

Added Attractions

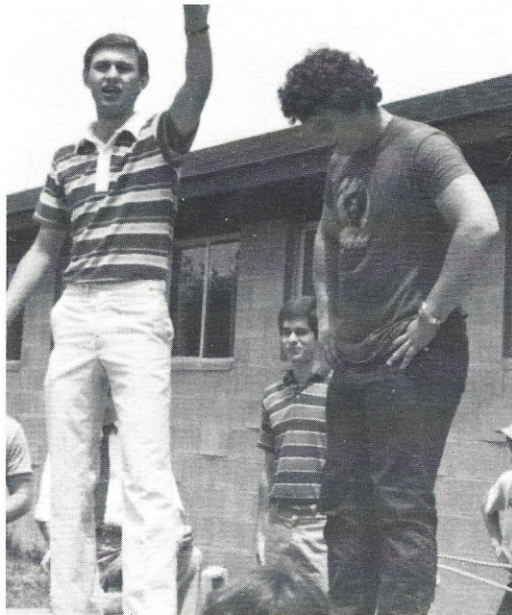

Students at Richard Winn enjoyed many different types of "special events" this year. A few of these were a visit from Santa Claus at Christmas, a program by inspirational singer Ed Kilbourne, Mini-Course Week, and Tacky Day during Homecoming festivities. A circus, the annual Square Dance, Homes Tour, Field Day, and the Prince Edward Academy Band were events that topped off the year. All of the students will long remember these special days.

1.

3.

4.

1. Upper school students enjoy Annual Square Dance.
2. Molly Levy displays the meal made by the French II students during Mini-Course Week.
3. Thomas Cathcart starts the bidding on Perry Ann Patrick at the Slave Sale sponsored by the Senior Class.
4. Thomas tries to get a fair price for "a fine specimen" Bill Stidham.
5. The Wonderland Circus Revue puts on a fine show.
6. Receptive crowd enjoys good food, music, and art during luncheon held in conjunction with Tour of Homes and Historical Tour.

