

Senior Prophecy

TERI HINNANT has become a multimillionaire from selling the colonel's secret and now runs her own chain, Lane's Fried Chicken.

BARKLEY RAMSEY, part-time fireman for Lebanon Fire Department, can still be found doing "achievement" work for Richard Winn. The word on the street has it that he is after the position of vice-principal.

BRATTON ARNETTE has just received his first raise and promotion after having worked at Winnsboro Builders' Supply for the past twenty years.

CATHY MILLER has just been released from the State Pen where she has spent the past ten years for receiving profits from the sale of Miller Beer.

THOMAS CATHCART has recently been named Farmer of the Year and can be found teaching agriculture at the Citadel.

DEBBIE SWEARINGEN now has her own horse ranch and often helps her sister-in-law in Swearingen's Bakery.

LAURA MATTOX recently shocked the nationwide television audience when she took over Barbara Walter's place on the ABC News. Her name is also in the Guinness Book of World Records for typing 167 words a minute.

LISA SANDERS is presently a social worker at the Alston Wilkes Society. She admits that she owes all her success to Mrs. Beach's psychology class.

Since returning from the Women's Basketball Association, KIM DOUGLAS has been teaching her 6'3" eight-year-old daughter the correct way to kick a field goal.

PEBBLES GUNTER just finished oil painting the Great Wall of China and can now be found painting nude scenes on the streets of Paris. In her spare time, Pebbles still tries to sell the Junior-Senior mural of 1980.

After discovering the cure for the common cold, MARGARET CHAPPELL has become the co-captain of the Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders and plans to open her own cheerleading camp in the near future.

DAVID TAYLOR, who now drives Cale Yarborough's old stock car, recently won his 9th victory in the Daytona 500.

He was later forced to relinquish his trophy after receiving fifty-'leven parking tickets.

SWAIN WHITFIELD now owns and operates his own chain of Nautilus Spas but was recently arrested for pushing vitamin and protein tablets on the Black Market.

After winning the Mr. Universe 2000 contest, GREG FAGAN had his Speedos bronzed. They are now on display in the trophy case at R.W.A.

JOE JOHN STEPHENSON has become the latest Hollywood hit since Chevy Chase. His dazzling smile can now be found in all teeny-bopper magazines.

After resigning her job as jazz pianist for the Louis Armstrong Band, CATHERINE "COOTA" HENDRIX has made her television debut on the "Dating Game", bringing fame and fortune to Blair.

BRIAN "TRAVOLTA" WHITE has just released his latest movie "Saturday Night Fever II". He also takes time out from his busy acting career to perform his duties as Athletic Director at Richard Winn.

JENNIFER POPE, hottest new television personality, recently signed a contract with CBS for her new show, "That's Unreal", with co-hosts Mr. Rubarb and John Boy.

Still stuck between the Junior and Senior Classes at R.W.A., WOODWARD PEAY plans to relieve Kareem Abdul-Jabbar of his position after graduating.

LOUISE McNEELY, after divorcing her fourth husband, has returned to her career as a concert pianist and now performs live in Carnegie Hall.

ROD WOLFF is at present the President, Athletic Director, Janitor, Dean of Admissions, and Gardner of Erskine College. In his spare time Rod tutors Coach Gasque in algebra.

JIMMY REED hasn't been seen since the Polynesian Luau on the senior trip. It is rumored that he is now running Reed's Trading Post in the Virgin Islands with the help of his native wife and seven Polynesian children.

After having married and divorced the American Gigolo, CHERYL STEVENSON can be found cruising the streets of Hollywood in her Rolls Royce looking for another one.