

Dear Mom and Dad,

For many long years you have encouraged (or prodded as the occasion demanded) me to a successful school life. Only you, with your wisdom, patience, and love, could know that some time in the dim future, I would realize first what you have done for me.

I do know now, in a small degree, that without your untiring efforts, I could never have attained this goal along the road of life.

Yours has not been an easy task, I'm sure. If I've seemed ungrateful I know you have forgiven my shortcomings because they are the universal fruits resulting from youth and unexperience.

To you, then, Mom and Dad, this CARDINAL is dedicated, with love and the assurance that you have not labored in vain. Your inspiration has led me thus far and points to a future limited only by my own ambition.

With love,

Your Graduating
Son and Daughter
