We've Only Just Begun.

We chose this theme because in reality we have only just begun. We are on the threshold of life, peeking into the adult world.

We hope to find ourselves, but the only way we can do this is to be ourselves. The hurt and pain we will encounter will be a little easier if we have someone to share it with.

We may get hurt, but that's what life is all about. Some people only exist, but we want to live. And we would like to share a fraction of our lives at Fairfield Jr. High with you, our friends, through this yearbook.
