On Sunday afternoon, April 21, Miss Lillian Ruth Rexrode and Stephen Kay DeBruhl were united in marriage at Union Memorial Presbyterian Church, Winnsboro. The double-ring ceremony was performed at four o'clock by the Reverend Marion B. Anderson, pastor.

Lovely floral arrangements, lighted candles and greenery formed a background for the impressive ceremony.

Mrs. Thomas W. Gladden presented an appropriate prenuptial musical program at the organ. The traditional wedding marches were used for both the proceessional and the recessional.

Miss Frances Catherine Rexrode, Miss Lillian Ruth Rexrode and the Reverend Marion B. Anderson, pastor, were united in marriage at Union Memorial Presbyterian Church, Winnsboro.

The Reverend Iain Inglis of Home Path, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The bride and groom are Miss Lillian Ruth Rexrode, sister of the bride, and Mr. Stephen Kay DeBruhl, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Herbert Rexrode, of Winnsboro.

The church was beautifully dressed with magnolia, white gladiolus, fern, bows of ribbon and streamers of ribbon, with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

The newlyweds were introduced to the guests by Rev. Marion Anderson, assisted by Mr. Curtis DeBruhl, his son's best man. Ushers were Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ballentine of Winnsboro, brothers of the groom. The bride's Given in marriage by her mother, was lovely in a gown of Venise lace featuring empire waist, high neckline, cage sleeves, and scalloped hemline. Her long veil, edged in lace, was held in place with a half-cap made of matching lace and pearls. She wore an heirloom cameo necklace that was worn by her grandmother and mother in their weddings. She carried a purse covered bouquet with lilac flowers and white roses.

Miss Carolyn McDill Rexrode was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John H. DeBruhl and Mrs. Kenneth Lominaic of Camden. Miss Martha Virginia Timms of Rockingham, N.C., Misses Jane Elizabeth and Lucy Diane Timms, Mrs. Herbert Rexrode Jr., all of Winnsboro. Also, Mrs. Kenneth Grover Hooker of West Columbia and Miss Hellen Grey Rexrode sisters of the bride. The groom's cousin, Miss Pamela DeBruhl of Camden was junior bridesmaid. Ray DeBruhl, nephew of the groom, was junior groomsman. The bridal attendants were identical gowns of light blue chiffon and taffeta. The high necklines and empire waists were out-lined by white lace with matching lace ribbons. The long, full chiffon sleeves were buttoned at the cuff with pearl buttons. Headpieces of light blue bows and matching net completed their dresses. They carried white mums with greenery and white ribbon bows.

The church was beautifully decorated with magnolia, white gladiolus, fern, bows of ribbon and streamers of ribbon, with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

The bride's gown was a floor length lavendar ensemble with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, was lovely in a gown of Venise lace featuring empire waist, high neckline, cage sleeves, and scalloped hemline. Miss Lillian Ruth Rexrode, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Herbert Rexrode, of Winnsboro. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Clay Hooker, Sr., of Winnsboro. The church was beautifully dressed with magnolia, white gladiolus, fern, bows of ribbon and streamers of ribbon, with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

The bride's gown was a floor length lavendar ensemble with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

The groom's cousin, Miss Pamela DeBruhl of Camden was junior bridesmaid. Ray DeBruhl, nephew of the groom, was junior groomsman. The bridal attendants were identical gowns of light blue chiffon and taffeta. The high necklines and empire waists were out-lined by white lace with matching lace ribbons. The long, full chiffon sleeves were buttoned at the cuff with pearl buttons. Headpieces of light blue bows and matching net completed their dresses. They carried white mums with greenery and white ribbon bows.

The church was beautifully decorated with magnolia, white gladiolus, fern, bows of ribbon and streamers of ribbon, with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

The bride's gown was a floor length lavendar ensemble with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

The groom's cousin, Miss Pamela DeBruhl of Camden was junior bridesmaid. Ray DeBruhl, nephew of the groom, was junior groomsman. The bridal attendants were identical gowns of light blue chiffon and taffeta. The high necklines and empire waists were out-lined by white lace with matching lace ribbons. The long, full chiffon sleeves were buttoned at the cuff with pearl buttons. Headpieces of light blue bows and matching net completed their dresses. They carried white mums with greenery and white ribbon bows.

The church was beautifully decorated with magnolia, white gladiolus, fern, bows of ribbon and streamers of ribbon, with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

The bride's gown was a floor length lavendar ensemble with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

The groom's cousin, Miss Pamela DeBruhl of Camden was junior bridesmaid. Ray DeBruhl, nephew of the groom, was junior groomsman. The bridal attendants were identical gowns of light blue chiffon and taffeta. The high necklines and empire waists were out-lined by white lace with matching lace ribbons. The long, full chiffon sleeves were buttoned at the cuff with pearl buttons. Headpieces of light blue bows and matching net completed their dresses. They carried white mums with greenery and white ribbon bows.

The church was beautifully decorated with magnolia, white gladiolus, fern, bows of ribbon and streamers of ribbon, with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

The bride's gown was a floor length lavendar ensemble with white accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of deep purple asters and white roses.

Candles were lighted by Cecil Honea Path was ring bearer. He carried the rings on a white satin port. The bridesmaids were Miss Hellen Grey Rexrode, Mrs. Henry DeBruhl presided at the punch bowls. Mrs. John Elliott and Mrs. Julian Ballentine cut and served the beautiful four-tiered wedding cake, after the traditional first slice was cut by the bride and groom. Others assisting in serving the delicious party foods were Misses Deborah Timms, Margaret Robertson, Peggy and Jennie Robertson. Also, Mrs. Julian Ballentine of Winnsboro, brother of the groom. The couple is a graduate of Winnsboro High School and Columbia Com-

Deese—Robertson

Miss Grace Deese of Charleston, N. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Deese of Charleston, was married to G. Payne in Eau Claire, Wis. The bride is a graduate of St. Peter's Hospital training school in Charleston. The couple is living in Eau Claire, Wis., where the couple is residing.

Mrs. Stephen Kay DeBruhl

In Union Memorial Church Ceremony

Miss Frances Catherine Rexrode Is Wed to Mr. Hooker, Sunday, July 9

Mrs. Robert Kennerly Hooker