Lift your voices, join the throng
Swell in praise our joyful song.
Long live our Academy!
Hold its banner ever high;
May we ever onward march,
Blue and Gold against the sky!
Benedicat nos Deus.
Benedicat nos Deus.

Praise to our Academy!
Follow as it leads us on.
May its star be ever bright,
May its path be ever light!
As we come from day to day,
Let us learn the upward way.
Benedicat nos Deus.
Benedicat nos Deus.

Gaudeamus igitur
Iuvenes dum sumus!
As we leave these ivied halls,
As each golden future calls,
Richard Winn's ideals uphold;
E'er be true to Blue and Gold.
Benedicat nos Deus.
Benedicat nos Deus.

"Let The Good Times Roll" — an old slogan that has lived through many eras. A slogan that reflects our mood, one of fun — in learning, competing, growing, and doing.

We "Let The Good Times Roll" in many of our learning experiences. This was possible through the hard work of our teachers, the willingness of our students to learn, and an understanding on the part of both faculty and students that learning doesn't have to be all work and no play.

We really "Let The Good Times Roll" in competition at R.W.A. This was brought about by our love of action, our knowledgeable coaches, and our fun-loving parents. Our students and parents looked forward to games and gave our teams the support that they so greatly deserve. There was fun for all.

As our school grew, there was much work to be done. Our young students had to adjust to new surroundings, learn new rules, and take on new responsibilities. During this time, our school grew greatly — from two houses that were falling down to a beautiful campus with two large buildings for classes, a gym, and a building for eating. All of this gave us cause to “LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL.”

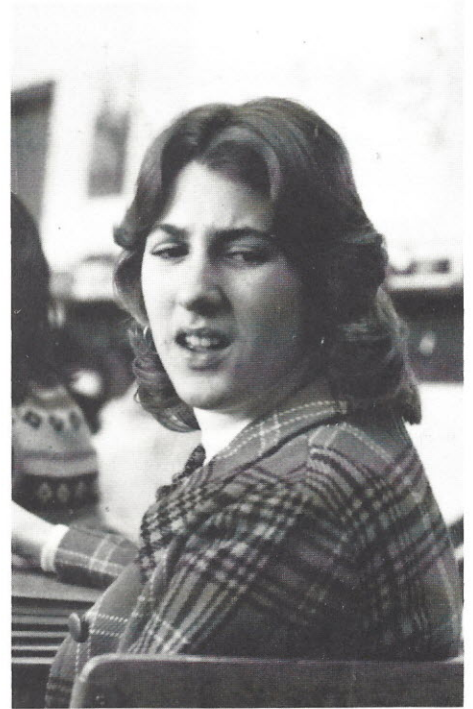

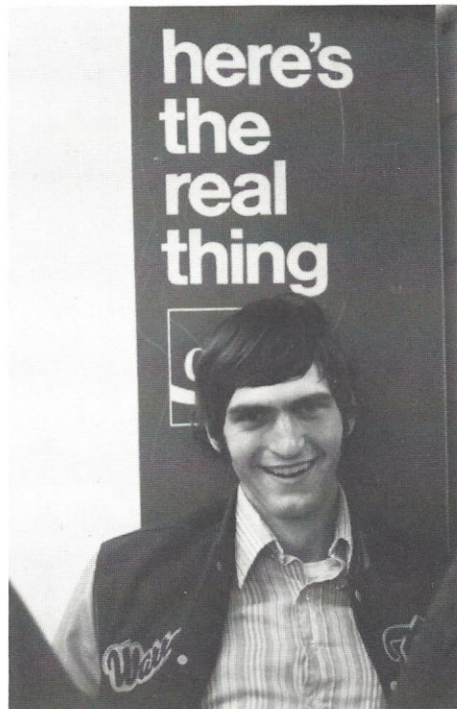

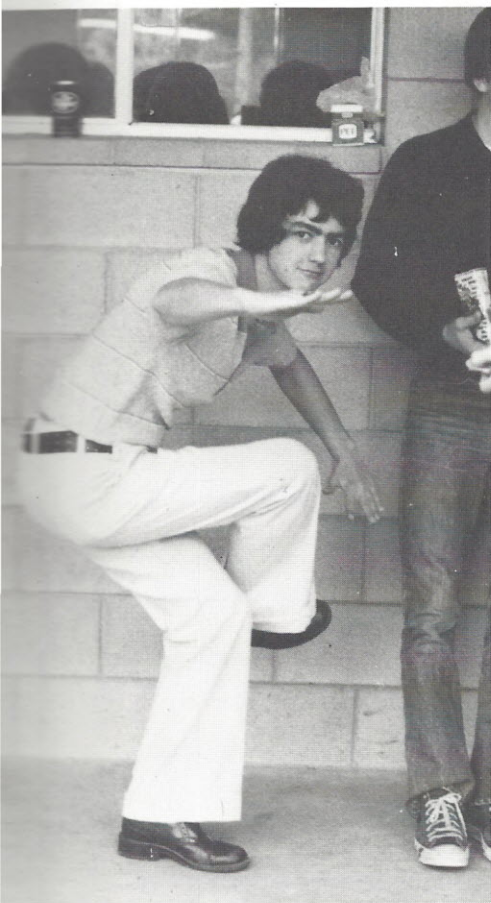

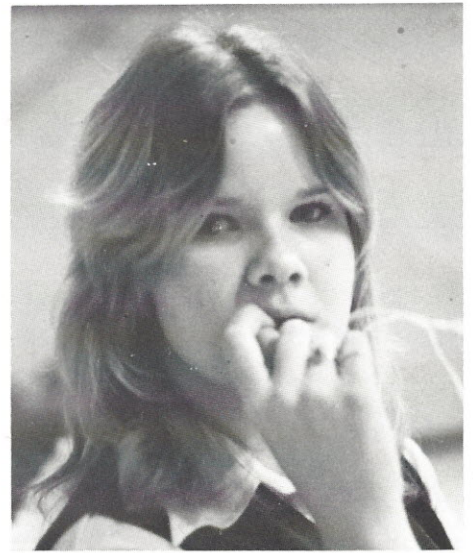

The year 74-75 was a year of many changes and improvements. We added a music department for our lower school, expanded our physical education department, and increased our faculty and student body to the largest ever. Through all of this we "LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL."

We're ready to meet the world
. . . excited, carefree, confused, young! We're ready to "LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL."

And

FACULTY

The school year 1974-75 has been a memorable one for Richard Winn Academy because of our new headmaster Thomas O. Bruce. Although Mr. Bruce has been with us only a short time, he has shown his concern and dedication to developing Richard Winn to the fullest extent of its potential.

Mr. Bruce was graduated from A. C. Flora High School in Columbia, S. C. and attended the University of South Carolina where he received an A.B. in history. He is presently working on his master's degree. Before coming to Richard Winn, our headmaster was employed at James H. Hammond Academy in Columbia for three years. While there, he taught American history and government and coached football and track. He helped to start the first football program at Hammond.

Mr. Bruce has made many changes for the betterment of Richard Winn, such as selecting new reading and math materials for the lower school students, providing a place for the upper school students to eat lunch, and hiring new teachers.

SECRETARY

The Student Body would like to express our deepest gratitude to Mrs. T. P. Matthews for all the work she has contributed to our academy. Without her the academy would be unable to function so smoothly from day to day. Her work is also appreciated by the athletic department to which she has devoted much time and effort.

These pictures give only a brief look at our upper school faculty. There is no way to show the hard work that they do while preparing a lesson, or the countless hours that they spend making out references for college. Also, much of their time is spent in worrying about students and talking with parents. They have put much time and energy into making the year 74-75 productive and on behalf of the student body, the annual staff would like to give them many thanks.

The softball season was very short this year, but in spite of this all of the girls learned a lot. They had a lot of fun going to the one away game and gained experience that can be used in future years. The team was young and had much to learn, but they will be ready to play next year. They represented RWA well and had a good time at the same time.

J. V. Cheerleaders

FIRST ROW: A. Johns, A. Collins. SECOND ROW: S. Traylor, T. Lark, H. Hobbs, H. Phillips, Mrs. Gary Bass, Sponsor.

With much enthusiasm the J.V. Cheerleaders of 1975-76 took to the floor to cheer their teams on to victory. A livelier bunch you have never seen.

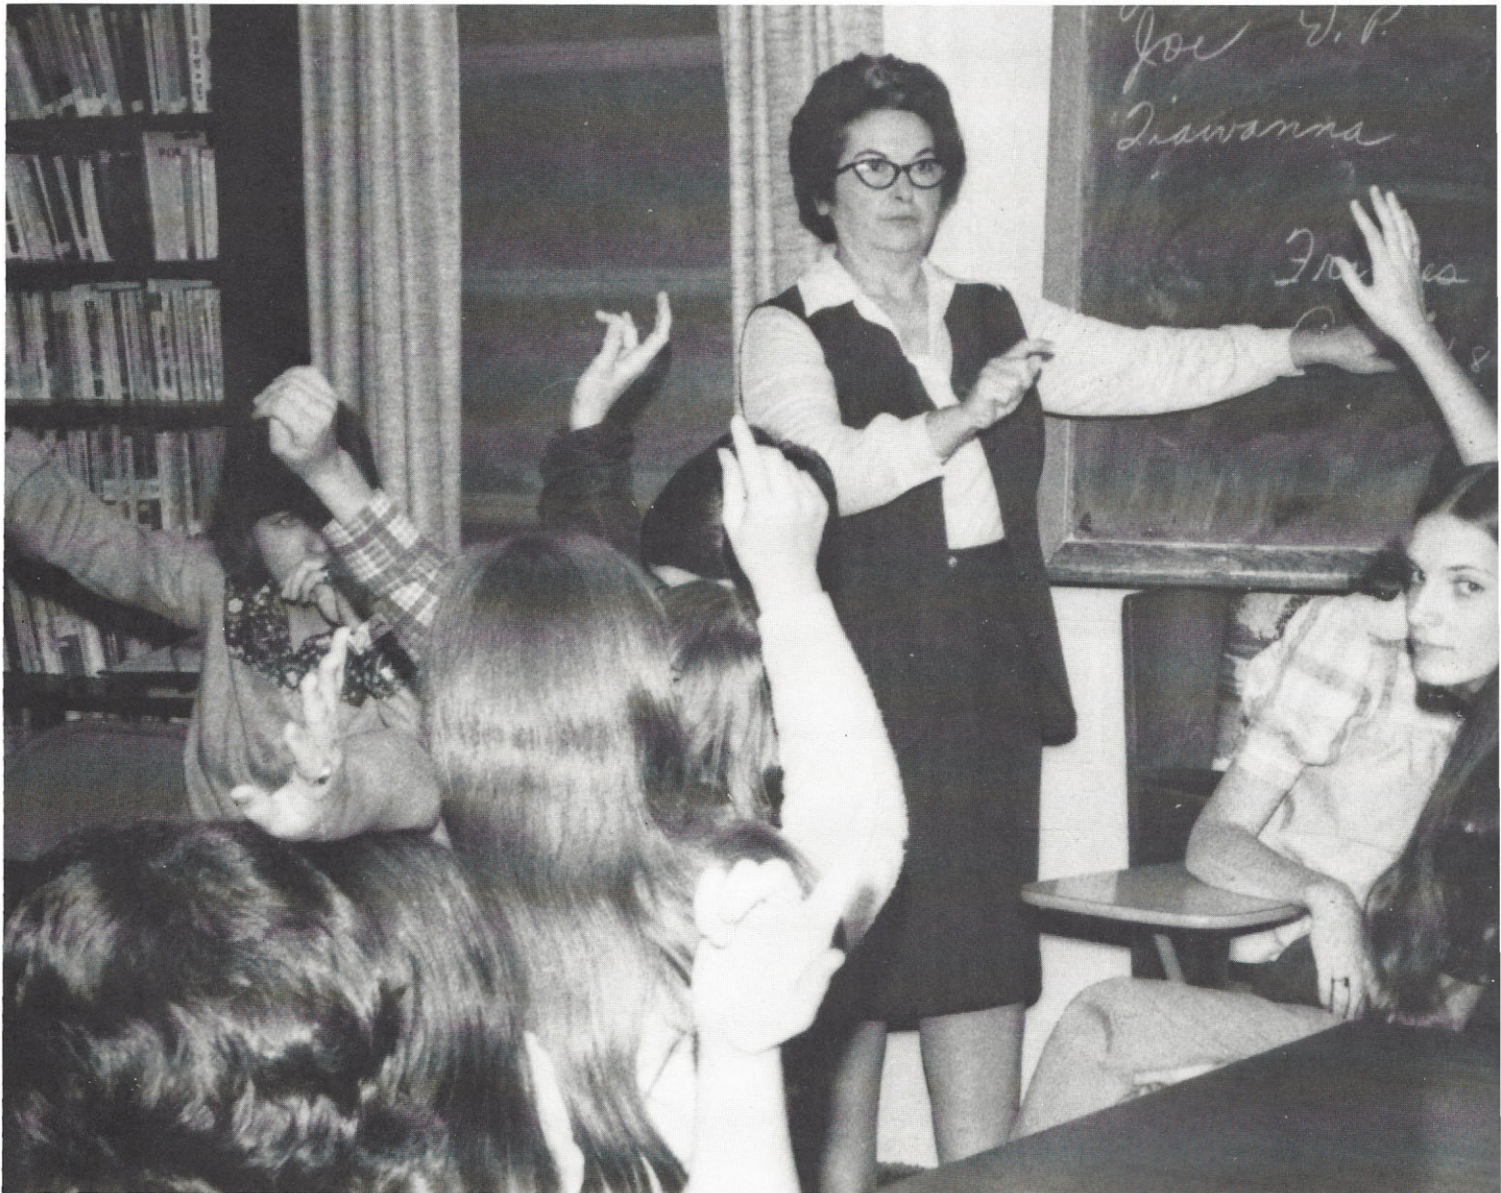

On the preceding pages we have shown you the Athletic teams at RWA. These teams have been very successful, but without the hard work of Coach Gardner and Coach Waters this would not be true. This is only a small way in which we are able to show our gratitude to them.

ACTIVITIES

Music Department Brings Much Fun to RWA

This year grades 1-7 attended music class twice a week. Throughout the year, they presented various programs. The first program was presented by the 5th, 6th, 7th grades on November the eleventh to honor United States Veterans. All of the classes were involved in presenting various Christmas programs. Then they square danced — to have fun and to raise money to buy music books. "Sing a Song" ended the year with all seven grades participating in a program, with proceeds going to a scholarship fund. The next three pages show each program in order. While putting on these programs, the children learned a lot and had a lot of fun. We would all like to thank Mrs. Nicholson for her hard work.

Our Student Council worked very hard this year. Through their efforts, some very badly needed picnic tables were brought to our school grounds. Most importantly, they established a link between the Board of Directors and the student body. This link is already being put to use and will be used even more next year. Our student council should be given much thanks.

Poor Richard's Almanack Staff

This year our newspaper staff worked hard to give RWA an informative paper. They put out a paper once each six weeks which had articles on most of the events that happened at school. The paper also had editorials and polls from the student body. In addition there was something from the headmasters desk. Also, in some papers there was a list of students making the honor roll. The paper was both informative and amusing and our staffs should be commended.

Miss Richard Winn Academy Contest

This year the Miss RWA contest, sponsored by the Aerie staff, was a great success. Instead of our usual Master of Ceremonies, this year two students, Al McMeekin and Anne Stephenson, conducted the program. This gave the students a bigger part in the program and also gave the program a nice change. Once again the audience had no idea of whom the winner would be, but all were pleased when Edy Turner was crowned Miss RWA of 1975.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of R.W.A. in the year 1975, being of unsound mind and body, having warped minds and curved spines, this the 19th day of May, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To Mr. Bruce, our unfearred leader, we leave a Sherlock Holmes detective kit and a can of Lysol for smoke and wine odors. Also we leave the sorrow that you did not join us on the Senior trip.

To the faculty, we leave the thought that we have trained the 8th grade to follow in our footsteps.

To Mrs. Matthews we leave one big blob of chewing gum on the office carpet.

To the Junior Class, we leave an all-expense paid trip to Laconte Lodge, one can of tick repellent, and a slightly crushed Hershey bar. Also, we leave the distinctive honor of being the Senior Class of R.W.A.

To the sophomores whom we promised to recognize in our will, we say — Hello!

To the freshmen we leave a year's supply of smoke bombs, spit balls, rubber bands, and an illustrated book of lock picking.

To the sub-freshmen, we say — Keep up the good work.

The Crowd (Julie Fuller, Amelia Patrick, Liz Martin, Kathy Stevenson) leaves Tamie Lark the ability to earn the respect of teachers as we have in these past high school years.

Amelia Patrick and Julie Fuller leave Claude Marthers the ability to go over 35 mph on those certain nights. Amelia also leaves Beth Reid her ability to shoot perfect free throws.

Amelia Patrick and Liz Martin leave their cheerleader uniforms to the new cheerleaders in hopes that they will be able to get into the bloomers better than they did.

Julie Fuller and Liz Martin leave Mrs. Ferguson's shorthand class one fine point pen and one short hand pad in hopes that they will be able to take dictation at 200 words a minute.

Liz Martin leaves Jane Douglas the ability to send written invitations for dinner parties.

Margie Dixon and Eleanor Peay leave to Jane Saunders and Kathy Porter their Senior privilege of going uptown legally.

Eleanor also wills to Sally Collins one case of Cure-Alls in hopes that she can stay at school beyond 1st period.

Rick Powell wills Randy Oxner his good reputation and one box of anti-Algebra tremens pills. To Edy Turner, he leaves his manic depression.

To the Junior Class, Kathy Stevenson and Rick Powell leave their knowledge . . . and their experience.

Philip D. Burnes, Jr. leaves to Hugh Bates his ability to get knocked down, thrown around and runover while trying to play basketball and baseball.

Bruce Hall leaves Mrs. Ferguson a bottle of No-Doze pills for next year's accounting class.

Debra Mann leaves to Gail Ashford the ability to drive a carload of screaming kids to school next year, and to David Hamilton she leaves all hopes that he can "ride up the road" without getting caught.

Anne Stephenson wills David Hamilton's fantastic sense of humor and his willingness to participate in all sports, especially softball, to Mr. Bruce.

Bill Berzley leaves to those who take Algebra III his ability to study 15 minutes before the tests and pass.

Lucille Shirley leaves to Fran Arnette the ability to persuade Steve to come to her Jr.-Sr. To Beth Hudson she leaves the ability to venture through her remaining years without getting into trouble and receiving detention.

John Sullivan wills Frances Monteith a year's supply of butter-scotch cookies and Sherry poppy seed cake for break. To Hugh Bates, Lee Estes, and Kathy Douglas, he leaves his former Evil Knevil, Delta 88 Olds stunt car for future Friday night thrills and spills.

Laurie Hobbs leaves her ability to stay out of trouble and get along with the teachers to Tamie Lark. To Mrs. Gunter she leaves all the memories of the Senior math class, especially those of John Sullivan and Julie Foster.

Kathy Stevenson leaves Tommy Mattox all her research to this point on the amazing Coral snake in hopes that someday he will do something for mankind.

Julie Foster leaves Edy Turner her front row seat in Mrs. Gunter's Algebra III class. To next year's accounting class Julie leaves her great ability to get along with Mrs. Ferguson.

Julie Fuller leaves to Lee Estes and David Hamilton the ability to carry on the tradition at Sam Kelly's. To Kathy Douglas, she leaves the ability to ride uptown and back before softball practice.

Joe Lyles leaves Mr. Bruce his mechanical and plumbing skills — he needs them. To Susan Collins he leaves a bottle of suntan lotion and to next year's Senior Class president he leaves his deep sympathy.

Joe Lyles and John Sullivan leave Mrs. Gunter a dictionary of crude comments with their autographs on the inside cover.

Warren Beach leaves to whomever follows in his footsteps one copy of 101 WAYS TO ATTRACT ATTENTION or HOW TO DEPRIVE SOMEONE ELSE OF HIS EDUCATION. Also he leaves his poem, "The Moon."

To Marion Bolick, Al McMeekin leaves all the pains of driving the bus and all the pleasures of beating the Blythwood bus to school everyday. To Miss Young, Al leaves a copy of COMPTON'S BOOK OF CHILD PSYCHOLOGY, autographed by the entire 8th grade class.

Margie Dixon leaves Susan Collins her ability to take smart remarks with a smile and to Edy Turner and Frances Monteith, she wills her quiet nature.

Tiawanna Dinkins leaves Debbie Reynolds and Fran Arnette her ability to run back and forth to the office at break. To Tamie Lark she leaves her sweetness, personality, and ability to get along with Miss Young, in hopes that she will use them wisely.

This will has been kept in a mayonnaise jar for three weeks and validated by a nosy Republican and is totally false but is published as the Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1975.
