

184.
Rites Set Today For Mrs. Raley

Mrs. Blondell LeGrand Raley, 59, wife of William M. Raley, died Tuesday in Fairfield Memorial Hospital after an illness of several months.

Born in Columbia on April 20, 1914, she was a daughter of the late Charlie M. and Ella Sanders LeGrand. She was a member of Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church.

Surviving are her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Holly (Ann Marie) Crossland of Winnsboro; two sons, Jack M. Raley of Florence and William C. Raley of Winnsboro; a sister, Mrs. Doris Goode of Winnsboro; and three brothers, Wilfred, Jack and Ottiss LeGrand of Winnsboro.

Final rites will be held on Thursday at 4 p.m. in Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. Perry Turner, with burial in the First Baptist Church cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be Billy LeGrand, Hazel LeGrand, Bunny LeGrand, Davis E. Boulware, Jack LeGrand, Jr. and Mike LeGrand.

The honorary escort will be composed of the stewards of Gordon Memorial Church.

Pope Funeral Home is in charge.

Rites Held For Mrs. Reynolds, Sawney's Church

Mrs. Nora Branham Reynolds, 87, of Rt. 2, Ridgeway, died on Friday at the Fairfield Nursing Home after a short illness.

She was born in Fairfield County on February 11, 1885, a daughter of the late Samuel and Mary Peake Branham. She was a member of the Sawney's Creek Baptist Church. She was the widow of James Reynolds who died in 1952.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Janie Easler of Ridgeway; a son, Melvin Reynolds of Ridgeway; two sisters, Mrs. Lucy Branham Camden and Mrs. Mattie Barfield of Winnsboro. Eight grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren also survive.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Billy Winburn on Sunday afternoon at Sawney's Creek Baptist Church. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Billy Johnson, Norris Hollis, Michael Peake, Grady Branham, Horace Moore and Rudolph Branham.

Honorary pallbearers were Deacons of Sawney's Creek Baptist Church.

C. Robinson Rites Monday In Orangeburg

Clarence Robinson, 50, died at his home in Bamberg Saturday, August 25.

Born in Bamberg County, he was the son of the late David B. and Alice Brunson Robinson.

Mr. Robinson is survived by his widow, Mrs. Vera Lee Fanning Robinson, one sister, Mrs. I. G. Kinsey of Orangeburg, two

Rites Held for Mrs. Robinson

Charles A. Robinson, Jr., 70, Fairfield native, died Saturday in York General Hospital.

on July 5, 1903, a son of the late Charles A. and Loulie Ashford Robinson. He was a retired teacher in the Rock Hill school system. Mr. Robinson was a graduate of Clemson College, where he was captain and quarterback of the football team his senior year, making All-State two years and All-Southern.

He was the starring quarterback in a Carolina-Clemson game, winning for his team with a dropkick, 3-0. He also was a member of the track team.

Mr. Robinson was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Rock Hill, where he was a former Sunday School superintendent.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Sara Jones Robinson, four sons, the Rev. Charles A. Robinson, III, of Fort Valley, Ga., Edward Jones Robinson of San Turce, P. R., William Robinson of Frankfurt, Germany and John L. Robinson of Rock Hill; a daughter, Mrs. Paul Wygant of Silver City, N. M.; three sisters, Mrs. T. H. Edwards of Pembroke, Ga., Mrs. Richard Cathcart of Hartsville and Mrs. R. C. Harrington of Winnsboro; and a brother, William A. Robinson of Winnsboro.

Services were held on Monday in First Presbyterian Church, with interment in Laurelwood Cemetery.

W. D. Robinson, 28, Dies After Short Illness

W. Dantzer Robinson, 28, of Lancaster, died Saturday in the Lancaster hospital after a short illness.

He was born on January 8, 1945, in Fairfield County, a son of William A. and Evangeline Dantzer Robinson. He was a pharmacist, a drug inspector with the S. C. State Board of Health, a state constable and was a member of the American and South Carolina Pharmaceutical associations. Mr. Robinson was president of the S. C. Sixth Pharmaceutical District. He was a graduate of the University of South Carolina, a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Lancaster and he sang in the church choir.

Surviving are his parents of Winnsboro; his widow, Mrs. Alice Fehrer Robinson; and a son, Eric D. Robinson of the home.

Services were held on Monday in First Presbyterian Church, conducted by the Rev. Samuel N. Thomas. Burial was in Lancaster Memorial Park.

Active pallbearers were Dr. Thomas D. Wyatt, Thomas D. Wyatt, Jr., George Inman, Wilbur Harling, John Wood and Steve Brantley.

Funeral services were held at three o'clock Monday afternoon at the Thompson Funeral Home in Orangeburg with burial in South End Cemetery in Bamberg, brothers, Blease Robinson of Orangeburg, and J. D. Robinson of Winnsboro.

Funeral services were held at three o'clock Monday afternoon at the Thompson Funeral Home in Orangeburg with burial in South End Cemetery in Bamberg, brothers, Blease Robinson of Orangeburg, and J. D. Robinson of Winnsboro.

Funeral services were held at three o'clock Monday afternoon at the Thompson Funeral Home in Orangeburg with burial in South End Cemetery in Bam-

Rites Held for Mrs. Robinson

Graveside rites were held on Monday in Elmwood Cemetery for Mrs. Margaret Pope Robinson, conducted by the Rev. Horace G. Hammett. Mrs. Robinson, 57, of Columbia, died on Saturday, November 24, in the Baptist Hospital, following a long illness.

Born in Fairfield County, she was a daughter of the late John Lawrence and Leila Boulware Pope. She was a graduate of Winthrop College and taught in Fairfield County, Easley and at Hammond Academy.

Surviving are her husband; three sons, Ronald D., John R. and George Rhett Robinson of Columbia; two sisters, Mrs. Douglas James (Louise) of Sumter, Mrs. Otis Turner (Elizabeth) of Lancaster; and two brothers, John L. Pope, Jr. of Winnsboro and Thomas M. Pope of Greenville.

Nephews were active pallbearers.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Sara Jones Robinson, four sons, the Rev. Charles A. Robinson, III, of Fort Valley, Ga., Edward Jones Robinson of San Turce, P. R., William Robinson of Frankfurt, Germany and John L. Robinson of Rock Hill; a daughter, Mrs. Paul

Blackstock Man Dies, Anderson

David Hunter Robinson, 62, died in Anderson Memorial Hospital on September 13, after a long illness.

He was born in Blackstock, a son of the late David Walter and Beatrice Hunter Robinson. He was owner of Robinson Engineering Co. He was a veteran of World War II, and was the holder of the Bronze Star and was active in civic and church affairs in Anderson.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Marie O'Steen Robinson; two daughters, Misses Melanie and Rosalie Robinson of the home; and a nephew, Buck O'Steen of the home.

Services were held on Saturday in Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, with burial in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Red Roland, 51 Winnsboro Born, Dies California

Hennon P. (Red) Roland, 51, of San Jose, California, a native of Fairfield County, died Wednesday, March 21, at his home, following a sudden illness.

He was born in Winnsboro, son of Drafus Roland, now of Old Fort, N. C., and the late Mrs. Mae Pew Roland. He lived here prior to entering the armed services in 1939. Mr. Roland had lived in the San Jose area for 25 years, and worked in the engineering department at San Jose hospital.

Surviving are his widow, Constance Roland; his father; two sons, David and Gary Roland of San Jose; and two daughters, Connie and Deborah Roland, also of San Jose; and a brother, James E. (Jack) Roland of Winnsboro.

Final rites were on Friday, March 23, in St. Joseph's Church, with burial in Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery, San Jose.

Funeral services were held at three o'clock Monday afternoon at the Thompson Funeral Home in Orangeburg with burial in South End Cemetery in Bamberg, brothers, Blease Robinson of Orangeburg, and J. D. Robinson of Winnsboro.

Funeral services were held at three o'clock Monday afternoon at the Thompson Funeral Home in Orangeburg with burial in South End Cemetery in Bam-

Rites Held for A. F. Ruff, 86, On April 23rd

Arthur Fletcher Ruff, 86, of Columbia, died Saturday in a nursing home.

Born in Ridgeway, he was a son of Adam Fletcher and Margaret Elliott Ruff. He graduated from The Citadel and Eastman College. Mr. Ruff served as a first lieutenant with the American expeditionary forces overseas and was assistant regional director and later assistant state conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service. He was a member of First Presbyterian Church and American Legion Post 6.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Robert A. Miller of Columbia; a son, A. Fletcher Ruff, Jr., of Columbia; and a sister, Mrs. L. C. McFadden of Rock Hill.

Services were held on Monday in First Presbyterian Church cemetery, Columbia, conducted by the Rev. Hugh W. McClure, III.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Marie O'Steen Robinson; two daughters, Misses Melanie and Rosalie Robinson of the home; and a nephew, Buck O'Steen of the home.

W. B. Rutledge Dies, Alabama

William Burgess Rutledge, 75, a brother of Joe D. Rutledge of Winnsboro, died Saturday, Oct. 27, in Montgomery, Ala., as a result of an automobile accident several weeks ago. He had been in the intensive care unit of a hospital for an extended period.

Mr. Rutledge was a retired Civil Service engineer and his last position was with the Bureau of Public Roads, Washington, D.C. Some years ago he lived in Winnsboro for a short time while he was in charge of paving the highway to Salem Cross Roads.

In addition to his brother, he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Willie Mae Horn Rutledge of Lisman, Ala., and a sister, Mrs. A. B. Carson, Greenville, S. C.

Funeral services were held at a Montgomery church on Monday, Oct. 29.

Rites Held for Mr. Roseborough

Joseph Logan Rosborough, Sr., 73, died Friday morning at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Dublin, Georgia, after an extended illness.

Mr. Rosborough was born in Ridgeway, a son of the late George Logan and Annie Lauson Rosborough. He was a life member of the Aimwell Presbyterian Church in Ridgeway. He attended Presbyterian College and was associated with several South Carolina banks prior to his disability.

He is survived by one son, Joseph L. Rosborough, Jr. of Columbia; two daughters, Mrs. James L. (Ginger) Rigdon and Mrs. F. Leon (Betty) Copeland, both of Columbia; and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at the graveside at Aimwell Cemetery, Ridgeway, conducted by the Rev. Jess M. Bratton.

Surviving are his widow, Constance Roland; his father; two sons, David and Gary Roland of San Jose; and two daughters, Connie and Deborah Roland, also of San Jose; and a brother, James E. (Jack) Roland of Winnsboro.

Final rites were on Friday, March 23, in St. Joseph's Church, with burial in Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery, San Jose.

Mrs. Sewell, 91, Mother of Mrs. G. M. Ketchin, Dies

Final rites were held on Tuesday afternoon in Hephzibah, Ga., for Mrs. Anna Fryer Sewell, at her residence, conducted by the Rev. O. Ted Page. Burial was in the Hephzibah Cemetery. Mrs. Sewell, 91, the widow of H. Warner Sewell, died on Saturday at her home.

She was born in Louisville, Ga., on September 24, 1881, daughter of the late Marian Cain Fryer and the late John Benjamin Fryer. Mrs. Sewell was a member of the Hephzibah Baptist Church, where she was pianist for 50 years. She taught a Sunday school class and was a past president of the Women's Missionary Society.

Surviving are a son, John Fryer Sewell of Hephzibah; a daughter, Mrs. George McMaster Ketchin of Winnsboro; a sister, Mrs. William S. Ryland of Grand Rapids, Mich.; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Robert A. Miller of Columbia; a son, A. Fletcher Ruff, Jr., of Columbia; and a sister, Mrs. L. C. McFadden of Rock Hill.

Services were held on Monday in First Presbyterian Church cemetery, Columbia, conducted by the Rev. Hugh W. McClure, III.

Graveside Rites Held Sunday for Mrs. G. B. Shedd

Mrs. Sue Timms Shedd, 70, of Route 2, Winnsboro, died Saturday morning in the Richland Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Winnsboro on March 18, 1902, she was a daughter of the late Samuel and Lillie Young Timms. She was the widow of the late George R. Shedd. Mrs. Timms was a member of the First Baptist Church in Winnsboro.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Henry C. Porter, III, of Columbia; two sons, R. Alan Shedd of Winnsboro and George R. Shedd of Fairburn, Ga.; four sisters, Mrs. Lee Knight of Charleston, Mrs. Meredith Turner of Cross Anchor, and Mrs. Johnny Boulware and Mrs. Mabel Turkett of Winnsboro; three brothers, Barney and Hugh Timms of Winnsboro and Edgar Timms of Akron, Ohio.

Graveside services were conducted by the Rev. James P. Hawsey Sunday afternoon at the Little River Baptist Church near Jenkinsville.

Final Rites are Held Friday for Mrs. Skipper, 62

Mrs. Frances Louise Skipper, 62, widow of King H. Skipper, died Wednesday, November 7, in Fairfield Memorial Hospital following a period of declining health.

Born in Great Falls on April 23, 1911, she was a daughter of the late W. C. and Elizabeth Raines Cunningham. Mrs. Skipper was a member of Bethel A. R. Presbyterian Church and of the Keith Seyle Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Surviving are two sons, William H. Skipper of Florence and John C. Skipper of Union.

Five grandchildren, Billy, Steve and Jimmy Skipper of Florence and John and Susan Skipper of Union, also survive.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at the graveside at Aimwell Cemetery, Ridgeway, conducted by the Rev. Jess M. Bratton.

Surviving are his widow, Constance Roland; his father; two sons, David and Gary Roland of San Jose; and two daughters, Connie and Deborah Roland, also of San Jose; and a brother, James E. (Jack) Roland of Winnsboro.