The Eaglettes continued their winning ways in the 1973-74 season and only some bad breaks and a case of chicken pox kept them from an unbeaten season and the State Championship. Head Coach Raymond Gardner was pleased with his girls and their performance as they returned to the State Tournament for the second year in a row.

Basketball just won't be the same without you. I can't imagine coming down the court and not having you to bail me out. The team of Hobbs and Haslett will finally be broken up.
