Woodrow Yarborough, Howard Yarborough, W. T. Glenn, Jr., William Glenn Yarborough and Gladney Glenn.

Honorary: Douglas Coppell, Arthur Owens, Dr. J. P. McMeekin, A. M. McMeekin, T. L. McMeekin, Dr. A. C. Estes and H. C. Schatz.

Mrs. J. W. Weir, Sr. Dies Early Monday

Mrs. J. Watt Weir, Sr., passed away Monday morning at 3:15 o'clock at her home near Blackstock. Funeral services were held at Hopewell A. R. P. church at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Weir was born September 9, 1876, near Smyrna, in York county, the daughter of the late James Meek Whiteside and Mrs. Margaret Castles Whiteside.

Mrs. Weir was married to Mr. J. Watt Weir March 8, 1905, and is survived by her husband and the following children: Loy Weir, Lilian Weir and James Watt Weir Jr., all of Blackstock and a sister, Mrs. B. E. Wright of Washington, D. C. Besides her family she leaves a host of friends and relatives to mourn her departure.

Mrs. Weir was a devoted member of Hopewell A. R .P. church.

Mrs. Minnie Wolfe Dies In Winnsboro

Mrs. Minnie Wolfe, 49, wife of H. A. Wolfe, died in Winnsboro at 2:30 Monday afternoon following an illness of ten days. 5/1940

Mrs. Wolfe had lived here 15 years and formerly resided in Chester.

She is survived by her husband; four sons, James Alonzo Wolfe of Atlanta, Robert Wolfe of York, T. C. Wolfe of Georgia and Samuel Esco Wolfe of Alabama City, Ala., and 13 grandchildren.

The funeral was conducted at 4 p. m. Wednesday from Gordon Memorial Methodist church here, of which she was a member.

The pastor, the Rev. J. Walter Johnson, was in charge, assisted by the Rev. J. H. Ellenberg, and interment was in the Winnsboro Mills cemetery.

EDD WOODS DIES AT HOME

Edd Woods, 50, died at his home in Winnsboro Tuesday, after a two months' illness. He had made his home in Winnsboro for a number of years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Della Woods, 2 sons, Edd, Jr., and Chives, Winnsboro; 2 daughters, Mrs. Nancy Stevenson, Great Falls, and Miss Ruby Mae Woods, Winnsboro.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Ellenberg at the Holiness Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, and interment was in the Winnsboro Mills cemetery. 1940

Native Of County Dies In Columbia

Albert J. Yarborough Passes Monday At Veteran's Hospital After Six Weeks' Illness.

Albert J. Yarborough died at the Veterans' hospital in Columbia on Monday afternoon after a six-week illness. For 25 years Mr. Yarborough had been a stone cuttter, working at Elberton, Ga., and at Charlotte, N. C., though his home was in Winnsboro. He was unmarried, a Mason and a Shriner of Excelsior lodge, No. 261, of Charlotte.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Annie E. Yarborough; three sisters, Mrs. George B. Hagood, Mrs. Henry Robinson and Miss Annie Yarborough, and two brothers, T. G. Yarborough, and H. S. Yarborough, all of the Union community of Fairfield county.

Masonic services were conducted Wednesday by Lodge No. 11, A. F. M., of Winnsboro and were concluded by services at Union Presbyterian church, conducted by the Rev. G. G. Mayes, and the Rev. Arthur M. Martin of Sion Presbyterian chuch, Winnsboro. Interment was in the Union church cemetery.

T. L. Timms Dies At His Home June 17

T. L. Timms, 89, died at his home in the Hickory Ridge section of Fairfield on Monday, after a period of declining health, due to infirmities of old age. 6/1940

Mr. Timms was born and reared in this county, and had lived his entire life in the Hickory Ridge community. He was a decendant of the pioneer settlers of this country, on one side was of French Huguenot decent, on the other, he traced his ancestry to the families of the Mayflower colony.

Mr. Timms was married on January 20, 1875 to Miss Sarah Louise Minton of Chester county, who pre-deceased him by a number of years. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mary E. Boulware and Mrs. J. M. Park; five sons, Charles L., Jesse M., Archie T., Leighton E., all of Winnsboro and John B. Timms of Opelika, Ala.; seventeen grandchildren and three great grandchildren. One brother, George H. Timms, of Winnsboro, also survives.

Funeral services were conducted at eleven o'clock Tuesday morning at the Fairfield Baptist church by the pastor, the Rev. J. P. Isenhower and interment was in the family plot in the church cemetery.

Fairfield Native Dies In Chester

William Benjamin Vaughn, 63, of Chester, member of the firm of Hardin and Vaughn, department store, died Friday at the Charlotte sanatorium. One of Chester's most prominent citizens, his death came as a great shock to hosts of friends. 3/1940

Funeral services were conducted at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Bethel Methodist church at Chester with interment in Evergreen cemetery. The Rev. Pinkney L. Bauknight, pastor officiated.

Surviving is his widow, Mrs. Cleo Wall Vaughn; a brother, R. J. Vaughn of Simpson, Fairfield county; four sisters, Mrs. Leitner Blair and Miss Mamie Vaughn Simpson; Mrs. Strother Broome of Winnsboro and Mrs. T. H. Richardson of Simpson.

He was a steward at Bethel Methodist church and one of its most outstanding members. Mr. Vaughn was a Mason, a Knights of Pythias, and a member of the Chester Lions club.

Mr. Vaughn lived in Winnsboro during the early 1900s, and was a clerk in the store of the late H. B. Refo.

W. D. WATSON DIES AT HOME

Funeral services for W. D. Watson, 44, who died at his home in Winnsboro at 9:50 Thursday evening after a sudden heart attack, were held at Yarborough Chapel near Enoree at 12:30 Saturday by the Rev. Walter Johnson of Winnsboro. Interment was in the church cemetery. 1/1940

Mr. Watson came to Winnsboro 14 years ago from Enoree where he was born, the son of Mrs. Ida H. Watson and the late A. Askew Watson. He was a member of the Gordon Memorial Methodist church of Winnsboro and a member of Masonic lodge No. 11, A. F. M.

Mr. Watson is survived by his widow, Mrs. Kate Tidwell Watson, and five children, W. D. Watson, Jr., Honolulu, United States navy; Mrs. Oscar Cooper, Roberta Watson, Bill Watson and John Watson of Winnsboro; his mother, Mrs. Ida Watson, and four brothers, Jason Watson and Ambrose Watson of Enoree; R. M. Watson of Columbia and R. F. Watson of Anderson, and a sister, Miss Carrie Watson of Clinton, and one grandchild, Shelby Kay Cooper of Winnsboro.

Fairfield Native Dies In Columbia 1940

Miss Hermine Stevenson, of Lebanon Section, Passes Tuesday After Illness of Two Weeks.

Miss Hermine Stevenson, daughter of R. C. Stevenson, of the Lebanon section of Fairfield county, and the late Eleanor LaBorde Stevenson, died at the Columbia hopital early Tuesday morning after a critical illness of two weeks.

She had lived for the last year and a halfin Columbia, where she was associated with the American National Life Insurance company.

Miss Stevenson, a graduate of Mt. Zion institute in the class of 1925, was a young woman of many fine qualities and her death will be mourned by many friends in Winnsboro, Columbia and thruout the state. It was just a year ago this week that her mother, Eleanor LaBorde Stevenson, died.

Besides her father, R. C. Stevenson, she is survived by the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. S. V. Brown, Barnwell; Mrs. C. T. Funderburk, Pageland; Miss Peggy Stevenson, Winnsboro; Miss Nelle Stevenson, Columbia; R. C. Stevenson, Jr., Chattanooga, Tenn.; D. L. Stevenson, New Rochelle, N. Y.; Jim Stevenson, Parr; Max Stevenson and J. Ernest Stevenson, of Winnsboro.

Also surviving are the following aunts and uncles: Mrs. Laura Kennedy, Chester; Miss Ada LaBorde, Mrs. U. R. Brooks, Mrs. R. G. Fellers, P. F. LaBorde, Dr. Jean B. LaBorde, all of Columbia, and J. C. LaBorde of Asheville, N. C.

Funeral services were conducted from the Lebanon Presbyterian church at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. Charles Harris, assisted by the Reverends F. Ray Riddle, of Columbia and Arthur M. Martin, of Winnsboro, officiated.

Active pall bearers were Oscar LaBorde, Rufus Fellers, Jr., Hazel LaBorde, Earle, Ed and Will Stevenson.

Honorary: W. T. Brown, A. J. McElveen, T. T. Roddey, John McDowell, E. H. Pate, Jon Smith, Marion Rich, M. L. Andrews, all of Columbia, and Ernest Gladden, J. M. Lyles, A. M. Owens, L. C. Hardy, William Robinson, J. K. Wright, F. E. Propst, Dr. Samuel Lindsay, Dr. J. E. Douglas, William and Marion Stevenson, T. W. Lewis.

C. K. Stevenson Dies On Monday

Claude Kennedy Stevenson, 29, died Monday morning at 7 o'clock after a stroke of paralysis Sunday from which he never rallied.

He was a son of J. K. Stevenson, and Mrs. Fannie Boulware Stevenson of Winnsboro by whom he is survived. Also surviving is his widow, Mrs. Rae Thornton Stevenson and the following sisters and brothers, Mrs. Aubrey Mitchell, Katherine Stevenson, Thomas Earl Stevenson and Mack Brown Stevenson, all of Winnsboro.

Boulware, Randolph Bratton, Max Stevenson, Thomas Branham, J. B. Turner.

R. C. Stevenson, Winnsboro, Dies 1940

Winnsboro, June 11.—Funeral services for R. C. Stevenson will be conducted at 4 p. m. Wednesday at Lebanon Presbyterian church by the Rev. Charles Harris, the Rev. A. M. Martin and the Rev. F. Ray Riddle.

Mr. Stevenson, 71, was found dead in his bed this morning when called to breakfast. He had retired early Monday night to prepare for a day's work on the farm. He was an active agent for the American National Life Insurance company and had won many trips for his work. His passing will be a loss to the community.

He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Mamie Kenedy, and his second being Miss Eleanor LaBorde of Columbia. Both preceded him to the grave.

Surviving are nine children, Ernest, Max and Miss Peggy Stevenson of Winnsoboro; E. L., New Rochelle, N. Y.; R. G., Jr., Chattanooga; James, Peak; Mrs. C. P. Funderburk, Pageland; Mrs. F. V. Brown, Barnwell, and Miss Nell Stevenson of Columbia; ten grandchildren and one sis-

HEART ATTACK PROVES FATAL TO STEADMAN

Charles S. Steadman, 65, of the Cedar Creek section of Fairfield county, died suddenly of a heart attack shortly before seven o'clock Tuesday morning (May 14), at the North End filling station, Winnsboro.

Mr. Steadman, who worked on a WPA project in Fortune Spring park, stopped at the station, as was often his custom, en route from his home near the Richland county line to the park. According to a witness, he was putting water in his car and he made the remark that his radiator was leaking. These were his last words. As he leaned over to inspect the car, he crumpled to the ground, and when Dr. J. E. Douglas, Jr., arrived, he was dead.

Mr. Steadman is survived by his widow, Mrs. Leonora Broom Steadman of the Cedar Creek section; four daughters, Miss Isla Steadman, a nurse at the Baptist hospital, Columbia; Mrs. Wallace Beckham, Simpson; Mrs. Walter Beckham, Blythewood; Miss Catherine Steadman of Columbia; one son, Charles W. Steadman, of Fort Moultrie; two grandchildren; two brothers, L. G. Steadman, St. Brides, Va., and W. H. Steadman, North; one sister, Mrs. H. O. Copeland, Troy, Ala.; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted last Thursday morning at Trinity Methodist church, Blythewood, by the Rev. Q. E. Gunter, family pastor. Interment was in Pine Grove cemetery, near Blythewood.

Active pallbearers were: H. B. Longshore, Greenbrier; George Yongue, Winnsboro; Leroy Hannah, Winnsboro; Earl Boney, Blythewood; Otis Brown, Winnsboro; L. B. Parks, Blythewood.

Honorary pallbearers were: Ed Stevenson, Winnsboro; D. A. Broome, Blythewood; D. R. Dove, Sr., Ridgeway; L. D. Beckham, Ridgeway; E. K. Rabb, Winnsboro; C. R. Rabb, Winnsboro; W. W. Turner, Winnsboro; C. D. Wilson, Blythewood; W. M. Estes, Greenbrier; Dave Walker, Winnsboro; Ernest Propst, Winnsboro; Dr. J. F. Dobson, Ridgeway.

J. C. Steele Dies At Great Falls

J. C. Steele, 61, of Great Falls, died Sunday morning after a short illness. Mr. Steele was a rural policeman of Chester county. He was a son of the late J. A. and Annie Pool Steele. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bessie Hilton Steele and the following children: C. A. Steele and J. G. Steele of Great Falls, Mrs. W. S. Hudson of Sharon, and the following sisters and brothers, Mrs. H. J. Wood of Chesterfield, Mrs. J. G. White of Great Falls and R. E. Steele of Rock Hill.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the First Baptist church of Great Falls. The Rev. H. G. Hammett, pastor, officiating, assisted by Dr. F. M. Forbis. Interment was in Woodlawn cemetery at Sharon.

Heart Attack Fatal For E. E. Summer

E. E. Summer, 60, died Thursday night of a sudden heart attack at his home in Winnsboro. He had been ill for a number of weeks.

Mr. Summer moved to Winnsboro 15 years ago from Lexington and had since been engaged in farming and was connected with the Winnsboro Mills.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Addie Womble Summer three sons, C. L. Summer and R. Summer of Winnsboro and O. Summer of Columbia daughters, Mrs. J. T. Ce sister Orangeburg and Mrs. Lokman. Lendon and one step conducted Mrs. Dora Bell, both m Stephen boro; two brothers, C. ist church of West Columbia anadgett. Interment was in the Winnsboro cem