

Office Staff

Above: Mrs. Horton works on a memo for Mr. Corley.

Left: Mr. Corley and Mrs. Hollis put their heads together to discuss ways to improve students' GPA's.

Top Left: Ms. Broome works on getting out the daily attendance sheet.

The Fairfield Central High School office staff includes some new recruits and volunteers. This department is the backbone of the school. Not only must they answer telephones and take messages, but they handle all outgoing and incoming mail, provide substitutes for those teachers not present, handle requests from administrators and teachers, and help parents and students with early dismissals, late arrivals, and teacher visitations. Without the help of these dedicated people, Fairfield Central High School would collapse.

T. Pauling, G. Lemon