

STAFF

Those people who compose the staff at Fairfield Junior High School work daily with students, faculty, and administrators. They are an absolute necessity to keep the school running smoothly. Various members perform such jobs as office work, preparing meals, cleaning the buildings, helping teachers in the classroom, transporting students to and from school, and many other jobs too numerous to mention. Our staff has done a beautiful job of getting a new school organized and keeping it going.

