Conquer and prevail.

Loyal students ever loving
Honor and obey,
Hail, hail to thee, our Alma Mater
Mount Zion, all hail.

Dedication

JOHN FRANKLIN MACFIE
1937 - 1953

VERSE

John Macfie, beloved by all,
Is here with us today,
His smile so shy, his twinkling eye,
His gay, fun loving way —
Cannot be lost in time or space,
For qualities so dear,
Are present always, in our hearts,
And keep him ever near.

Miss Henrietta L. McMaster

Dear Miss McMaster:

I have chosen the following beauties
to be featured in your 1955 Tusitala:

- Sub-Freshman Class ---- #2
- Freshman Class ----- #2
- Sophomore Class ----- #2
- Junior Class ----- #1
- Senior Class ----- #3

I consider it definitely an honor to be able to make these selections. However, the choosing was so difficult I am sure I won't volunteer for this honor again. I can easily see that another "Miss Universe" will be coming from Winnsboro, South Carolina, in the next few years.

Best wishes to everyone at Mount Zion

CLASS POEM

As We, the class of '55 stand on the threshold of the future,
Looking out into the regions beyond,
We take one last fleeting glance into the past
Remembering with mixed emotions, our twelve years of schooling.
Recalling with a smile, our joyous days of fellowship.
Our athletics, clubs, plays, proms, and classes,
Thinking back to those dear teachers who spurred us on to our goal, storing up the memories which may fade,
but will never die.
And now, with deep appreciation for her loving guidance,
We bid farewell to Mount Zion, the light on the hill.

Class History

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1955

The history of our Mount Zion can be traced back to 1777, but our history, the history of the Class of 1955 began just a short time ago in 1950.

As we write the last chapter of our school life, we pause here on the eve of our graduation and glance back on the days we have spent at the "Light on the Hill".

How well we remember that first year of our high school days. Young frightened and very green, we began our journey through Mount Zion. 1950-51---yes, that was the year. Initiation---we had it. The boys were required to wear girls' dresses, shoes, and stockings; the girls were required to wear short skirts and men's shoes; no bobbie pins could be worn in their hair. We can still see each other walking around, with the girls' hair hanging in their faces---and we recall the boys' long shapely legs.

1951-52---That year we began to really grow up. Mingling with members of different clubs and becoming acquainted with the more difficult subjects such as Latin and Citizenship was easy for us and we enjoyed every minute of it.

1952-53---Our good times continued. We were really going places. Lower classmen began to recognize us.

In the spring, the girls received a taste of the Junior-Senior Banquet. We had the pleasure of serving the Juniors and Seniors.

Several members of our class were chosen as representatives for the State Mental Contest in Columbia.

1953-54---Last year seemed to fly by. Some of us were initiated into the Beta Club. Some were chosen as Marshals and Ushers for graduation, mental contestants and representatives for Boy's State and Girl's State. From the time we had entered high school, we had looked forward to the day when we would attend the highlight of the year---The Junior-Senior Banquet and Dance. We chose as our theme "Show Boat". To make our Junior-Senior a success was our goal when we all worked in the football concessions, gave the Junior Circus, and presented the Junior Class play, "Girl Shy".

Our efforts were not in vain, on May 7 the tired Juniors played host to the gay Seniors and to us the gym never looked lovelier.

1954-55---And now we are Seniors, all the joys of becoming Seniors have been ours---presenting our Senior play, "Pure as the Driven Snow", being guest at a wonderful Junior-Senior, choosing Senior Superlatives, Marshals, Ushers, and Mascots for graduation, class night, and graduation speakers.

This has been a wonderful year, and it holds many memories for all of us. We have shared laughter and tears in joy and in sorrow but always together.

Well, it is almost over. On Tuesday, May 24, 1955 we will reach the end of our journey. It has been a happy journey---One we can never forget---Our journey through Mount Zion High School.

This is our history---the history of the Class of 1955.

Class Will

Here on this twentieth day of May, having been found insane from five years of constant study, we of the Mount Zion Graduating Class of 1955 do here and there declare the following to be our Last Will and Testament.

Article 1

We leave our empty, hard, small desks to the Junior Class.

Article 2

We congratulate our weary teachers who have been able to survive us these many years. We also leave our thanks and appreciation to those who have guided us on our way.

Article 3

We leave to the Junior Class our quiet and orderly Senior Class Meetings.

Article 4

The Senior Phys. Ed. boys and girls leave a neat and orderly dressing room in the gym.

Article 5

The Senior typists leave their clean, erasure-dust-free typewriters with the hope that the future typists will keep them as clean.

Article 6

We leave you our empty classrooms with the hope that you, the rising seniors, will use them as we did.

Article 7

Bobbie Anne Jones leaves to Selwyn Pearson her musical ability.

Jerry Ban leaves to Ellison Collins his ability to annoy all the girls. We hope he won't make this a habit.

Dorothy Kirkpatrick leaves her friendly ways to Bunny Henderson.

To Gerald Wilkerson, Birdie Broome leaves her careful way of driving.

Betty Crawford leaves to Opal Lee Collins her athletic ability. We're a cinch to win all the games next year.

Tommy Edmunds leaves his masculine appeal to Robert Dean, although Robert has plenty of his own.

William Goforth leaves to Jerry Branham, Homer Childers, and Harold Starnes his "brains." Knowing Goforth, there will be more than enough.

Joe Owens wills to Sonny Satterfield and Joe Patrick his quiet and peaceful ways.

Marie Driggers wills to Pauline Dunlap her quiet ways. She does this with the rising Senior Class in mind.

J. W. Joye leaves to Jimmy Cox and James Kirby his athletic ability.

To Bobby Hollis, Acie Scott leaves his ability to play the drums on a desk and sing at the same time.

Billy Waters leaves his wit to Jerry Tanner and Bobby Daniels. Things will really "rock" next year.

Tal Bartlett leaves his neat appearance to Freeman Hutson and Lindsay Eaker.

Billy Bell leaves his ability to "Blush" to Billy Smith. We hope he won't find it necessary very often.

Mr. Buddy Reynolds and Mrs. Rachel Crouch leave the ability to maintain a peaceful household to any future homemaker in the rising senior class.

Tiny Mae Truesdale leaves to Mary Ellen Montgomery her height.

To Macy Williams and Margie Gaddy, Joy Jennings wills her dancing ability and other such talents.

Rice Macfie leaves to P. A. Cherry his constant habit of making wise cracks.

Peggy Satterfield leaves to Sylvia Wilson her sweet disposition. Let's hope she will use it as Peggy did.

Alicia Coleman leaves to Jewel Cooper her "southern drawl" and "baby talk."

Woodrow Cotton leaves his love for English and especially term papers to Eugene Dominy and Laughlin McDonald.

Eula Lee Boyd leaves to Wyllene Flanders her ability to obtain and keep a new variety of friends.

James Shaw leaves to Bobby Gresham and Vernon Plyant his love for school.

Georgia Turbeville sadly leaves Lindsey Cooper to the rising Seniors and hopes that they can do something with him because she can't.

Marion Brice wills to M. C. Cathcart and Eddie Loftin his English ability since it has never been used.

Patricia Mauldin leaves her ability to make and break up with a boy at least eight times a week to Pansy Grooms.

Billy McDonald wills to Robert Sikes the Presidency of the Student Council. We know that his shoes will be well filled.

Laurie Branham leaves her typing ability to Diane Brantley and Ruth Perry.

Mildred Pate leaves to Gloria Thornton her shorthand speed.

Fred Smith leaves to Billy Timms and Vander Lee his quiet ways.

Wallace Brazell and Janice Wilkerson leave to Richard Smith and James Caddell their jokes, although they probably know them all.

Ezelle Whitman leaves his weakness for the opposite sex to Freddy Weed and Herbert Cooper.

Diane McDonald wills to Sarah Still her love for Ridgeway.

Bootsie McMaster leaves to Jan McMaster and Mary Jane Wylie her place on the honor roll.

Cora Sue Nash leaves to Peggy Fant her intellectual ability.

Lib Boulware wills to Patricia Ferguson and Resher Hollis her bookkeeping practice set and hopes that they will have an easier time than she did.

Linda McCright leaves her ability to be unconcerned about all matters to Dorothy Cathcart and Miriam Black.

Laura Anne Bond leaves her acting ability to Carolyn Baker.

Betty Jean Jackson wills her typing speed to William Cail.

Dorothy Anne Bowers leaves her ability to keep her mouth shut to Rebecca Poston and Jewel Simms.

John Cathcart leaves his technique with the girls to Jimmy Brice and Harry Sheely. He leaves them alone.

Lou Harrington wills to Shelby Branham her brilliant remarks.

Susan Palmer wills to Albert Lee Melton her love for French.
