

CLASS HISTORY

It is my special privilege to present to you the recorded events in the history of the class of 1958.

How well we remember our first year of high school, 1953. We were very proud to be a part of high school, and our enthusiasm could hardly be restrained. After our initiation, we felt as if we actually belonged.

We still recall the pride of being ninth-graders. How we looked down on the younger members of eighth grade! That year we began to join various clubs, participate in sports, and some were chosen to represent the school at the mental contests in Columbia.

We had hardly become adjusted to being freshmen when, before we knew it, we were in the tenth grade. It was a wonderful year, and we began to enjoy high school as it should be enjoyed. We had our first delightful glimpse of the Junior-Senior. Some of the girls were fortunate enough to be chosen to serve the juniors and seniors, and some of the boys were given the honor of being doormen.

1956-57 - - such a memorable year! We were just basking in the glory of being mighty juniors. Our main objective was to raise enough money to give the seniors a successful Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. We sold candy and hose, worked in the canteen, and presented the class play, "M'Liss." Finally the long-awaited night arrived. When the doors of the gymnasium were thrown open, revealing our beautiful "Sea Fantasy," the admiring glances and excited whispers told us that it was a job well done.

Claudette Kelly and Mary McCright represented our class at Girls' State, Bobby Brice was our representative at Boys' State, marshals and ushers for Commencement exercises were chosen, and we continued to be active in school affairs and sports.

Our senior year was the climax! We experienced all the pleasures of being seniors - - editing the "TUSITALA" and "CAMPUS COMMENTS," electing Senior Superlatives, "Miss D. A. R.," "Miss Hi Miss," and "King Teen," presenting the class play, "Men Are Like Street Cars," and attending the beautiful Junior-Senior Prom given us by the juniors. All the work required of us has been completed.

Now our history is nearing the end. Graduation night, so long looked forward to, brings us a mixture of joy and sadness. Our hearts are grateful for the knowledge we have acquired and for the ideals we have formed. Whatever we may accomplish in life, we shall strive to be an honor to this school.

This is our history, the history of the Class of 1958.
