

The Battlefield and Beyond

A Series of People, Places and Events of the Past

Washington at War *

His military career began as a British Militia Officer. George Washington would lead our new nation to victory, establishing the United States.

The Will to Win & Conquering Adversity *

Follow George Washington as a young Virginia Officer to the nation's first Commander-in-Chief and his indomitable will to win.

Delivery Upon the Delaware *

George Washington would lead the fledgling U. S. Army across the Delaware River into a battle which would "save our Revolution."

GW ~ Man ~ Mason ~ Memorial *

Learn how vision and instilled values guided the Father of our Country and how his memory is forever memorialized.

A Mason's Martha *

Whilst much is known of our first President, far too little is recalled of our nation's "First Lady." Learn about Martha Washington's life.

GMW: An Enduring Union ~ George & Martha Washington *

In 1759, a 40 year marriage between two British subjects would begin and together they would usher in the birth of a new Nation.

Memories of Montgomery

A brief report on one of America's first Generals and the namesake of Montgomery County, NC.

Rebellious & Resolute

Learn about the role Freemasons played in Revolutionary NC.

A Field in Belgium

Escaping prison, Napoleon's final reign would end at Waterloo.

A Mission in Texas

The time is 1836 - the place is Texas. "Remember the Alamo" and the men in this nation-building 19th century conflict.

Robert E. Lee: Not Just a Soldier

Though he spent 63% of his life in military uniform, far too little is known of the man, his family and background.

Arlington at Rest

Arlington National Cemetery – a most hallowed American place – from its beginning until

Savior of the Valley

"You can be what you resolve to be" were the words Thomas J. Jackson lived by, while becoming a military legend.

The Myth in the Mist

Life and times of John Singleton Mosby, "The Gray Ghost".

A Frenzy at Fredericksburg

In 1862, hoping to crush the Confederate Army, U.S. forces launched assaults upon the entrenched foe atop Marye's Heights.

A Broken Band of Brothers

In 1863 at a small Pennsylvania crossroads town, the fate of both the Union and the Confederacy hung in the balance.

The Roughest Rider Beyond the Big Stick

Born into wealth, a sickly Theodore Roosevelt lived life to its fullest - hunter, cowboy, lawman, cavalry leader and our youngest President.

Life & Times of William F. Cody ~ "Buffalo Bill"

William Frederick Cody's feats as a scout, hunter and showman enamored the nation and the world.

The Human Factor & How Human Nature Impacts History

Witness how life altering experiences impact each of us through the examples presented in the lives of several well known Americans.

Reflections Through the Prism of History

An uplifting overview of our nation's trials, tribulations, and the observations of others who came before us...

* Part of the George Washington Collection

Each presentation is 30 - 50 minutes & may be complimented with a film clip. Suitable for School, Church, Senior, Heritage, Civic groups and Fraternal Organizations.
Contact Steven Campbell at 910-439-4994 or campmckay1358@gmail.com