

As our school grew, there was much work to be done. Our young students had to adjust to new surroundings, learn new rules, and take on new responsibilities. During this time, our school grew greatly — from two houses that were falling down to a beautiful campus with two large buildings for classes, a gym, and a building for eating. All of this gave us cause to “LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL.”

