

We drove on down to Washington where we spent the night with a friend, DR. BILLY BUCHANAN, and his lovely wife. He told us that JEAN OLIVER had written him asking for a position as his receptionist. He also told us about MR. and MRS. AUBREY MITCHELL, she being the former KARIN ARMSTRONG, operating a tree nursery there and were making good progress toward a success.

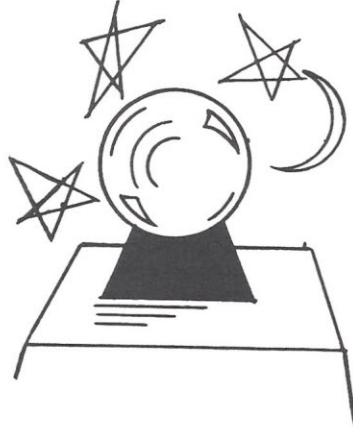

The next day we left for South Carolina. We were passing through Raleigh, N. C. and decided to stop by the home of BUDDY HAIGLER. He, along with JOEL WALDROP, had become very successful in the field of Textile Engineering.

Early the next morning we rode until we reached Clemson, S. C. There we saw PATSY LYLES, PATSY RISH, and their husbands cleaning the yards of the four apartment houses they had bought. We stopped and had an enjoyable conversation with them. They informed us that JERRY TAYLOR was now assistant coach at Clemson College.

We reached home late that afternoon, only to meet some of our friends at STEWART BEASLEY'S Grocery Store. Among them were JEANETTE BOULWARE and LINDA MONTGOMERY, who had opened the B & M Beauty Salon.

We told our neighbors and friends of the wonderful experience we had meeting and hearing about all of our classmates, who graduated from Mount Zion with us. Many did not realize the joy we had in seeing an old friend again, but we know that these memories will be cherished forever.
