

Miss Brown & Mr. Son Will Be Wed In June Ceremony

Miss Velinda Elizabeth Brown

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Brown of Columbia announce the engagement of their daughter, Velinda Elizabeth, to Evans F. Son, Jr. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Evans F. Son of Winnsboro. 1973

Miss Brown is a senior at Springdale High School, and is employed by the Marshall Street (Columbia) Piggly Wiggly Store.

Mr. Son is a graduate of Winnsboro High School. He is a deputy with the Richland County Sheriff's Department.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bryce, of Hickory Ridge, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mildred Lorena, to Claude A. Gregory, of Aiken, S. C. The young couple are making their home in Aiken with the groom's mother, Mrs. B. F. Gregory. 3/1938

BRYCE-WILKES

Miss Virginia Bryce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bryce, of Winnsboro, and Gene Wilkes, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wilkes, of Avon, were married Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at Lebanon Presbyterian church by the Rev. Charles J. Harris.

Miss Bundrick and Mr. Taylor Are Married in Church Ceremony, Nov. 8

Miss Martha Marion Bundrick of Winnsboro and Jack Taylor of West Palm Beach, Fla., formerly of Alma, Georgia, were united in marriage at eight o'clock Saturday evening, November 8, at Anderson Memorial Methodist church. The Rev. Charles H. Voss, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Ushers were L. Ray Owens and C. Robert Boyette, and the bridegroom had as his best man his brother-in-law, E. R. Garr.

Miss Irene Shealy, niece of the bride, was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Hanson B. Skelton and Miss Vivian Tomlinson.

Miss Barbara Ann Fooshe, niece of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Andrew H. Shealy.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Youth Center of the church.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip, and will make their home in West Palm Beach.

Mrs. Taylor is the youngest daughter of the late William F. and Pearl Scott Bundrick of Winnsboro and Columbia. She is a graduate of Andrew Jackson High School, and has been employed by a Columbia insurance company.

Among those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bundrick and two daughters, Misses Joyce and Joan Bundrick of Columbia and H. E. Still of Miami, Florida.

Burley-Martin 1948

Salem Presbyterian church in Fairfield county, was the scene of a lovely wedding at 8 p. m., October 2, when Miss Mattie Marie Burley of Monticello and Columbia became the bride of James Melvin Martin of Dentsville and Columbia. The Rev. William R. Parvin, pastor of the bride, officiated in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends, using the double ring ceremony.

Palms, ivy, white gladioli, pom poms and white lighted candles in candelabra against a background of greenery, effectively decorated the church. The family pews were marked by white satin bows.

Miss Martha Coleman, pianist, and Joe Beale, of Presbyterian college, vocalist, furnished the wedding music. Before the ceremony Miss Coleman played "Serenade" (Schubert) and "Traumerei" (Schumann).

Mr. Beale sang "Because" and "O Promise Me." During the ceremony "Claire de Lune" was softly played and the traditional wedding marches were used. Mr. Beale sang the "Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The usher-groomsman were Edward Durania, B. H. Glenn and Leslie Robertson, all of Columbia, and George Yongue, Jr., of Blairs, Hubert Shelley of Columbia was the best man.

Miss Jean Burley, only sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. B. H. Glenn of Columbia, sister of the bride-groom, Miss Helen Hunt of Trenton, Miss Jane Butler of Pelion, and Miss Martha McMeekin of Monticello. They wore delph blue faille, taffeta dresses made off-shoulder with fitted waists and full skirts ending in slight trains. They also wore mitts and carried bouquets of mixed asters, tied with fuchsia satin ribbon. Each attendant also wore a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bride.

Little Betty Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Martin, and little Reta Burley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Burley, and cousin of the bride, were flower girls. Their dresses were like those of the older attendants, and they carried white baskets of small flowers.

Little Tommy Burley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burley, and cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer. He carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

The attractive brunet bride, given in marriage by her father, Charles Henry Burley, was radiant in her gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with square yoke of illusion embroidered in seed pearls; long sleeves, with calla lily points over the hands, and graceful lengthy train. Her full-length veil of bridal illusion fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an orchid on a white satin Bible showered with white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Charles H. Burley, mother of the bride, wore an aqua taffeta dress and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. James W. Martin, mother of the bridegroom, wore aqua crepe with an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the Monticello gymnasium. Mr. and Mrs. George Goodson of Columbia greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line, composed of the bridal couple, their parents and the bride's attendants. Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Burley, Mrs. A. H. McMeekin, and Mrs. Joe Burley, Mrs. T. W. Shedd kept the bride's register. Presiding at the punch bowls were Mrs. A. B. Cooley and Mrs. William Turner, and serving were Miss Kate Longue and Mrs. Grady Wright. The bride's table was covered with a handsome handmade cloth and centered with the beautifully embossed tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and flanked by tall white candles in silver holders. Mrs. Martin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burley. She is a graduate of Monticello high school and of Columbia Commercial college. She is now assistant bookkeeper for Pittsburgh Glass company in Columbia.

Mr. Martin is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Martin. He was graduated from Dentsville high school, served in the navy during World War II and is now a senior at the University of South Carolina.

During the evening the young couple left for their wedding trip and upon their return will make their home at 2018 College street, Columbia. For traveling the bride wore a gray gabardine suit with blue blouse, black accessories and the orchid from atop her Bible.

BURLEY-McMILLAN 3/1941

Of cordial interest to numbers of friends throughout Fairfield and the state will be the announcement of the marriage of Miss Alice Burley and Mr. Earle McMillan, which was solemnized Friday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of the bride's father, Charles H. Burley, at Monticello.

The ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Harris, pastor of the bride, before an improvised altar of Southern pine and smilax, with baskets of white gladioli interspersed.

The candles were lighted by Marion Burley, twin brother of the bride, and the couple entered together, unattended.

Immediately following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burley, with members of the two families and a few intimate friends present. Refreshments of cookies and punch were served.

Mrs. McMillan is the daughter of C. H. Burley and the late Mrs. Mattie Hendrix Burley of Monticello. A graduate of Monticello High School, she entered and graduated from the Columbia Hospital, where she has been a supervisor of nurses since her graduation.

Mr. McMillan, of Latta, attended Clemson College and for several years was connected with Lorick and Lowrance in Columbia.

After a wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Columbia, where Mr. McMillan now operates a commissary at Fort Jackson.

BURLEY-MARTIN

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Martin have recently returned from their wedding trip to the mountains of western North Carolina. They were married at the home of the Rev. Charley Harris of Winnsboro, on September 27th, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Mr. Harris, pastor of Salem and Lebanon churches, this county. 1935

The bride is the pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Burley of Monticello. She is a graduate of Winthrop college and was a member of the Beta Omega Kappa Social club of Winthrop. Mr. Martin is a graduate of Clemson college of the class of 1931. He is now labor foreman of the CCC camp here. The young couple are now making their home with Mr. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milo B. Martin, near Salem Cross Roads.

AT Little River Baptist Church

Miss Burley Becomes Bride of Mr. George Henry Heron on September 1

Historic Little River Baptist Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Thursday evening, September 1, at 7:30 o'clock, when Miss Darleen Faith Burley of Highland, Indiana, became the bride of George Henry Heron of Jenkinsville. The Reverend T. F. Reid performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends. 1960

Palms, ivy and two arrangements of mammoth white mums and lighted tapers in branched candelabra effectively decorated the church. The family pews were marked by large white satin bows.

Mrs. Ray Turner of Cayce, organist, and George Reed of Cayce, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Usher-groomsman were Charlie Burley, brother of the bride, Highland, Indiana; Bobby Halle, Newberry; Joe Glenn of Jenkinsville; and Harry Long of Blair. Max Sternberg, of Parr, uncle of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Miss Janet Sue Burley, of Highland, Indiana, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a street-length dress of wisteria colored lace over matching net and taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice and scooped neckline. A wisteria taffeta sash circled the waistline and terminated in loops in the back. Her bandeau matched her dress and she carried a bouquet of white mums with white satin streamers.

The bridesmaids were Misses Rita Burley and Mary Jo Burley of Parr, Martha Heron, sister of the bridegroom, of Jenkinsville. Little Miss Deborah Mull, of Greenville, niece of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. Their dresses, bandeaux and flowers were similar to those of the honor attendant.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Franklin Burley, of Highland, Indiana, was lovely in her chapel train wedding gown of silk organza designed with a yoke and long sleeves of Alencon lace, featuring a sabrina neckline studded with seed pearls and sequins. She wore a fingertip veil of imported illusion fastened to a crown of pearls and sequins. The bride carried a lace-covered prayer book topped with a white orchid with cascades of white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Burley, mother of the bride, wore a street-length sheath dress of navy lace, with complimenting accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Heron, mother of the bridegroom, wore a light blue lace dress with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. M. S. Sternberg, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a rose crepe dress with matching accessories and a white mum corsage.

1974
Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Burley announce the engagement of their niece, Mary Elizabeth, and Clarence Ray Sturkie, both of Columbia. Mr. Sturkie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sturkie of Columbia.

The wedding is planned for January 4, in Salem Presbyterian Church.

cessories and a white mum corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the Educational Building. The bridal couple was assisted in receiving and entertaining by their parents, the bridal attendants, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burley, Mrs. Reid Long and Mrs. W. L. Burley.

The bride's register was kept by Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Bigham.

The bride's table was covered with a cutwork cloth and centered with a lovely four-tiered wedding cake embossed with hand-made roses and orchids. On each side silver candelabra held white lighted tapers.

The refreshment table held two handsome arrangements of white mums and ferns. Mrs. Bert Mull, of Greenville, served punch from one end of the table and Mrs. Marion Burley of Monticello served the wedding cake after the traditional first slice had been cut by the bridal couple.

Miss Beatrice Heron, of Chester, aunt of the bridegroom, and a group of young girls served.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip to the mountains. For traveling the bride wore an original black sheath dress of pure silk, with white and red accessories and the white orchid from her prayer book.

After September 15, the young couple will be at 109 Hillcrest Extension, Clemson College.

Mrs. Heron is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Burley of Highland, Indiana. She was graduated from Griffith High School, and attended St. Joseph's Art College.

Mr. Heron, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Heron of Jenkinsville, was graduated from Jenkinsville High School, attended Clemson College and will receive his Master's degree there in February.

BURLEY-LONG 1936

A marriage of much interest throughout the county and State was consummated on Tuesday evening, August 25, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Harris, when Miss Ida Bertha Burley became the bride of Reid F. Long, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Harris. A few close friends and relatives were present at the nuptials.

Mrs. Long is the attractive daughter of Mr. Charles H. Burley, an influential landowner of the Monticello community.

The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Long of Blairs. He graduated at Clemson College, Class of '31, and is a successful young civil engineer, having held important positions with the highway departments in the Carolinas.

Mrs. Long was honored with several parties and was the recipient of many useful and handsome gifts among which was a service of flat silver presented by Mr. Long's parents.

The young couple, after a short trip by motor, are at home to their many friends at Mt. Airy, N. C.

A marriage which will be of interest to people of Winnsboro and vicinity is that of Miss Hazel Bunch to Mr. Eathel Hammond, both of Winnsboro. They were married on April second, and will make their home in Winnsboro. 1928