"ON THE LIGHT, FANTASTIC TOE"

Four years ago to high school we came,
 Welcomed by the paddle, greeted with disdain;
 Things were strange at first, each of us a kid,
 But we began to like this place, acting as others did.

Sophomores! A year looked forward to;
 Hendrix had a broken arm, Mary Byrd the flu.
 Glamorous hair-dos; lipstick on spoon and cup.
 Let the world know it, we were growing up!

As Juniors, in "Spring Fever," our talents were given a chance,
 Our social life high-lighted by the Junior-Senior dance.
 We sold candy at recess and made a lot of money
 And the many fusses that we had now seem just plain funny.

As Seniors we have reached the top;
 We dread the time our fun must stop.
 Publishing the annual, giving another play—
 Don't we wish that we could always live this way!
