

Junior Achievement

With the direction of Junior Achievement teacher and the year's consultant, students actually formed their own company. They receive a charter and it's the real world. Their are presidents, vice presidents, secretaries, and many other workers. You name it and the Junior Achievement student companies had one.

The officers were elected and acted accordingly. The products, wages, and anything else was up to the students. "I learned a lot in my student company. I didn't realize how much work was put into a company. Now I can appreciate the businessmen," commented Thomas Kennedy.

The students in Mr. Martin's second period Junior Achievement class pay close attention to their rules.

One of the products were buttons and the students as well as the stockholders made a big profit. CEO, LaChina Moore stated, "I didn't believe we would actually get paid and we did. It was a great learning experience."

The students who were able to be a part of the Junior Achievement student companies were able to start and liquidate a company in 18 weeks. That's an experience of a lifetime.

Terra Kennedy, Demetria Bell, and Tammy Gray work feverishly on the data they need to turn in.

Row 1: W. Martin, Monica Dadzie, Karen Bass, Latisha Ashford, Kendra Woodard, Michelle Evans, B. Simmons Row 2: Willie Perry, Thomas Kennedy, Raushanah Cook, Twyllia Alston, Danny Murphy Row 3: Daniel Bonds, Marlin Hill, Sandi Gratic, Canisha Martin, Kescia Jones, LaChina Moore, Terry Plair, Terrell Roach, Row 4: Aaron Beaver, Maurice Hall, Jacob Kennedy, Keisha Bouknight, Jennifer Arndt, Marcus Evans, Osman Shabazz, Dejuan Davis