

Cornwallis House

The Cornwallis House is one of the oldest and most historic buildings in Winnsboro. By whom it was built or to whom it originally belonged cannot be ascertained. However, it is known that it is one of the buildings that was occupied by the British when Lord Cornwallis established his headquarters in Winnsboro during the Revolutionary War. This historic and beautiful old house is now occupied by the family of J. Roy Robinson. It is a well-kept old landmark and is furnished with many fine heirlooms.
