

At last, May 3rd rolled around and Junior - Senior time was here. The Juniors worked, the teachers groaned at students missing classes, and the Seniors waited, but at 8:30 when the doors were thrown open and the glittering beauty of "Sea Fantasy" was revealed, it was all worth it. The music was good, the food better, and all in all, it was a wonderful Junior-Senior.

