TRACK

For the first time in many years Mt. Zion has a track team. Mr. Harrison organized the team through the physical education classes and held eliminations to see who would be on the track team. There was much individual practice.

The team attended a triangular meet with Dreher and B.C., and were third with seventeen points. They also attended a meet in Rock Hill with a final score of approximately fifty-two points.

In the State Track Meet, they placed first in the Javelin with Shelton Mincey participating. Arthur Martin also placed third. Arthur placed fourth in the mile, Larry Tolbert third in the 440, "Book" Johnson second in the 220 and fourth in the 100. They also placed fourth in the half-mile relay.

It is felt that the track team did a fine job for their first attempt. However, next year they are sure to do much better.

Kneeling: Ray Johnson, Jack Stewart, Billy Price, Andy Turner, Bobby Price, Lindsay Cooper, Raymond Gardner. Standing: Mark Doty, Lafaye Wilson, Tommy Young, Arthur Martin, Jimmy Martin, Bobby Hollis.

HISTORY

The history of our Mount Zion can be traced back to 1777, but one history, the history of the class of 1952, began just a short time ago--in 1948.

As we write the last chapter of our school life, we pause here on the eve of our graduation and glance back on the days we have spent at the "light on the hill."

How well we remember that first year of our high school days. Young, frightened, and very green, we began our journey through Mount Zion. 1947-1948----yes, that was the year. Initiation--we had it. The boys were required to wear girls' dresses, shoes, and stockings; the girls were required to wear mens' pants and shoes; no bobbie pins could be worn in their hair. We can still see each other walking around, with the girls' hair hanging in their faces--and we recall the boys' shapely legs. We were scared stiff and afraid to move for fear one of the lords of the upper classes would report us to our ruler, Mr. Price.

1948-1949----That year we began to really grow up. Mingling with members of different clubs and becoming acquainted with the more difficult subjects like Latin and citizenship was easy for us and we enjoyed every minute of it.

1949-1950----Our fun continued. We were really going places. Lower classmen began to recognize us. In football our class was beginning one of the greatest histories of Mount Zion.

In the spring, the girls received a taste of the Junior-Senior Banquet. We had the pleasure of serving the Juniors and Seniors.

1950-1951----The next year we became jolly juniors. We had our noses in everything. There was plenty of work as well as play. Our class officers were Leon Hunt, president; Junior Stevenson, vice-president; Jeanette Watson, secretary; and Colleen Dean, treasurer. With their help, we gave our big Sweetheart Ball to help raise money for our long awaited Junior-Senior Banquet. Shortly after this, our play, "Seventeenth Summer," was a huge success.

Finally, the evening arrived when we played host at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. We were on our toes, hoping and praying that our guests would like our Hawaiian theme as much as we did.

We enjoyed many things that year. Some of us became Beta Club members and attended the wonderful convention in Columbia. Others attended Mental Contests. All of us received our class rings, and some served as marshals at graduation.

1951-1952----This year we were serious seniors. It hardly seemed possible. As we look back over this year, we remember our football season. It was a wonderful season for us. Never before in the history of Mount Zion had our teams beaten our two rivals, Chester and Olympia both in the same year. But we did. What excitement!

There were many in our class who received honors. Among these were Arthur Martin, our student body president, who played in the Shine Bowl and who received one of the George F. Baker Scholarships. Mary Ann Meng became "Miss High Miss" and Virginia Ruth Davis became "Miss D.A.R." Colleen Dean, Gena Fant, and Arthur Martin have been chosen as our graduation speakers. How proud we are of them.

Included in this seniority was the honor of playing guests at a beautiful Junior-Senior Banquet, "Hitch your Wagon to a Star," and the enjoyment of producing our class play, "The Little Minister."

Well, it is almost over. On Tuesday, May 27, 1952, we will reach the end of our journey. It has been a happy journey---one we can never forget---our journey through Mount Zion High School.

CLASS WILL OF '52

We, the members of the graduating class of '52, having been found sound in mind and body, this 23rd day of May, one thousand nine hundred fifty-two, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

Article 1. We leave to the Juniors our good looks and personality. May they use them to the best of their ability as we have.

Article 2. We leave our thanks to all faculty members; they have helped make our graduation possible.

Article 3. We leave our beloved books to the Juniors, hoping that they will use them as much as we have.

Article 4. "Jiggs" Jeffers leaves his ability to hook all the women to A. C. Reed.

Lucy Ann Robinson leaves her good looks to Mary Ella Raley. She hopes she won't have trouble keeping her dates straight.

Jean Bond leaves her height to Mark Doty so that he won't have to stoop to go through Miss Wylie's door next year.

Rudy Hall wills to Bobby Stephenson his weight; with Bobby's speed and Rudy's weight, the football team ought to really prosper.

George "Puddyfoot" Dean leaves his ability to crack corny jokes to Billy Melton, even though Billy does very well when entirely on his own.

Mary Alice Crawford wills to Merrill Jennings her flirty ways in the hope that she will put them to good use next year.

Jo Margaret Enloe leaves her love for boys in far-away places to Jackie Robinson.

Jimmy Douglas and Jerry Reynolds will their ability to keep their mouths shut to Jackie Branham.

Mary Miller leaves her peppy speech to "Sookie" Crawford so that she can discontinue that Southern drawl.

Jacky Gandy wills to Robert Brewer his ability to annoy all the girls. We hope he won't make it a habit as Jacky did.

"Cotton" Lathan leaves his place on the football squad to Shirley Sykes because she really has the build.

Gena Fant, Joanne and Jeanette Watson leave their love for the typing room to Claudia Thomas, Betty Emerson, and Mary Lee Carter.

Isabel Douglas leaves her vocabulary of gripes to Nell Branham. We hope she will not use it too often.

"Rip" Lane leaves his athletic ability to Willie Mae Bonds.

Rachel Smith and Mae LeGrande leave their ability to stay out of trouble to Barbara Christie and Margaret McMaster.

Andy Turner leaves his weakness for the opposite sex to Harold Geddings, although Harold doesn't need it.

Claudette Sims leaves her place on the honor roll to Mary Ann Snowden and Martha Louise McDonald. Please don't fight over it, girls!

"Bubba" Martin leaves his brains to the whole Junior Class. There'll be plenty to go around.

"Mazie" McMaster leaves her diction to Sarah Anne Quattlebaum so she can improve on her baby talk.

Shelton Mincey leaves Virginia Sharpe his cuteness. But we don't think she will need it.

Mary Frances Pope leaves to Katherine Martin her ability to be unconcerned about all matters.

Dorothy Jane Sandifer wills her constant singing to Jewel Faye Bennett.

Carolyn Weed leaves her quiet manner to Clara Jane Truesdale.

Junior Stevenson wills his ability to break up and make up with his girl at least ten times a week to Larry Tolbert. Happy landings!

Charles Smith leaves his faithfulness to one girl to Bobby Price. We hope that Bobby and others will profit by Charles' example.

Joe Looper wills his drums to Howard Hinson, knowing that he will take good care of them.

Peggy Mincey wills to Barbara Robinson her love for under-class-men.

Lamar Edenfield wills his speed in typing to Betty Dixon.

Sabie Cathcart leaves to Jean Waters his daily exercises. He hopes she will use them as often as he has.

Leon Hunt leaves his technique with the girls to Revon Tanner, in the hope that he will have them all on the string next year.

Charles Gibson leaves to Jimmie Haynes his wit, although Jimmie has plenty of his own.

Morris Davenport and Pete Gustafson leave their tact for blushing to Georgia Mae Walling. We hope she won't find the occasion to use this talent too often.

Joan Rutledge leaves her dancing ability to Jimmy Martin in the hope that he will become a famous "ballerina."

Mary Anne Meng wills to Mary Anne Sims her method of enjoying school.

Ann Smarr wills her front seat in English to Barbara Starnes, hoping that she will make A's too.

Jean Farthing leaves her tallness to Cathryn Cathcart trusting that she will reach the top of the ladder.

Barbara McFadden leaves her brilliant remarks to Evelyn Buchanan.

Virginia Ruth Davis leaves to the Plyler twins her ability to get along with the boys.

Annette Edenfield and Sonny Skipper leave to Billie Jean Watts and Annette Proctor their jokes, although they probably know them all.

Colleen Dean wills to Anne Macfie and Marlise Robinson her smile and encouraging words. We know that Anne will use them, but you never can tell about Marlise.

Joann Welch leaves to Melba Carey and Sylvia Estes her love for Fords, hoping they will also get diamonds.

Tommy Ruff leaves his love for chemistry to Billy Bryant.

Sara Bartley wills her interest in Clemson to Margaret Coleman, hoping she will get her a cadet.

Wilbert Pullen leaves his intelligence to Mary Faye Young so she will be a benefit to the rising Senior Class.

In witness whereof: we have hereto subscribed our names and affixed our seal this 23rd day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred fifty-two.

PROPHECY

I went into the News and Herald office to renew my subscription to the old home paper. The Editor, BARBARA McFADDEN and the Assistant Editor, MARY MILLER, and I began talking about the good times we had while going to school at dear ole Mount Zion in 1952. Immediately I got homesick to see all my other classmates whom I hadn't seen for 20 years. After learning from Barbara that they had all settled in the United States, I decided then and there that I would get my duds packed and tour the U.S. to see what they were now like. MARY ALICE CRAWFORD, my old standby and co-owner of the Crawford-Pope Ladies' Ready-to-wear, agreed that we both needed a vacation, so she decided she would like to take the trip with me. We left the shop in charge of JEAN FARTHING and SARA BARTLEY.

We left Winnsboro in June, 1972 and started northward as it was already beginning to turn warm.

Our first stop was at Raleigh, North Carolina. As we were coming out of the post office there, we met VIRGINIA RUTH DAVIS. She was very happy to see us and told us that she was helping get votes for EDWARD LATHAN, better known to us as "Cotton," who was running for Governor of North Carolina.

Our next stop was in Washington. As we didn't want to miss a single place of interest in our Capitol, we asked for a guide to show us around and who should it be but JIMMY DOUGLAS. Of course, he wanted us to visit the White House not only to see the beautiful building but to speak to the hostess who, to our surprise, was none other than JEAN BOND. After a two day tour of the city we motored on to Baltimore to speak to Dr. ARTHUR MARTIN, chief surgeon at Johns Hopkins Hospital. He offered me, free of charge, a much-needed tonsil operation but knowing "Bubba" from the past, I decided it would be better to wait until I got back home and let my old surgeon Dr. JOE LOOPER remove my tonsils.

After staying in Baltimore a few days, we headed for New York. We had made reservations at CHARLES SMITH'S hotel and there we spent the night. We decided to watch television for a change. Much to our delight we saw JACKY GANDY, who had taken Johnnie Rae's place, with his partners JOANNE and JEANETTE WATSON. The twins seemed to be making quite a hit on Broadway. On the next program appeared the two great comedy stars, ANNETTE EDENFIELD and TOMMY RUFF. After a half hour of good laughing, we went to the lobby to look at the paper. I picked up the New York Times to read ANDY TURNER'S articles. Andy is Sports Editor of this paper. The next day Mary Alice and I went to Macy's department store. We saw LUCY ANN ROBINSON modeling clothes for Macy's. Lucy Ann told us that JOAN RUTLEDGE and her famous ballerinas were now in New York. Joan was very busy so we did not get to see her.

On our trip through Pennsylvania, SONNY SKIPPER and JERRY REYNOLDS hailed us for rides. They had jobs in the great steel mills in Pittsburgh, and they were on their way to work.

Always wanting to go to the Great Lakes, we took the opportunity after we left Akron, Ohio, where we found PETE GUSTAFSON connected with an automobile factory. He told us to be sure to look up GEORGE DEAN and CHARLES GIBSON when we got to Detroit, Michigan. George and Charles are manufacturers of the Gibson-Dean automobiles there.

We visited RICHARD JEFFERS and JUNIOR STEVENSON who were making a career of the navy and were stationed at Puget Sound. As we drove near the shore, we noticed that they were pulling a net full of salmon from a trap.

As we were riding through the Sierra Nevada Mountains, we met two couples, newly weds, who were spending their honeymoons in the Bridalveil Falls in Yosemite National Park after their double wedding. The two dressed up brides were the former CAROLYN WEED and CLAUDETTE SIMS.

As we were visiting the oil wells in Los Angeles, California, we met Mr. Sims, husband of the former JO MARGARET ENLOE. He immediately told us of three other Winnsboro ladies who were living there. COLLEEN DEAN and MARY CATHERINE McMASTER are now famous movie stars and MARY ANN MENG poses for pictures for the Pepsodent Company, advertising their products.

Coming through the Great Plains in Texas we met SABIE CATHCART, MORRIS DAVENPORT, and WILBERT PULLEN, rounding up their large herd of cattle on the cattle ranch. Sabie told us that Wilbert, Morris, and he had bought a big meat packing plant in Chicago.

To our horror, we had to cross the mighty Mississippi River during the worst flood in history. While waiting for the waters to go down, we saw the former JOANN WELCH and her family on the river patiently living in an ark until the flood waters subsided. We only got to wave to them.

While visiting Alabama we decided to go to a baseball game. SHELTON MINCEY, after getting out of the army, had decided to play baseball for the Montgomery Grays. We were very glad we stopped to see him play because we got to see PEGGY MINCEY and DOROTHY JANE SANDIFER who are now career women. Peggy owns a department store and Dorothy Jane runs a beauty salon.

How delighted we were to get to Florida for a few days' rest. As we passed the Fountain of Youth, whom should we see but ANN SMARR, GENA FANT, and ISABEL DOUGLAS. All three dreading the thoughts of growing old, were kneeling down drinking from the water of the fountain. They were still old maids, and still hoping that someday they would find the right one.

We spent the next day near Aiken, S.C., with LEON HUNT, RUDY HALL, and LAMAR EDENFIELD. They had bought the great Hydrogen Bomb Plant and had turned it into the Southern Tourists' Camp.

The first person we saw and talked with when we returned to Winnsboro was EDWARD LANE, principal and football coach at Mt. Zion. He told us that RACHEL SMITH and MAE LEGRANDE had accepted work at Mt. Zion for the new school term. Rachel would be office girl and Mae would teach commercial work. "Rip" asked us about our trip and I promptly replied, "As for us, "Rip," we live and let live."

CLASS POEM

With the close of our last year drawing near
We each share a smile and perhaps a tear.
We smile at the thought of good times just past
While the tear stands for memories that will last.

We'll remember our teachers kind and just
Home work, class work, and dreaded tests.
We'll remember too as the years roll on Athletics and plays -- then the Senior Prom.

There were times when we thought that school was a bore
But now only wish there were twelve years more,
For the best years of life are passing us by
Which we'll recall with a smile or a sigh.

And now looking back to those wonderful days
When at last we've come to the parting of ways,
We begin to wonder what the future will hold
How many of us will reach our goal.

We'll remember the night that we marched down the aisle
And in what seemed to us such a little while,
We'd received our diplomas -- each and everyone
For our high school days at last were done.

IN APPRECIATION

"More is thy due than more than all can pay."

Miss Irene Kneece

Mrs. Claudia Hinson

We, the members of the 1952 TUSITALA staff, wish to express our sincere appreciation to Miss Irene Kneece and to Mrs. Claudia Hinson for their hard work and untiring efforts in helping us to make this year's annual one of the best. To Miss Kneece, we would like to say, "thanks a million" for all of the long, hard hours of work, in and out of school, which she so willingly gave to help us with the makeup of the annual. We would also like to express our gratitude to Mrs. Hinson for helping to make this annual possible through her hard work with the finances.

As you come to the end of this year's annual, THE TUSITALA, we hope you have enjoyed a portrayal of the activities of this school year at Mount Zion. We realize that it is not complete, but we have tried to give you a picture of what happens at school. We hope that you will cherish each memory through the years, and that each activity will live forever for you through the pages of this, your 1952 TUSITALA.
