

Coming Home

Above: Arthur Price passes the ball off in a Coming Home victory over the Chester Cyclones.

The 1999-2000 Griffin Basketball season featured a new twist. Inspired by the Student Government Association, a "Spirit Week" was planned for the week prior to the Chester game. Much like the week of Homecoming in the fall, each day had a theme, giving students a chance to exhibit their school spirit. The week included "Farmer Day", "Clique Day" and the traditional "Class Colors Day."

In conjunction with Coming Home Week, a Coming Home King and Queen were selected from the seniors on the boys and girls basketball teams. Candidates for the title lobbied students the entire week, even filming a short video shown to all students at the end of the day. In the end, Beatix Trapp was selected as the Coming Home Queen 2000 and Rontarious Brown was selected as the Coming Home King 2000.

In all, the week was a tremendous success and everyone involved believes a tradition has been established for future Griffins to enjoy.

Left: Christy Johnson, Sabrina Samuel and Martesa Frazier join in the fun during Coming Home Week by dressing backwards and as farmers.

Right: Tabbitha Caldwell is always working. Here she works on preparing events for the Spirit Week.

