

Fairfield Junior High School took all honors in the eighth grade division in Fine Arts at the South Carolina State Fair. Each year two blue ribbons are given to the two best entries. Linda Broome received one for her stencil print of two birds, and Anthony Pauling received the other for his abstract painting of a man.

