

AWARDS

Stanley Robertson won a power drill for his 4-H project on electricity. To win, he built a couple of lamps and completed a workbook on electricity. Stanley uses the knowledge he acquired to work on radios, T. V. s and stereos.

After being in 4-H for four years, Peggy Robertson has won a hairdryer for her electric project. The project included filling out a 4-H electric book and drawing some electrical hazards. Projects that she has done in the past are: two years of food and nutrition, one year of dog training, and one year of electricity.

Carl Belton, an eighth grade art student won a ribbon for his stencil print of elephants in an art contest sponsored by the Winnsboro Women's Club.

Barbara Floyd, a first year art student, won a seventy-five dollar savings bond for placing first in the "Hire the Vet." poster contest. The contest was open to students in the 9th through 12th grades. At far right, Mr. Goff is presenting Barbara her award.