

As the year wore on, many happy occasions brightened our days. One of the most important was that of an alumnus of M.Z.I., General Brice, returning to talk to his old Alma Mater. Although General Brice made an excellent speech, we were most impressed by the fact that a graduate of Mount Zion could go so far. Another occasion was that of choosing the mental contestants. The "brains" were picked and they forged forth to Columbia, hoping to place. Some did and some didn't. But it was good for the rest of us dumb bunnies to realize that there were still a few students in the old school.
