

Dedication

With deepest respect and admiration for a quiet-mannered, friendly teacher, and in appreciation for his continual enthusiasm and his interest in young people as evidenced by the progress made in vocational agriculture at Monticello High School during the past seven years, we, the seniors of the Class of '58 lovingly dedicate this yearbook to Mr. R. R. Foster.

