

Journalism Class Edits 1979 Aerie and . . .

A novel addition to the curriculum this year, the Journalism Class was responsible for the editing of Poor Richard's Almanack and the 1979 Aerie. Working alternately and sometimes simultaneously on the two projects proved to be a challenge, but all participants agree that the new system is a marked improvement, providing time during school for the staff to plan and work together and allowing more involvement on the part of more students.

The seniors who comprised the class invested much time and effort in preparing the newspaper and take great pride in presenting to you the 1979 Aerie.
