DESERVA

Dedication

In deep appreciation and gratitude for their wonderful spirit of cooperation and loyalty, without which our school's progress would have been stalemated, we, the members of the 1953 Senior Class, dedicate our annual to the community of Winnsboro.

Class Poem

Classmates of '53, we have been at Mt. Zion a long time together,
Through days that were sunny, and through cloudy weather.
It is hard to part when friends are dear;
Perhaps some of us will shed a tear.

Many are the laurels some have won,
But all have had lots of fun
Trying to compete in things at school,
Playing the game fair and not breaking a rule.

We have trod these halls for many a day,
And since we are leaving we'd like to stay;
But time moves on with measured tread,
And we must follow where others have led.

Underclassmen, as we have received the banner given,
Faithfully now we toss it to you.
Ever hold fast to courage and truth,
In the words you speak and the deeds you do.

Class History

As we probe into the history of the class of '53, we recall many happy and sad events.

When we entered the sacred halls of Mount Zion Institute in the year, 1948, we received our first glimpse of high school life. This was the big year! Students from Everett and Mount Zion Elementary Schools met to form a new class--the class of 1953. Shortly after the year began, our initiation faced us. The girls were required to wear men's clothing and the boys were forced to wear girls' clothing, including highheels. Initiation ended in a week, but the torment lasted the rest of that year, for we were lowly sub-freshmen, known better to the seniors as "Jr. High Hiccoughs". When an upperclassman was near, we were afraid to move.

The next year, we felt that we were more nearly a part of the high school life. Everybody started treating us as if we were human beings. Many of us joined various clubs, took part in Glee Club, band, J. H. A., F. F. A., and other school activities.

When we became 10th graders, we felt as if we were really living. We were beginning to feel our importance. We were not afraid of the upperclassmen, and we had been here long enough to ridicule the underclassmen. That year we had the privilege of serving at the Junior-Senior in grass skirts, bare feet, and much pancake makeup. Most of us tried our hand at Dramatics, but none proved to be Ethel Barrymore or Basil Rathborne.

The time had gone by quickly. Soon we were Juniors. As we look back on that particular year, we remember many things--managing concessions at the football games, planning for and giving the Sweetheart Ball, presenting our Junior Play, "Inner Willie", and most of all--planning our Junior-Senior. Our theme, which was considered very beautiful, was "Hitch your Wagon to a Star". This year, too, some of us were initiated into the Beta Club. In February, we received our class rings. For a long time we walked about with hands outstretched admiring our rings and hoping everyone else was doing the same thing. Some of us were fortunate enough to be chosen as marshals and ushers at graduation.

1953--the big year for which we had all waited and worked. At last we were Seniors! We really thought we were "the stuff". Most of us who did not make the Beta Club last year, found the way in this year, and attended the annual Beta Club Convention in Columbia. We chose for our Senior Play "Pride and Prejudice" which was a marked success. We were guests at the Junior-Senior Banquet on May 1. The theme was "May Day". Everything was lovely. We tried all year for Senior privileges, but somewhere along the way they "flubbed the dub". Close to the end of the year, we began choosing Senior Superlatives, Mascots, Marshals and Ushers. This caused us to realize that our time was short and that graduation would soon be upon us. It is with a little sadness and a great deal of happiness that we look back on the history of our class--the class of 1953!!!

"History teaches everything, even the future."

Class Prophecy

After reading in my hometown paper, THE NEWS & HERALD, which was edited by my two former classmates, MARY ANN SNOWDEN and MARTHA McDONALD, that a television station was being officially opened in Winnsboro the next day which was May 26, 1973, I decided to catch a jet and fly down to see all my old friends.

I had just gotten settled on the plane when there was a commotion from the front. I hurried to see what was wrong and found the two hostesses, SHIRLEY SYKES and BARBARA CHRISTIE trying to quiet the two eminent scientists, DR. JAMES GRUBBS MARTIN and DR. WILLIAM PAUL MELTON, who were arguing over some new atomic theory. I said "hello" to the two men, but could say little more for the conversation was already too deep for me. I learned just before I left the plane that HAROLD GEDDINGS, the pilot, was happily married to the former MARY FAYE YOUNG.

When I arrived at the International Airport in Winnsboro, I spotted EVELYN BUCHANAN and MARGARET COLEMAN, two very successful businesswomen, who owned the airport.

They offered me a ride to the television station in their new Cadillac driven by their chauffeur, BILLY BRYANT. They told me that the television station had been built by the local architect, JACKIE BRANHAM.

We arrived at the station in no time flat. We were early, so I decided to wander around and see how many of my old friends I could find.

The first group I came upon were MARY ELLA RALEY, SYLVIA ESTES, and MELBA CAREY, all of whom were happily married. They told me that BILLIE JEAN DRIGGERS had recently opened the Driggers School of Dance for Tiny Tots.

I really hit the jackpot in the next group for there were CATHRYN CATHCART, MERRILL JENNINGS, KATHERINE MARTIN, and BETTY EMERSON. They were teachers at the new consolidated school. They said that LARRY TOLBERT, PH. D., was the principal and had as his secretary, BETTY DIXON. They told me that SUSANNE CRAWFORD was substituting for the regular English teacher who was taking a few weeks' rest after having taught ROBERT BREWER'S children. They said, too, that A. C. REED was teaching Math.

Next I spied a group of women who looked as if they had just stepped from a fashion magazine. They were: JEWEL BENNETT, owner of the Mme. Bennett Dress Shoppe, BARBARA MINCEY, who designed dresses, and MARGARET McMASTER and CLAUDIE THOMAS, who were models.

I just had time to say a few words to BOBBY STEPHENSON, who had recently bought Belk's Department Store and changed the name to Stephenson's Department Store, and HOWARD HINSON, grocery store tycoon.

Then the show began. First there was a comedy starring MARLISE "FIFI" ROBINSON and JIMMIE HAYNES. They had as their guest stars, ANNE MACFIE, famous mezzo soprano, and REVON TANNER, a professional football player. Time for the commercial and there were the PLYLER TWINS, ALICE and THERESA, advertising for Toni. Which Twin has the Toni? --I still don't know. Then the great prima ballerina, SARAH QUATTLEBAUM, gave a superb performance assisted by two more great dancers, JACKIE ROBINSON and NELL BRANHAM.

The next show was a real marriage on television. The bride? WILLIE MAE BONDS, who was marrying one of our local boys.

After the show I just had time to speak to VIRGINIA SHARPE who owns the Pink Lady Beauty Shoppe, and JEAN WATERS, who owns the Zippo Reducing Salon.

What was my rush? Well, I just had time to get back to my job in Hollywood. Big star? No, just chief maid to MARY LEE CARTER, GEORGIA WALLING, and BARBARA STARNES, who were now more popular than the Andrew Sisters.

Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the graduating class of '53, having been found sound in mind and body, this 22nd day of May, One Thousand One Hundred Fifty Three, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

Article 1. We leave to the Junior Class orderly and quiet attitudes in class meetings, in hopes that you will accomplish as much as we did.

Article 2. We leave to the Juniors our pleasing personalities, good looks, and ability to get along together.

Article 3. We leave our tablets and scrolls to the Juniors, in hopes that they will be taken care of, so that they may be used by future generations.

Article 4. We leave our thanks and devotion to the faculty members, who have made our graduation possible.

Article 5. Barbara Mincey wills her height to Mildred Lemmond, in hopes that she may reach greater heights.

Billy Bryant wills his physics book to Charles Raley. It isn't soiled.

Betty Dixon reluctantly leaves her typing speed to Marlene Hutson.

Jewel Faye Bennett leaves her quiet, easy-going ways to Marianne Herndon.

Shirley Sykes leaves her mental ability to Barbara Beasley. Put it to good use, Barbara.

Bobby Stephenson wills his way with the girls to Alex Rabb, in hopes that he too, may become a Don Juan.

Willie Mae Bonds leaves her athletic ability to Elsie Mae Neely.

A. C. Reed leaves his "car" to David Dixon. Beware David, you have to keep up the payments.

Marlise Robinson leaves her "space-hat" to Patricia Clark. Come out of the clouds.

Harold Geddings leaves his cute ways to Charles Nanney in hopes that he too will be unanimously elected "Cutest".

Susanne Crawford leaves her "wad" of gum to Jane Lewis. Quit popping that gum!

Sylvia Estes leaves her frequent trips to the beauty parlor to Betty Martin. (Neither of you girls need it.)

Mary Ella Raley leaves her megaphone and cheerleader skirt to Mary Lou Beckham. Lead 'em on to victory!

Revon Tanner leaves his football uniform to Raymond Gardner - Ye Gad!

Larry Tolbert leaves his belt to Jackie Mincey. If he misses a meal he'll need it.

Virginia Sharpe leaves her left gym shoe to Joyce Pate. You'll have to look for the other one.

Billie Jean Watts Driggers leaves her ability to get a man to Eleanor Foxworth.

Anne "Gertrude Lawrence" Macfie leaves the stage to Virginia "Emily Kimbrough" Townsend. Her shoes will be well filled.

Jimmy Martin leaves his track shoes to "Miles" Jack "Pacer" Revels.

Robert Brewer sadly leaves Mary McGill. Hands off!

Jimmy Haynes leaves his athletic ability to Larry Cherry. It's in good condition since it hasn't been used.

Theresa Plyler wills to Beasley Davis, Alice's two main features--her intelligence and good looks.

Alice Plyler wills to Mary Frances Black Theresa's two main features--her intelligence and good looks.

Nell Branham wills her love for the Navy to Mavis Gresham.

Jackie Robinson leaves her ability to keep quiet in the library to "Tig" Morris.

Billy Melton sadly leaves his tennis racket and can of slightly dead balls to Jack "Tiger" Stewart.

Melba Carey, the diamond kid, leaves best wishes to Doris Poston.

To Ellis Davenport, Mary Faye Young leaves her careful way of driving.

The Arthur Murray sisters, Sarah Quattlebaum and Martha Louise McDonald, leave their interpretation of the "can-can" to Nancy Fant and Bonnie Jo Craft.

Barbara Christie leaves her ability to stay out of trouble to Hugh Dunn.

Margaret Coleman wills her fondness for books to Jerry Weed and Charles Whitman.

Katherine Martin leaves her French reader to Trezevant Timmons. Il n'a pas de qois.

Jackie Branham leaves his love for the girls to Rhett Sanders. Stand in line, girls.

Barbara Robinson leaves her first love, English, to Bobby Kelly.

Howard Hinson leaves his flirty ways to Mush Levy.

Mary Ann Snowden and Margaret McMaster leave their good looks and cute ways to Maxine Young and Nancy Hayes.

Georgia Mae Walling leaves her quiet ways to George Brice. We do this with the rising Senior Class in mind.

Jean Waters leaves to Charles Brantley her ability to talk her way out of any jams that she might be in.

Evelyn Buchanan wills her ability to change moods to Shirley Brooks.

Cathryn Cathcart and Merrill Jennings will their algebra books to Marvin Haygood and Julius Cameron, in hopes that they will be the Einsteins of tomorrow.

Mary Lee Carter leaves to Betty Sims her hearty laugh. We hope you can control it.

Claudie Thomas leaves her intellectual ability to Genevieve Wilson.

Barbara Starnes wills to Felecia Turner her book-keeping practice set and hopes that Felecia has an easier time than she did.

Article 6. The Senior Class wills to the Juniors the fine privilege and honor to graduate from Mount Zion Institute.

In witness whereof: we have hereto subscribed our names and affixed our seal this 22nd day of May, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-three.

In Appreciation

Mrs. Claudia Hinson

Mrs. Eloise Howard

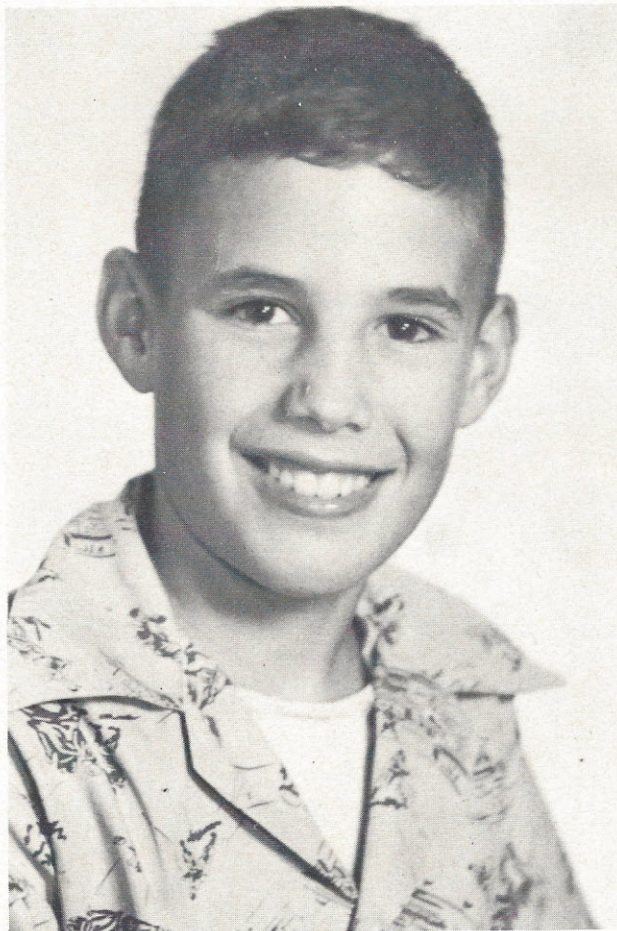

For their loyal support, untiring efforts, and faithful guidance and inspiration, which they demonstrated to us in publishing our annual, we, the 1953 Tusitala staff, express our thanks and deep gratitude to our sponsors, Mrs. Eloise Howard and Mrs. Claudia Hinson.

Throughout our Senior year they have proven their faith in us and we have enjoyed true fellowship with them. To us they have been teachers, leaders, and friends.

CLASS OF '55

There is nothing we can say
Except a loving prayer
That God will bless you, gentle friend,
And keep you in his care.
And in our silent sorrow,
There is nothing we can do
Except to live a better life
In memory of you.
