

FOREWORD

During these years of war and world conflict, our country strives to carry forward the Monroe Doctrine through our President's Good Neighbor Policy.

And we, the class of 1944, knowing something of the power and influence that such a feeling of friendship among the twenty-one nations can wield in the future world peace, have selected three nearby countries, Canada, Mexico, and Brazil as inspiration for our art work, and have chosen for the theme of our annual—
The Good Neighbor Policy.
