Dedicated To

THE RIGHT REVEREND JOHN A. PINCKNEY, D.D.
BISHOP OF UPPER SOUTH CAROLINA

"No man is an island entire of itself. Every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main. If a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were, as well as if a manor of thy friends or thine own were. Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind."

John Donne

The Headmaster

The Reverend Richard Nevius

The prophet Isaiah wrote -- I, the Lord, have called you with righteous purpose and taken you by the hand; I have formed you, and appointed you to be a light to the peoples, a beacon for the nations, to open eyes that are blind, to bring captives out of prison, out of the dungeons where they lie in darkness.

'to open eyes that are blind' might be one definition of education -- certainly the idea of bringing captives out of prison, the prison of ignorance, is one that every school should have as its aim. We sometimes spend a great deal of our time worrying about the teaching of fundamentals -- and we forget that these great keys are opening the locks on the mind, and thus freeing the child from the prison of ignorance. The gate of a school is the gateway to the kingdom of knowledge. In a properly conducted school, the child's horizons are widened, his experience deepened, his outlook expanded. Even the smallest child learns so much so quickly -- think what an enormous effort is involved in that first year and a half of life when the child learns to understand human speech and to communicate with his family. Is there any intellectual task harder than that? Is there any joy greater than that of a teacher who sees a class suddenly relate letters and sounds to words and begin to read? At Heathwood Hall we firmly believe that teaching children is not only a responsibility, but a great privilege. There is a joy and a deep satisfaction in helping children learn that almost no other vocation can offer. Our dedication is not to educational methods but to children.

The Year In Review

James McNease Kinard
1962-1971

IN MEMORY

So God beheld him
Rejoicing in the beauty of life
With his love and his laughter

And God watched and
Felt the pain and sorrow
He bore
Saw the strength and courage
He gave to others.

Then God said
“Let the little children
Come unto me
For such is the kingdom
Of heaven.”

He sleeps now —
The sweet,
Peaceful sleep
Of the angels.

Mrs. James F. Byrnes Receives The 1970 Annual

On May 14, 1970, the presentation of the yearbook dedicated to our good neighbors, Governor and Mrs. James F. Byrnes was made at the school.

A Familiar Picture

particularly to anyone who has been in the "Thinking Chair" the picture above is only too familiar.

And could this be the happiest moment of the day? For children? For teachers?

The New Building

"let's clear out some trees"

First you pour it . . .

then you smooth it . . .

The chapel and four new classrooms which were started in October represent an important advance for the school. For the first time in years all the students will be able to worship together -- and the new St. Paul's Chapel is a worthy addition to our school. The modern classrooms are the envy of all and the joy of those lucky enough to be in there.

then you put up the steel posts

But what a year the construction work has provided -- a lot of very interesting sight-seeing for the children and lots of headaches and worries for the teachers and for the Headmaster. But on the whole it has been more fun than trouble, hasn't it?

and fix them in place and soon a building begins to take shape.

All Work And No Play?

We do indeed go to class but why show pictures of it when this collection of characters can grace the page instead?

Christmas Chapel

“O come all ye faithful . . .”

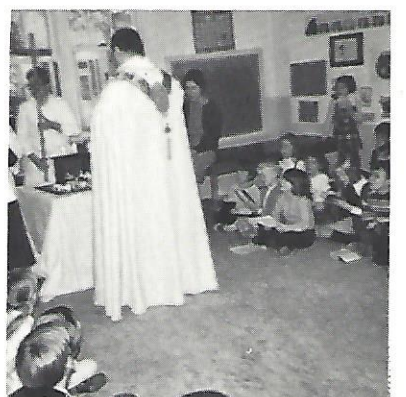

“God rest ye merry gentlemen”

“O little town of Bethlehem . . .”

“Away in a manger, no crib for his head”

“Silent Night, Holy Night, all is calm . . .”
