

Lift your voices, join the throng.
Swell in praise our joyful song.
Long live our Academy!
Hold its banner ever high;
May we ever onward march,
Blue and Gold against the sky!
Benedicat nos Deus.
Benedicat nos Deus.

Gaudeamus igitur
Iuvenes dum sumus!
As we leave these ivied halls,
As each golden future calls,
Richard Winn's ideals uphold;
E'er be true to Blue and Gold.
Benedicat nos Deus.
Benedicat nos Deus.

Praise to our Academy!
Follow as it leads us on.
May its star be ever bright,
May its path be ever light!
As we come from day to day,
Let us learn the upward way.
Benedicat nos Deus.
Benedicat nos Deus.

Under the guidance of Head Coach Raymond Gardner, the Eagles met the challenge of 1974 and achieved their ultimate goal by claiming the State Championship. The pre-season work, the joys and agonies of a 14-2 regular season, thrilling victories over Catawba and Wardlaw to avenge losses and claim titles, and the State Championship highlighted the most successful Eagle Basketball season ever. At last, the cries of "We're Number One" could ring out long and loud.

The Eaglettes continued their winning ways in the 1973-74 season and only some bad breaks and a case of chicken pox kept them from an unbeaten season and the State Championship. Head Coach Raymond Gardner was pleased with his girls and their performance as they returned to the State Tournament for the second year in a row.

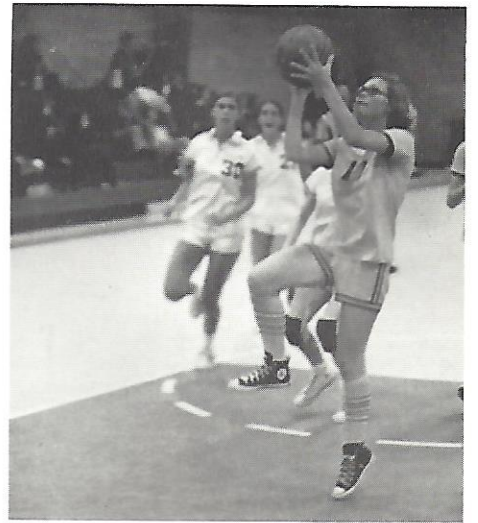

Basketball just won't be the same without you. I can't imagine coming down the court and not having you to bail me out. The team of Hobbs and Haslett will finally be broken up.

Cheerleaders Promote School Spirit At RWA

While the Eagles and The Eaglettes enjoyed much success in 1973-74, the Richard Winn cheerleaders were right there to lend a helping hand. They stirred the faithful fans with cheers and inspired the players with their rousing routines. The cheerleaders were instrumental in promoting school spirit, and they deserve much credit for this.

Alumni Battle Varsity Squads

Prior to the opening of the 1973-74 basketball season, the RWA alumni returned in an attempt to dethrone the present Eagles and Eaglettes in the Second Annual Alumni Game. The alumni gave it the "old college" try and showed signs of their old forms before bowing in defeat to the better-conditioned and younger varsity teams.

Through many man-hours of work under the supervision of Mrs. J. T. McNeely and Mr. T. E. Lynn, we, the members of the AERIE staff, have tried to make this year's yearbook bigger and better than ever before. During the past school year, many pictures have been taken and developed, much copy has been compiled, and we have rushed to meet deadlines. The members of the business staff have made money by faithfully selling ads and subscriptions, and by sponsoring the "Miss RWA" beauty contest. Now the labor is over and we, the members of the annual staff, present to you for your enjoyment, the 1974 AERIE.

Booster Club Helps Purchase Bus

Rah-Rah! Sis-Boom-Bah!

In its first year, the RWA Booster Club, formed by parents and patrons of the athletic teams, played a major role in purchasing a badly needed activity bus. The Booster Club sponsored fund-raising projects, such as a Father-Son basketball game and handling season and door ticket sales at games.

Mr. Reynolds, Col. Burnes, Mr. Patrick, Mr. Hobbs; Mrs. Hobbs, Mr. Bates, Mr. Reid, Mr. Collins, Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Huff, Mrs. Burnes.

Now, this is how it's done, son!

HIGHLIGHTS

Student Council Sponsors First Annual Homecoming

This year, one of the many projects of the Student Council was to sponsor a homecoming basketball game. Each varsity player asked a girl to sponsor him for the event. The Student Body then voted for their choice of Homecoming Queen, while the players elected a Sweetheart. During halftime of the game, Caroline Arnette was crowned as Homecoming Queen and Lou Ann Wilkes was crowned as Sweetheart.

L. DuBard, Master of Ceremonies.

Once again the Aerie staff sponsored the Miss RWA contest as a fund-raising project, and once again it was a huge success. Many people turned out to see who would be crowned as the new Miss RWA. Between the competition, the crowd was entertained by the Romans (Gospel singing group), the SPEBSQSA (barbershoppers), Miss Debee Burnes and her guitar, and a modern dance performed by Carolyn Teal and Amy Johns. The climax of the evening was when Mr. DuBard crowned Rhys Weigle as the new queen.

THE CURIOSITY SHOPPE!!

The Senior Class trip began Wed. morning, May 8, as the activity bus pulled away from the school carrying 12 happy Seniors and 4 chaperones. The RWA Srs. spent four days in Atlanta, visiting Six Flags Over Georgia, Grant Park, Underground Atlanta, Cyclorama, Stone Mountain, and seeing an Atlanta Braves baseball game. On Sunday, May 12, the activity bus returned home carrying 12 tired Srs., 4 more tired chaperones, and a foul ball hit by Hank Aaron.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

"Purpose"

by Marvin Jennings

Who, what, when, where, and why
Are questions you may ask.
Who are you?
What is your task?
When do you live, where, and why?

We are the class of nineteen hundred and seventy-four,
Our fathers, mothers,
Sisters, and brothers,
Our teachers to us have given the key.
The key to the door.

With this key to the door,
The door that must be opened,
Goes a trust that we will honor.
To make for them and ourselves
The earth of the "morrow."
Through this door we enter
To find the Truth, the Light,
The Universal Center.

A LOOK AT THE SENIORS IN 1984

MARTHA HASLETT has won a gold medal in this year's Olympics as shot-put champion.

BILLY REYNOLDS is president of a newly-founded organization, Alcoholics Unanimous.

JOHNNY PATRICK has just accumulated his 10,000th game of Putt-Putt.

IVEY MATTHEWS is taking an ACTIVE part in a peace rally in Washington.

DALE DREW is Commissioner of South Carolina Electric and Gas!

DAN RUFF (alias Curly) is incensing fans all over the world as a member of the Harlem Globetrotters as he streaks down the court to retrieve a pass from Medowlark.

MARY SWEARINGEN now holds the world's record for talking forty-eight hours non-stop.

FLEMING McMASTER is a professor at Clemson University, teaching speed-reading.

HAZEL MONTEITH (Wife of the Year) is supporting her husband faithfully as he continues in Law School.

MARVIN JENNINGS is a lawyer, but unfortunately he is in jail for contempt of court.

ANN DICKEY is now employed as mayor, city manager, and general store owner of Dark Corner.

KEITH COLLINS is working for the Sanitation Department. (That way his mind can stay in the gutter!)

ALISON ESTES is now a social worker, still trying to get Keith out of the gutter.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, THE CLASS OF 1974

We, the graduating class of Richard Winn Academy, in the year Nineteen Hundred Seventy-Four, being above average, both in mentality and in physical ability, and having the quality of superior intelligence, this the twenty-second day of May, do hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

To our BELOVED Mr. DuBard, we leave the thought that, "Parting is such sweet sorrow, but in your case, we'll make an exception," and the privilege to say, "I knew the Class of 1974."

To the faculty of RWA, we leave all of the knowledge which we have given to you and the hope that all of your students will be as brilliant and charming as the Class of 1974.

For Mrs. Matthews we give a copy of the Roman Meal diet plan and a bottle of aspirin. But mostly we just leave.

We leave the poor Juniors to the mercy of the faculty and the new dictator, I mean headmaster. To them we bequeath all of our textbooks in hopes that they will be able to read between the doodlings and the obscure expressions. We also leave them our few Senior privileges in hopes that they will make better use of them than we did. Finally, we leave them the power to rule over all lesser beings such as Juniors and Sophomores.

We leave to the Sophomores of Richard Winn our strong minds, our wonderful personalities, our good looks, and our high moral values. Be careful how you use them.

To the Freshmen we leave our ability to get along with the faculty in hopes that they will give them just as many headaches as we did.

To the lowly Sub-Freshmen we leave nothing but the honor of being recognized by the Seniors of 1974.

The Senior girls on the basketball team wish to leave their good relationship with Bobby Giles and the state championship they almost won to the Eaglettes of 1975.

To Abba-Fay McMeekin, the Senior boy basketball players leave all of their great athletic ability in hopes that someday he will get off the bench.

Alison Estes and Fleming McMaster leave their ability to rip off mechanical drawing equipment to whoever follows in their footsteps.

Alison also wills her parking space at Sam Kelly's to "The Crowd."

Fleming leaves his ability to shoot turkeys and ducks and to catch fish to W. L. DuBard. To Jane, he leaves the ability to stay out of trouble, to be good, to behave, and to be careful.

Billy Reynolds, Dan Ruff, and Keith Collins wish to, with the consent of "The Crowd," leave their offices to Rhett Reynolds, John Ruff, and Deannie Collins.

Dan leaves Sandy Burnes the ability to howl at the moon, and to Officer Locke Doty, Dan leaves one M-16 squirt gun to keep RWA straight. Finally, to Al McMeekin, Dan leaves his ability to charm women.

Keith leaves future psychology students his ability to stay out of class and to Bill Berzley and his oil-guzzling piece of a car, he wills his '64 Graffiti-car. To Randy Oxner, Keith bequeaths one free lesson at Barkoot Karate School.

Billy Reynolds leaves Mrs. Beach's psychology class one unending episode of "Another World." Also, Billy leaves his ability to keep his car spotless to Bill Berzley; and he wills his first pair of army boots to Chris McMeekin.

Marvin Jennings leaves his wig to Frank Longshore. To Mr. Bruce, Marvin leaves his sense of humor in hopes that he will use it wisely.

Hazel Monteith wills her car to Sandy Burnes because he loves it so much. To Edy Turner, Rachel Lyles, and Frances Monteith, Hazel leaves her ability to mess up cheers, although they really don't need it.

Mary Swearingen leaves her shorthand ability to Lucille Shirley and her quiet nature to Stewart Harmon.

To the next Senior class, Ivey Matthews leaves his ability to cuss in tight places and get away with it. Ivey also leaves one 3x5 photo of himself and a copy of his masterpiece, "The Natural Look," to Miss Davenport.

Ann Dickey leaves her ability to get along with the Senior boys to everyone. To Karen Collins, Ann leaves her ability to score the first touchdown in the Powderpuff Football game, and to Jamie Rauch, she leaves her typing correction tape in hopes that she won't need it.

Dale Drew leaves one clean, safe, sound, and orderly school bus with slick tires to Abba-Fay McMeekin and to Dean Boney, he leaves one can of Van Camp's Pork and Beans with Bacon.

To Louise Ferguson and Laurie Hobbs, Martha Haslett leaves her '64 Dodge Dart so that they can get home after basketball practice. Martha leaves Beth Reid her ability to throw touchdown passes in the Powderpuff Football game and her ability to stay uninjured and well during basketball season.

Johnny Patrick leaves his position as catcher on the baseball team and a Blue Cross-Blue Shield Health Insurance Plan to Stewart Harmon. To Hugh Bates and John Sullivan, he leaves all the golf and tennis matches which were never played.

This document has been duly sworn at, false witnessed, signed, sealed, and delivered, and to the best of our ability is false in every sense of the word, but is published as the Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1974.
