

IN MEMORIAM

JERRY CUPSTEAD BRANHAM
1937-1955

THOMAS ADRIAN WILKES
1939-1956

A shadow of gloom fell over our community twice during the past year, when death came to two of our classmates, Jerry Branham and Adrian Wilkes. But death snuffed out their lives so quickly that they had no time to lose their glow. As the flame of a candle continues to glow after it has been extinguished, so shall their lives glow in the hearts of their classmates. Jerry's and Adrian's flames are out, but their lights have only been diffused.
