Look to This Day

For it is life, the very life of life.

The bliss of growth

The glory of action

The splendor of beauty

For yesterday is already a dream

Tomorrow is only a vision.

(Lines on pages 1-3 translated from the "Sanskrit")

But Today, Well Lived, Makes Yesterday

A dream of happiness

And every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day!

Administration

Mr. William L. DuBard, Headmaster, is a symbol of tireless energy and is a tremendous asset to our school. Burdened with the many responsibilities of the Academy, his optimistic attitude keeps our spirits and hopes high. We are very grateful to him for his service and interest in Richard Winn.

What would a school do without a secretary like Mrs. Patrick Matthews? Her "blithe spirit" and bright smile can transform the darkest day into one full of sunshine. Our secretary's vigor is never-ending.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

TO THE 1969 GRADUATING CLASS
RICHARD WINN ACADEMY

This is a day when congratulations are in order not only to the graduates but to the parents, teachers, and administrators whose efforts have helped to make this achievement possible. I extend my heartiest congratulations to all of you.

At a time when there is much talk about the differences between the generations, I think it is useful to remark upon a similarity between your graduating class of 1969 and my graduating class of 1930.

Your high school years have been historic ones. When you entered high school, man was making his elementary steps into space. In your senior year, three brave Americans journeyed around the moon. When I graduated from high school, only three years had passed since a man flew for the first time across the Atlantic Ocean. Despite the obvious difference in years, we have this in common: we all know what it is to be young at the start of an age of adventure.

You will discover, as I did, that each person must make his own exploration of the world, make his own discoveries, shape his own triumphs, endure his own tragedies. Each of us is an explorer of himself, of history, of knowledge, of the intricate and beautiful and wonderful varieties of experience.

Each of you will make a different kind of exploration, some in continued formal education, some in industry or business or agriculture. Whatever your choice, learn. Learn all you can about yourself and the world.

Your final year in high school was the beginning of an age of adventure, an age you will help to shape. You have my highest hopes and best wishes.

Richard Nixon
