

IN MEMORY OF

Those former students of Mount Zion who in this war have so courageously given their time, their service, and their lives for our country, that we might be free.