

SAVE Club

First Row: Travis Evans, Mindy Hall, Darren Jackson, James Kennedy, Curtis McDuffie, Tasha Allen, Kianga Thompson Second Row: Asheeda Thomas, Joanne Goins Marquita Tape, Shameika Johnson, Melissa Sapp, Monique Squirewell

Above: Officer Lorrick is the advisor of the S.A.V.E. club. He guides them to help prevent violence in the schools. In addition, they develop and implement plans to promote toleration throughout the community.

S.A.V.E. promotes nonviolence within the school and community. It provides education about the effects and consequences of violence and helps provide safe extracurricular activities for students, parents, and the community. Open to all students who want to support an attitude of nonviolence, the organization is designed to have regular meetings for members to learn about alternatives to violence and to promote its message to other schools and throughout the community members can become skilled in peer mediation and conflict resolution.

S.A.V.E. promotes the virtues of peace, civility and nonviolence through compassion by helping students of all ages learn how to respect themselves and other people conversation plays a big role in S.A.V.E.

Allison Hood