

Miss Virginia Ann Storey Becomes Bride of William Daniel Leitner

MRS. WILLIAM DANIEL LEITNER
1950
Jacksonville, Florida.

Miss Doris Mae Hobgood Is Wed to Mr. Leitner on Friday, January 7

MRS. HUGH JAMES LEITNER JR.

LEITNER—HORNSBY

Of wide interest in South Carolina was the wedding of Miss Esther Leitner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Leitner of Winnsboro and Benjamin F. Hornesby, son of Mrs. M. B. Hornesby of Columbia, at Bethel Methodist church, near Winnsboro, on Saturday evening at seven-thirty o'clock. 111945

The church was beautifully decorated with pines, southern smilax, baskets of white gladioli and tall white tapers.

Mrs. H. B. Shealy, pianist, and Mrs. C. E. Lewis, vocalist, furnished the music. Before the ceremony Mrs. Shealy played "Ave Maria", while the groomsmen, S. F. Leitner and J. W. Leitner, brothers of the bride, lighted the candles. Mrs. Lewis sang "O Promise Me" and "Because," and at the close of the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer", as the couple knelt at the altar. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and the recessional, and "Liebestraum" was softly rendered while the nuptial vows were being spoken.

The Rev. R. L. Hall, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the beautiful ring ceremony. Usher groomsmen were W. W. Leitner, brother of the bride, and Herbert Hornesby, brother of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor, Miss Florence Leitner, sister of the bride, wore a dress of pink chiffon and lace and carried a bouquet of rose colored carnations. Miss Polly Hornsby, sister of the bridegroom was the bride's maid. She wore a gown of blue chiffon and lace and carried pale pink carnations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a wedding gown of white taffeta, made with a sweetheart neckline with long sleeves and a long train, and a bridal veil of illusion. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. Her corsage was sweetpeas, brides roses, showered with lilies of the valley, and centered with an orchid.

The bride's mother was gowned in a lavender crepe dress and her corsage was of white carnations, and the bridegroom's mother popularity of the couple.

In the dining room Mrs. James Watson of Union served the three tiered wedding cake, which had been cut by the bride and bridegroom. Miss Hannah Leitner of Spartanburg was in charge of the punch bowl, and those assisting in serving were Mrs. Joe Brooks of Winnsboro, Mrs. Dick Berry of Spartanburg, Mrs. W. W. Leitner of Knoxville, Tenn., Miss Carrie Martin, of Elberton, Ga., and Miss Mary Leitner of Lydia.

Mrs. Hornesby attended Columbia College and is a graduate of Thorson Beauty College, Columbia, and is now a beautician of Winnsboro.

Mr. Hornesby graduated from Columbia High School, and is a Veteran of World War II, and an active member of the American Legion, Post No. 6. He is now sales representative of Stanley Supply Company.

After a wedding trip, the young couple will make their home in the Bethel community.

Vows Spoken in Massachusetts

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Revere Leitner, who were married in a formal ceremony, December 27, 1950, at the All Saints' Church in Brookline, Mass.

In one of the loveliest weddings of the mid-winter season, Miss Suzanne Joy Wiseman of Brookline, Mass., became the bride of Paul Revere Leitner, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Winnsboro, December 27, 1950, at 8 P.M., in the All Saints' Church in Brookline, Mass.

The ceremony was performed before a large assemblage of friends and relatives by the bride's pastor, the Rev. Junius J. Martin. The church was beautifully decorated with attractive basket arrangement of chrysanthemums and snapdragons.

The church organist presented a program of nuptial music, including the traditional wedding marches, "I Love You Truly," and "To a Wild Rose."

Walker W. Leitner of Winnsboro served as his son's best man. Ushergroomsmen were D. Reid Wiseman, brother of the bride, and Robert E. Carroll, the bride's brother-in-law, both of Brookline, Mass.

Maid of honor was Miss Jane Carol Wiseman of Brookline, sister of the bride, who was costumed in fuschia taffeta appliqued with velvet. She wore a headpiece of ostrich feathers to match her gown and carried a spray of heather.

Mrs. Robert Carroll of Brookline was her sister's matron of honor. She was similarly dressed to the maid of honor in apple green taffeta, with matching ostrich headdress, and also carried a spray of heather.

Little Elizabeth Leitner of Winnsboro, sister of the groom, was the flower girl. She was becomingly gowned in pink taffeta and carried a dainty nosegay of pink sweetpeas and tea roses.

The brunette bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Marcus Wiseman of Brookline, was attired in white Chantilly lace over satin entrain. Her veil was of French illusion caught with white ostrich feathers, and she carried a bouquet of Calla lilies.

Mrs. Marcus Wiseman, mother of the bride, was dressed in coral crepe, with which she wore black ostrich plumes and a corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Walker Leitner, mother of the groom, wore cocoa crepe trimmed in sequins, a sequinned matching hat, and a brown orchid.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 2 Strathmore Road, Brookline, Mass. During the evening the young couple left for a honeymoon trip through New York, Washington and the South. The bride's traveling costume was a Christian Dior, grey, wool suit, complemented by a pink velvet hat, and an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Leitner will make their home in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he is employed in insurance business.

Mrs. Leitner attended the Kathleen Dell business college in Boston, and her husband is a graduate of Duke University in the class of 1950, where he majored in Business Administration. He was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. During World War II he served with the U. S. Army in Korea.

LIGON—MIMS

The home of Mrs. Walter W. Ligon was the scene of a lovely wedding Friday evening, June 10, at 8 o'clock when Miss Doris Ligon became the bride of Mr. George Mims of St. George. The Rev. L. A. Carter, pastor of the bride, performed the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of a few near relatives and frindse. Mrs. Pope Brooks was at the piano and rendered the nuptial music.

Decorations of ivy, daisies and vari-colored gladioli furnished a beautiful setting for the occasion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Walter W. Ligon, was lovely in a navy traveling suit with navy hat and accessories.

Miss Abbie Ligon as maid of honor, was her sister's only attendant.

The groom had as his best man, his brother, Mr. Arthur Mims of St. George.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for the mountains where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mrs. Mims is the daughter of Mrs. Walter W. Ligon and the late Mr. Ligon of the Greenbrier section. She is a graduate of the University of South Carolina and for the past year has been a member of the Salley High School faculty.

Mr. Mims is a son of Mrs. I. E.

Mims and the late Mr. Mims of St. George. He received his education at Mars Hill Junior College and the University of South Carolina and is now in business at St. George where the happy couple will make their home.