

J.V. Girl's Basketball

The 2000 version of the J.V. Girls Basketball team picked up right where the 1999 team left off, by winning the Region III-AAA J.V. Girls Basketball Championship. Not only did the Baby Lady Griffins win their second straight region championship, this year's squad went undefeated with a 12-0 record, giving them a 24-1 record over the past two seasons.

The girls played a full court game with pressure on defense and a running offense. Fans enjoyed the hustle and enthusiasm at which the game was played, making it obvious to all that they enjoyed playing they game. The four returning sophomores (Ashley Witherspoon, Shemikia Alston, Dionna Murphy and Jofonda Trapp) lead the way for the newcomers (Deanna Robinson, sophomore and freshmen Ramona Belton, Shannon owens, Demetra Jackson, Shawanda Kincade, Ashley Cohen, Jasma Cole and Keosha Roach). Seventh grader Amelia "12" Miller rounded out the squad. Coach Richard Starks guided the team for the second straight year.

Coach Starks

Above: Freshman Shawanda Kincade looks to pass the ball as freshman Keosha Roach drives to the hoop.

Right: The Lady Griffins resist the pressure applied by the Fort Mill defense. Fairfield Central went on to win the game, as well as every other Region III-AAA JV game on the season.

