Board of Directors

Richard Winn Academy is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of twelve members and the Headmaster. The Board's primary concerns are with the policies of the school which affect its growth and philosophy. The administrative and operative duties are vested in the Headmaster. The business and affairs of the corporation are managed by the Board and the Headmaster.

Administration

The Administration of Richard Winn Academy is in capable hands. Mr. Taylor, with twenty years of experience in education, is responsible for the total operation of the school. He is a person who loves his work and young people — and tries to instill his enthusiasm in his students and constituents.

Aiding Mr. Taylor is Mrs. Stevenson. She serves as a school nurse, book-keeper, typist, and clerk. She is truly a person who must perform a variety of jobs everyday.

Beta Club Increases in Size

The National Beta Club provides an opportunity for students who have excelled scholastically to develop leadership and to be of service to the school.

As a service project, the local chapter undertook the preparation of a directory of graduates of Richard Winn.

Council Initiates Annual Events

The goal of the Student Council is to aid communications between student body and administration and to act as a service organization for the school. Projects include beautification, daily announcements, and operation of the student book store.

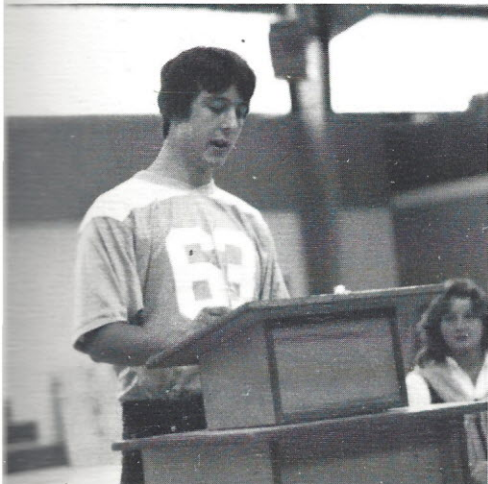

The school's first Field Day was held in May and involved students from Kindergarten through twelfth grade. Another innovation begun by Student Council consisted of special awards presented at graduation to the teacher, parent, and student of the year.

Aerie Captures a Year to Remember

Through much hard work and determination, the seventeen member staff achieved their goal of a bigger and better annual for Richard Winn. Their enthusiasm was also shown by the students' selling a record number of ads as well as the most subscriptions ever. Additional pages and a cover that could become a tradition were financed by the twelve juniors and five seniors.

Several students learned about yearbook publication at the Summer Yearbook Workshop sponsored by Taylor Publishing Company. The workshop was held on the Columbia College campus and ran for three days. These students gained valuable first hand experience as well as learning through a series of lectures and films.

Chorus Sings Its Way to Virginia

The chorus hit a new high note this year by travelling to Farmville, Virginia to participate in an exchange with Prince Edward Academy. The chorus was in Virginia from March 25 until March 28. The Prince Edward Marching Band came to Winnsboro on April 22.

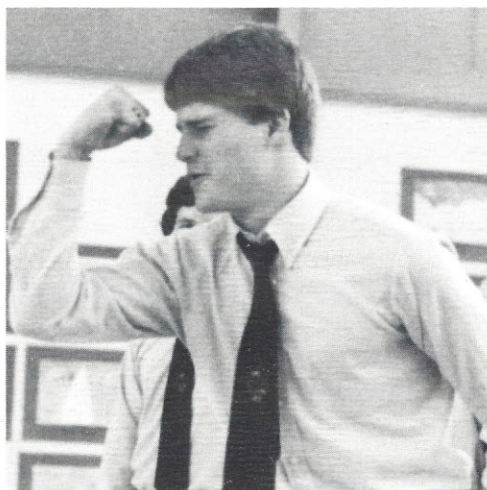

While in Virginia, the members performed for the students of Prince Edward as well as for other choruses from the Farmville area. They also enjoyed trips to Appomattox Court House, Monticello, Ashlawn, and the University of Virginia.

The chorus held their annual Christmas and Spring Concerts and performed for the Rotary Club and residents of Presbyterian Home in Clinton.

Block R Credits Young Athletes

The Block R Club is composed of the proud young athletes of Richard Winn Academy who have participated in various varsity sports throughout the year, and who have earned their letters. Through the athletic program, students develop not only physical skills but teamwork, sportsmanship, and school spirit as well. They learn that along with the opportunity for fun and competition goes the responsibility of being representatives of Richard Winn.

Boosters Enhance Athletics

The RWA Booster Club continues to support the athletic program at the Academy with hard work and dedication in providing facilities, equipment, and encouragement to help make the Eagles competitive in all sports.

In addition to continued maintenance of the athletic field and gym, the Boosters sponsored the athletic banquet and were instrumental in securing bleachers and funding the football team at camp. Several generous members were responsible for obtaining modern weight equipment and new jerseys.

Helping Hands at RWA

Richard Winn students like to do their part even when there are no awards to be given at the end of a "job well done." Motivated by pride, these helping hands perform a variety of tasks to enhance the efficiency of the office, library, and overall school facility.

A new addition this year was Mr. Taylor's "Rat Patrol" whose members roamed the grounds keeping them free of trash and debris. To all of these students we wish to express a special "thank you."

PTO Fetes Taylor

The Parent-Teacher Organization was off to a rolling start with two hundred and twelve memberships for the year. In September, punch and cupcakes were served to the student body and faculty at a surprise birthday party for Mr. Taylor.

Fund-raising projects consisted of a firewood sale, the annual square dance, and a raffle for 100 gallons of gasoline. Also, concessions at the Halloween Carnival were provided by the PTO. Proceeds were used for a scholarship and Teacher Appreciation Day. Other service projects included the purchase of playground equipment and assistance in hosting the Prince Edward Academy Band.

Wide World of Sports

RWA Football 1981

The forecast for the Eagles third season appeared grim due to inexperience and the loss of valuable graduates. However, the coaching staff molded the squad of young men into a precision gridiron instrument, one which advanced to the playoffs and finished the season with a flash.

RWA 0 Thornwell 18

The Eagles opened the season at Thornwell without the services of running backs Rod Wolff, Jimmy Reed, and center Ernie Ferguson. Outmanned from the start, the Eagles defense played tough while the young inexperienced offense sputtered. However, the Saints proved to be too much for RWA as they scored 18 second-half points to clinch the victory. Joe John Stephenson and Thomas Boswell were outstanding on defense.

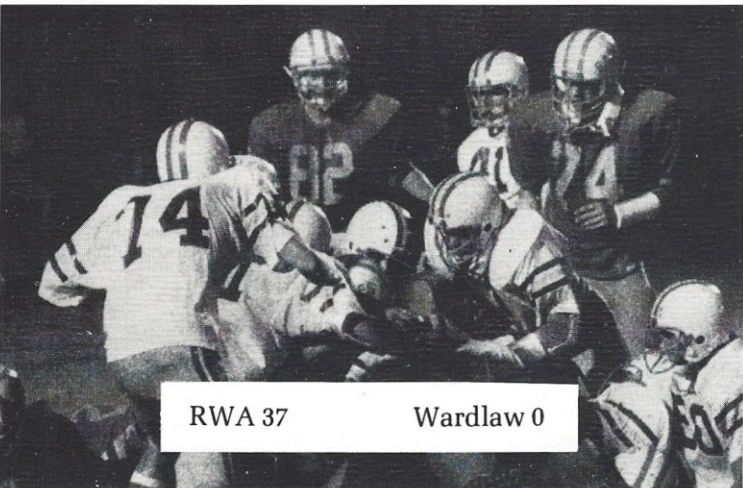

RWA 34 King 0

King Academy was the third victory for the Eagles. After an early TD by David Taylor, RWA spent almost 24 minutes without a score before D Melton threw a TD strike to Pat Westbrook. Joe John Stephenson was on the receiving end of another pass from Brian White. Jay Frazier also threw a 51 yard TD pass to Brian White. The Eagles defense limited King to no first downs and less than 10 yards total offense. Shutout #2.

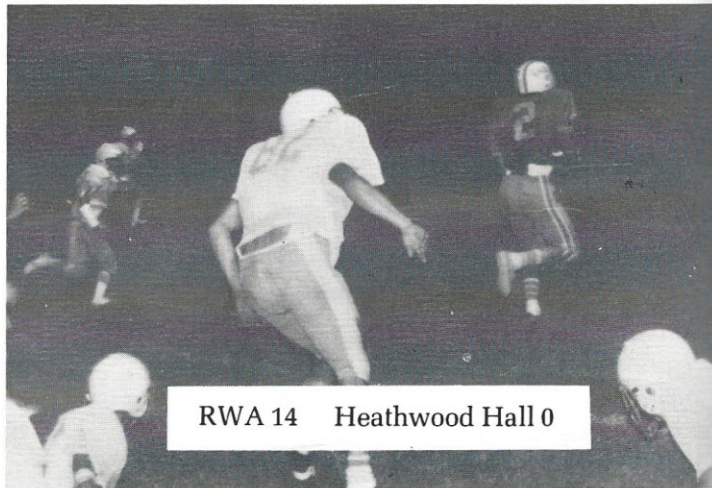

RWA 14 Byrnes 8

After a 55 yard scoring run by Brian White, the Eagles led by 7 points. The game was played very poorly and was plagued by penalties. Even though the defense played an excellent game, a fine Byrnes team scored. However, the Eagles came out the victors.

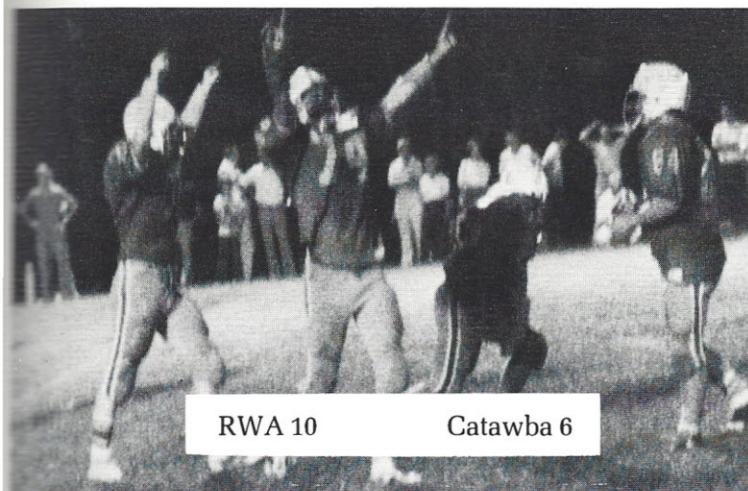

RWA 37 Wardlaw 0

Jimmy Reed, David Taylor, Brian White and Rod Wolff led an offense unit that rushed for over 400 yards. Wolff had over 200 and was only a few yards short of the school record. Shutout #4.

RWA 14 Heathwood Hall 0

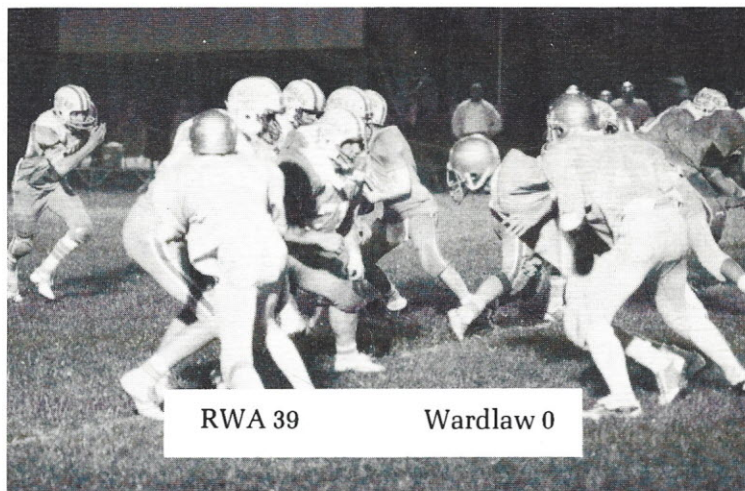

After assuring themselves of a state playoff berth, the Eagles defeated a quality Heathwood Hall team even after playing a very uninspired second half. Shutout #5.

RWA 10

Catawba 6

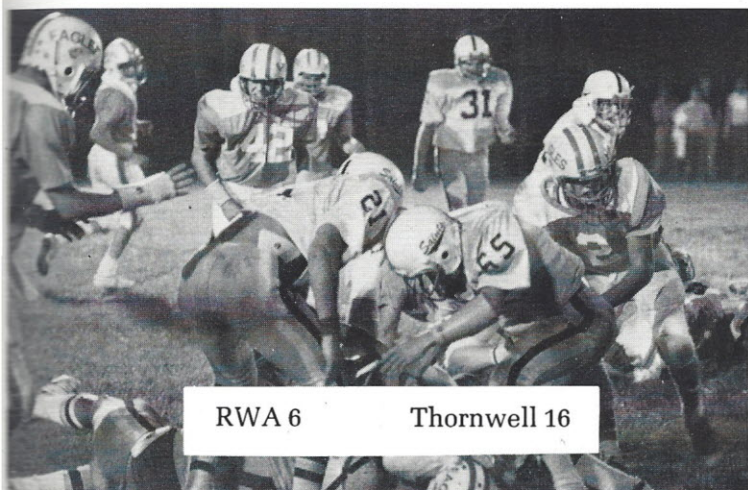

The Catawba Indians, much improved from a year ago, traveled to Winnsboro with revenge in mind for last year's 56-7 shellacking at the hands of the Eagles. For 47 minutes and 13 seconds it looked as though Catawba would pull it off. However, on 4th and 16 from the 18 yard line Rod Wolff caught a pass and carried it to the one. David Taylor plunged over for the TD with 28 seconds remaining, giving the Eagles the victory.

Wardlaw 0

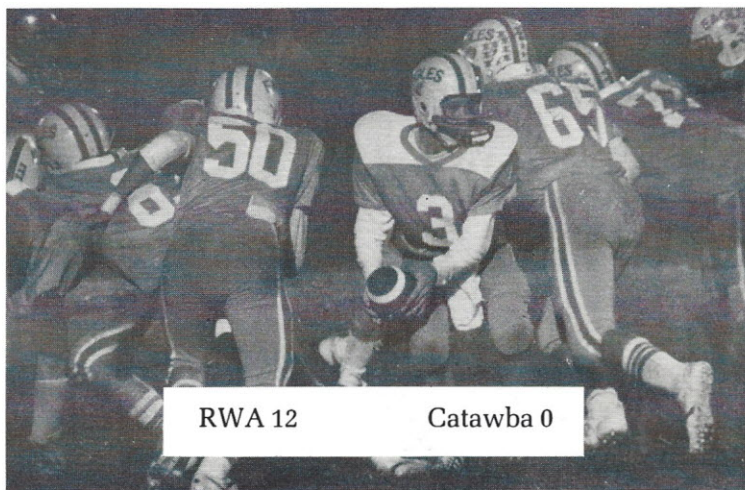

The 3rd week of the season found the Eagles at Wardlaw Academy. Behind the running of Rod Wolff and David Taylor and an outstanding defensive effort, the Eagles virtually dominated. RWA recorded its first of five shutouts and the Eagles were on the move. Shutout #1.

RWA 6

Thornwell 16

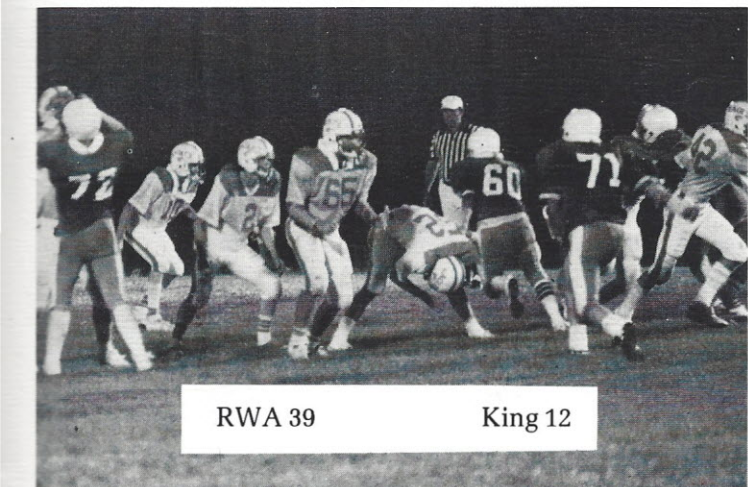

Swain Whitfield was lost to a broken ankle, which would cause him to not suit up again. However, after a quick pass from D Melton to Pat Westbrook, the Eagles looked on the verge of sharing the conference championship. These dreams were wiped out by two Thornwell pass interceptions that resulted in scores. After a fine effort the Eagles came away with their second defeat.

Catawba 0

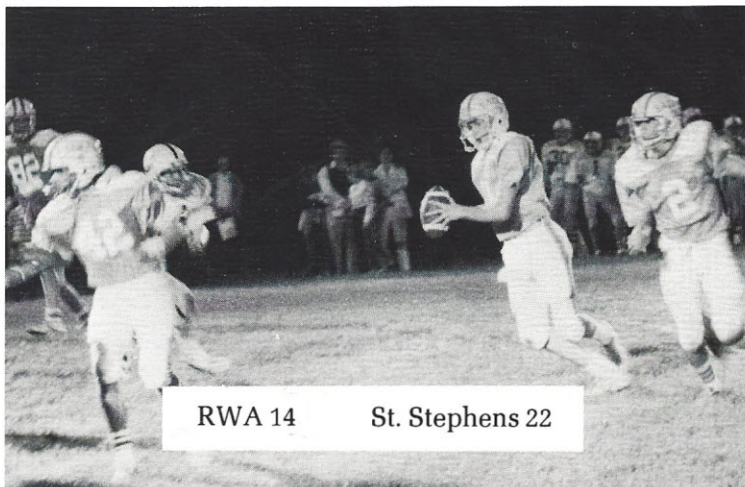

After a tough loss to Thornwell the Eagles recovered in a hurry. Fighting for a berth in the state playoffs the Eagles were outstanding. Brian White scored an early TD to put RWA up by six. The entire Eagle defense led by Thomas Boswell and Bill Stidham swarmed on Catawba and recorded another shutout. Boswell scored the second Eagle TD on a pass interception late in the game. Shutout #3.

RWA 39

King 12

The Eagles saw their string of 3 consecutive shutouts come to an end as King scored 12 first half points. Jimmy Reed, Rod Wolff, David Taylor, Brian White, Swain Whitfield, and Joe John Stephenson played their very last regular season game.

RWA 14

St. Stephens 22

Richard Winn, playing in the state playoffs for the first time, made several costly mistakes against a very fine football team and the Tigers were able to cash in for two big scores. The Eagles fought back hard and the decision was not settled until 35 seconds remained in the game. Hurt, but very proud, the Eagles closed their season with 8 wins and 3 losses.

Varsity Football Cheerleaders

The eight Varsity Football Cheerleaders cheered the 1980 Football Team on to victory. The pom-pom routine they performed at half time showed the hard work the girls put into their practice. Under the direction of Miss Reid, the cheerleaders had a fun and successful season.

J-V New to Winn Football

Although the J-V team played only two regular season games and one blue-gold game, the experience will be a great asset to teams of the future. A 14-10 loss to Catawba in the final 5 seconds was followed by a 50-6 rout over Wardlaw. In the blue-gold game Swain Whitfield's gold team defeated Coach Ray's blue team 20-6.

Coach's Report — Football '81

The 1980 version of the Eagles looked jinxed from the start. Not only were nine seniors lost to graduation, but the Eagles were plagued with early season injuries. Both Jimmy Reed and Ernie Ferguson missed the first part of the season due to injuries received at camp. Rod Wolff missed the opener and the Eagles got off to a slow start, losing to archrival Thornwell 18-0. However, the following week the Eagles dumped Catawba 10-6 and by week six had rolled up four consecutive wins. A play-off berth was clinched in week seven and by week ten, the Eagles' record was a dazzling 8-2.

Could this be the team that had to replace seventeen starters on offense and defense, lost two key players early to injuries, did not have a starting back returning, etc., etc., etc. . . .? By week eleven the Eagles were play-off bound with an impressive list of credentials to carry with them — (1) a backfield that had rushed for over 2400 yards, (2) a defense that had allowed only 12 points in an eight week span, (3) All-Conference tackle Bill Stidham, All-Star 1000 yard plus rusher Rod Wolff, and All-Conference Defensive End Joe John Stephenson, (4) a second straight eight-win season.

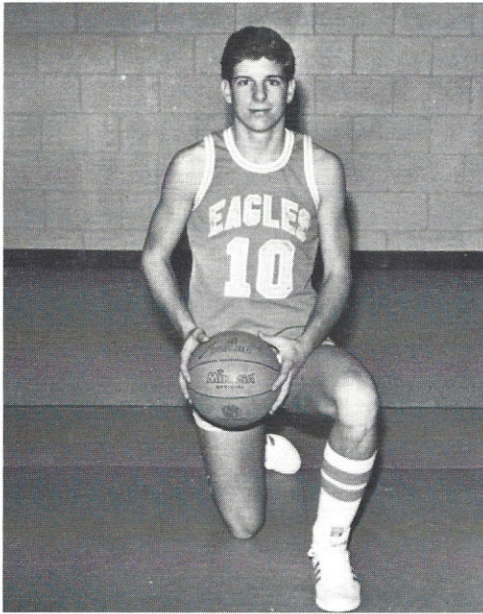

The Eagles were not able to survive that chilly Friday night at St. Stephens; the final score read St. Stephens 22, Richard Winn 14. For thirty-five young men the dream of capturing the 1980 State Championship had come to an end. In the hearts of all, there were no losers. These young men had overcome all odds and had gone above and beyond expectations.

The team of '80 will be remembered as one of the finest RWA has ever fielded. If this was a "rebuilding year" as many had said, let's hope we have many more.

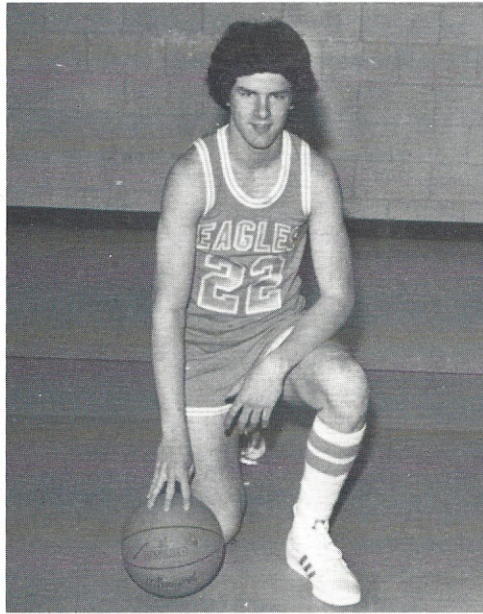

Varsity Boys

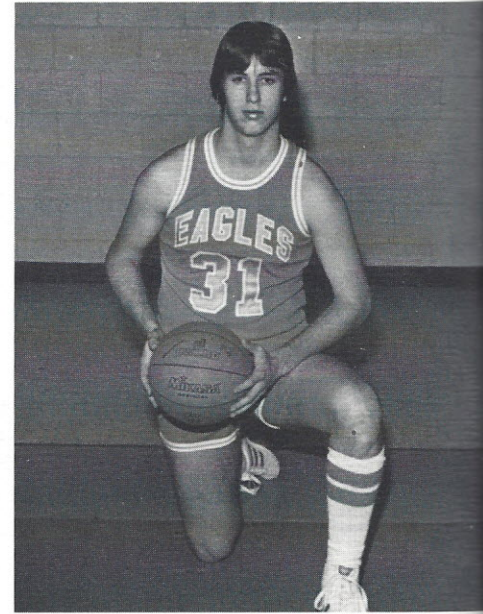

Although the Eagles faced tough opposition throughout the year, they held on for another winning season. Other than their conference rivals, the Eagles competed with several AA and AAA schools. The final conference record was 11-4 and the overall record was 16-10. Under the leadership of Coach Wolff, the team enjoyed a very rewarding year.

Varsity Girls

The Varsity Girls posted a very impressive record for the team in the 1980-1981 season.

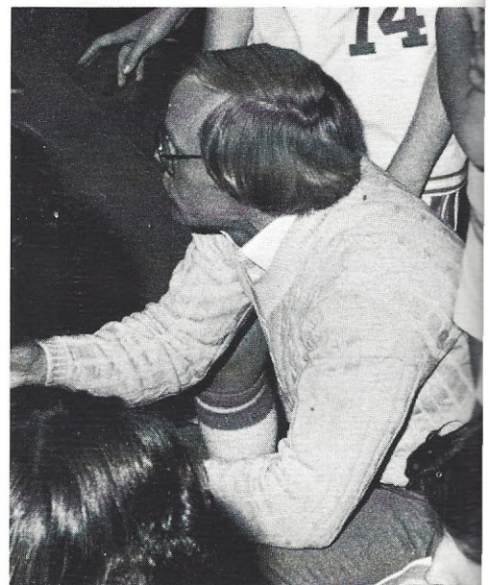

The success of the season can be attributed to the hustle, the determination, and the desire of the team to fight back from adversity. Our girls did not make the state playoffs, but they are true winners!

J-V Boys

Hampered by injuries and the loss of key players to the Varsity squad, the Junior Varsity Boys did not enjoy a winning season. However, with each member being given a chance to sharpen his skills, the team looks forward to achieving its goal next year.

J-V Girls

Under the leadership of first year coach, Beth Reid, the Junior Varsity Girls achieved their fourth consecutive winning season. Though the Lady Eagles lost four key players to the Varsity team, they each improved and contributed greatly to the 8-7 season. Included in these wins were victories over rivals Thornwell, Wardlaw, and Robert E. Lee.

Golf Springs Into Action

With four returning starters, the eight-man golf team started the season with high hopes realized in a 23 stroke win over Wardlaw Academy. The starters also gave good performances in matches against Heathwood Hall and Camden Military, and were in contention to win in all but one contest. The final tally was 3 victories, 4 losses, and the conference title, making this the best season for golf in its three-year span. With the loss of only one senior, expectations for next year are high for this young but seasoned group of golfers.

Field Day

The first Field Day at RWA was a fun-packed day for all who participated. From kindergarteners to seniors, everyone gave all he had to win one of the three ribbons awarded to boys and girls in each event. Field Day, sponsored by the Student Council with the help of the coaches and Mr. Taylor, included the following events: 40-yard dash, sack race, 3-legged race, balloon pop relay, tennis shoe relay, pie-eating contest for middle and upper school, obstacle course, tug-of-war, and, for the faculty, an egg-toss.

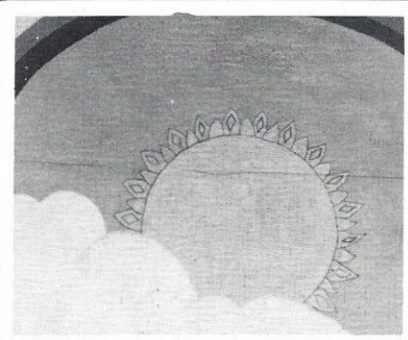

The PTO topped off the day by serving corn dogs to the weary students. With the success enjoyed on this initial Field Day, it hopefully will become another annual event.

Beauties Vie in "Oklahoma" Setting

Margaret Chappell captured her second title of the year in the eleventh annual Miss RWA Pageant on April 3. Twenty-four contestants, dressed in formal and informal wear, competed for the coveted title. Entertainment was provided by Miss Joy Taylor, Thomas Cathcart, Ellen Nicholson, members of the Boys' Chorus, and the contestants. The theme "Oklahoma" was well reflected by the setting created by the members of the Senior Class.

Juniors Dedicate Night of April 9, 1981 to Seniors

"We've Got Tonight" was the theme of the Junior-Senior. The Juniors worked many long days and nights preparing the gym which was decorated in rainbow colors. The Seniors will long remember the music of Stratus and the companionship of their friends on this special night.

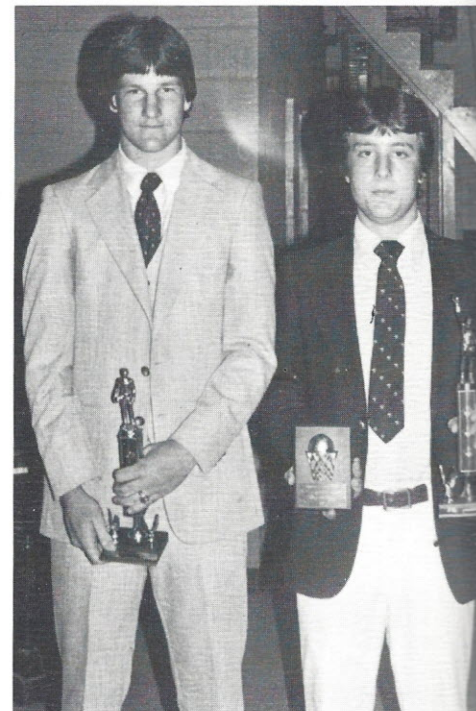

Seasons Climaxed by Awards Banquet

After many months of hard work the deserving athletes were paid their tribute. Before the presentation of the awards, the athletes, their friends and families enjoyed a barbecue supper supplied by faithful Booster members. Very supportive students, although not athletes, were also awarded for their contributions.

Added Attractions

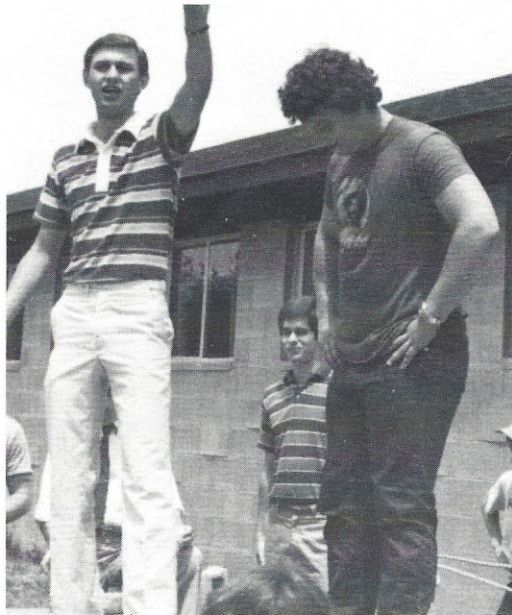

Students at Richard Winn enjoyed many different types of "special events" this year. A few of these were a visit from Santa Claus at Christmas, a program by inspirational singer Ed Kilbourne, Mini-Course Week, and Tacky Day during Homecoming festivities. A circus, the annual Square Dance, Homes Tour, Field Day, and the Prince Edward Academy Band were events that topped off the year. All of the students will long remember these special days.

Last Will and Testament

We, The Senior Class of 1981, being of sound minds and bodies, do declare this to be our Last Will and Testament and do hereby bequeath these, our worldly goods, to the fortunate individuals so designated below.

CATHERINE HENDRIX: To Coach Robinson, one bronzed coat hanger with which to perfect the art of breaking into locked red Chevetttes in the middle of the night. To Dina and Frances Anne, the joy of riding alone all the way to Blair after all those games. To Pat, Thomas, and Billy, three monogrammed clubs and boxes of popcorn for their future trips to Columbia.

ROD WOLFF: To Ernie Ferguson, a $50 gift certificate for goods at Surrat's.

JOE JOHN STEPHENSON and ROD WOLFF: To Frederick Lockhart Mayes Doty, 24 cinnamon rolls and a long night at the river. To Ernie and Marcus, a bottle of Cold Duck and $4 worth of gas for next New Year's Eve.

MARGARET CHAPPELL: To Coach Robinson, a copy of 1001 Jokes Guaranteed to Get a Laugh. To Not A. Soul, the position of head cheerleader, with hopes that this lucky person will not lose her sanity too. To Mrs. Stevenson, six more arms with which to write checks, type, count money, drink coffee, answer both phones, and keep bad students in the supply room all at the same time so that the office won't fall apart after Barkley, Cathy, Louise and Margaret graduate.

LISA SANDERS: To the next P.E. class, the knack for getting an "A" without ever dressing out.

BRIAN WHITE: To Mrs. McNeely, the other half of her glasses. To Bobby Castles, a full bucket of paint and his famous paint brush so that Bobby can become an instant athlete as he did. To Mr. Gasque, the positions of Head Football Coach, Baseball Coach, and Athletic Director in hopes that he will do as good a job next year as Brian did this year. And to Lib Turner, "I wish I didn't have to leave."

DAVID TAYLOR: To Coach Robinson, a fake mustache.

CHERYL STEVENSON: To Miss Aleixo, the joy of never having Stewart and Bill together again in the same class. To Stevie Mattox, the ability to keep his high school ring. To Lib Turner, a back brace so she can hold up all her necklaces.

BARKLEY RAMSEY and BRATTON ARNETTE: To Coach Robinson, a book entitled How to Find Lost Tools. To Bill S. and Gen P., a forklift to help them with the trash cans. To Ernie, the ability to get the fire truck and Santa on time — without getting tobacco juice all over the jolly old fellow.

WOODWARD PEAY: To Bill S., a 10 lb. Hershey Bar and a book of snappy comebacks to fat jokes. To anyone who can handle it, the ability to be a freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior all in the same year. To Stevie Mattox, "I might leave my car, but I doubt I'll leave at all."

JIMMY REED: To Ernie Ferguson, enough money to buy two weight machines so he can start on offense and defense next fall. To D Melton, his great throwing arm and, in case he needs it, his cast.

JIMMY REED and WOODWARD PEAY: To Ernie, the key to Larry's Bar and Grill.

THOMAS CATHCART: To Mr. Taylor, a book on "how to," a fully equipped tool box, and a bill for his many past services. To Gen and his fellow Rat Patrol members, his mastery of legitimate class cutting for absolutely no reason at all. To Locke and Pat, a lifetime membership in the Mr. Rubarb Fan Club. To Ernie, all the aggravation of being president of the student body, plus a lifetime supply of headache remedies. To Coach Robinson, a collection of Beach Music tapes for his very own.

SENIOR FOOTBALL PLAYERS: To Johnny Ladd, the ability to BLOCK THAT KICK!

JENNIFER POPE: To Coach Gasque, Amy Robinson, Lib Turner, Jeffrey Oxner, Rob and Ed Pope, the distinction of being the only "Lebanese" at R.W.A. To Pat Westbrook, one can of Firm Grip for use before basketball games (in hopes it will work better for him than it did for her). To Coach Robinson, that Coke she never gave him.

CATHY MILLER: To the next deserving person, her Algebra II seat. To Mr. Gasque, a year's supply of Diet Pepsi. To the next Senior Class, the foresight to write the will and prophecy earlier.

LAURA MATTOX: To Herman, the keys to the truck and her parking place in hopes he will soon get his license. To Ellen Douglas, her ability to avoid talking in class and being sent to the office every day.

SWAIN WHITFIELD: To Bill Stidham, his parking place at football practice and two year's worth of Wilkes and Raymond jokes. To Marcus and Eric, the duty to carry on the Bulldog Spirit at R.W.A. To Jay Branham, a slap in the face. To Locke, a new lawn mower.

DEBBIE SWEARINGEN: To Mr. Gasque, all the days of algebra she missed during her summer vacation. To Miss Summer, some peace and quiet. To Jeffrey, a few more inches.

LOUISE McNEELY: To Bill Stidham, a dozen red roses just to keep everyone wondering. To Thomas Boswell and Ernie Ferguson, Pebbles Gunter. To Karen Douglas, restraint from talking about other people whenever possible and the ability to stay out of trouble. To Billy, Frances Anne, and Thomas, a free ticket to the "Rocky Horror Picture Show".

JENNIFER, LOUISE, and CATHERINE: To Mrs. Nicholson, a book entitled 1001 Reasons Why One Should Appreciate Altos.

KIM DOUGLAS: To Mr. Gasque's future baby, the height to become a superb athlete. To Jena Barnett, her size 7 tennis shoes knowing they won't fit Jena's size 10 feet. To Miss Aleixo, the ability to say "No" and comb her "lhasa apso." To future cheerleaders, her vocal cords and 8 megaphones.

PEBBLES GUNTER: To Bill S., one lime leisure suit. To Ernie and Thomas, her love and her high school ring. To Billy Hendrix, a pass to his favorite movie. To Ernie, a free meal at a Chinese restaurant.

TERI HINNANT: To Miss Aleixo, the hope that Bill S. and Stewart G. will finish Spanish II before the year 2000. To Amy R., her ability to stay awake through two periods of Mr. Robinson. To Debbie, her talent for getting the car cranked, leaving home at 8:10, and still arriving at school on time (sometimes)!

GREG FAGAN: To Locke, the knowledge that he has attained at R.W.A. in the last two years. Also to Locke, a ticket to see the "Arista Cats." To Bill S., his bomb and the reputation of being the strongest person at the school.

Senior Prophecy

TERI HINNANT has become a multimillionaire from selling the colonel's secret and now runs her own chain, Lane's Fried Chicken.

BARKLEY RAMSEY, part-time fireman for Lebanon Fire Department, can still be found doing "achievement" work for Richard Winn. The word on the street has it that he is after the position of vice-principal.

BRATTON ARNETTE has just received his first raise and promotion after having worked at Winnsboro Builders' Supply for the past twenty years.

CATHY MILLER has just been released from the State Pen where she has spent the past ten years for receiving profits from the sale of Miller Beer.

THOMAS CATHCART has recently been named Farmer of the Year and can be found teaching agriculture at the Citadel.

DEBBIE SWEARINGEN now has her own horse ranch and often helps her sister-in-law in Swearingen's Bakery.

LAURA MATTOX recently shocked the nationwide television audience when she took over Barbara Walter's place on the ABC News. Her name is also in the Guinness Book of World Records for typing 167 words a minute.

LISA SANDERS is presently a social worker at the Alston Wilkes Society. She admits that she owes all her success to Mrs. Beach's psychology class.

Since returning from the Women's Basketball Association, KIM DOUGLAS has been teaching her 6'3" eight-year-old daughter the correct way to kick a field goal.

PEBBLES GUNTER just finished oil painting the Great Wall of China and can now be found painting nude scenes on the streets of Paris. In her spare time, Pebbles still tries to sell the Junior-Senior mural of 1980.

After discovering the cure for the common cold, MARGARET CHAPPELL has become the co-captain of the Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders and plans to open her own cheerleading camp in the near future.

DAVID TAYLOR, who now drives Cale Yarborough's old stock car, recently won his 9th victory in the Daytona 500.

He was later forced to relinquish his trophy after receiving fifty-'leven parking tickets.

SWAIN WHITFIELD now owns and operates his own chain of Nautilus Spas but was recently arrested for pushing vitamin and protein tablets on the Black Market.

After winning the Mr. Universe 2000 contest, GREG FAGAN had his Speedos bronzed. They are now on display in the trophy case at R.W.A.

JOE JOHN STEPHENSON has become the latest Hollywood hit since Chevy Chase. His dazzling smile can now be found in all teeny-bopper magazines.

After resigning her job as jazz pianist for the Louis Armstrong Band, CATHERINE "COOTA" HENDRIX has made her television debut on the "Dating Game", bringing fame and fortune to Blair.

BRIAN "TRAVOLTA" WHITE has just released his latest movie "Saturday Night Fever II". He also takes time out from his busy acting career to perform his duties as Athletic Director at Richard Winn.

JENNIFER POPE, hottest new television personality, recently signed a contract with CBS for her new show, "That's Unreal", with co-hosts Mr. Rubarb and John Boy.

Still stuck between the Junior and Senior Classes at R.W.A., WOODWARD PEAY plans to relieve Kareem Abdul-Jabbar of his position after graduating.

LOUISE McNEELY, after divorcing her fourth husband, has returned to her career as a concert pianist and now performs live in Carnegie Hall.

ROD WOLFF is at present the President, Athletic Director, Janitor, Dean of Admissions, and Gardner of Erskine College. In his spare time Rod tutors Coach Gasque in algebra.

JIMMY REED hasn't been seen since the Polynesian Luau on the senior trip. It is rumored that he is now running Reed's Trading Post in the Virgin Islands with the help of his native wife and seven Polynesian children.

After having married and divorced the American Gigolo, CHERYL STEVENSON can be found cruising the streets of Hollywood in her Rolls Royce looking for another one.

Commencement Exercises

On Sunday, May 24, the twenty-two members of the Class of 1981, their families, friends, and faculty, gathered at Bethel A.R.P. Church where the Rev. Jerry Wolff delivered the Commencement Sermon.

The following evening the same proud graduates made their final group appearance in the Richard Winn gymnasium where they received diplomas and laurels for their years of study and achievement.

The two events marked a goal, an ending; but commencement is a time of beginnings and "For the Class of '81, it's only just begun."

Mission Accomplished

Seniors Visit Disney World

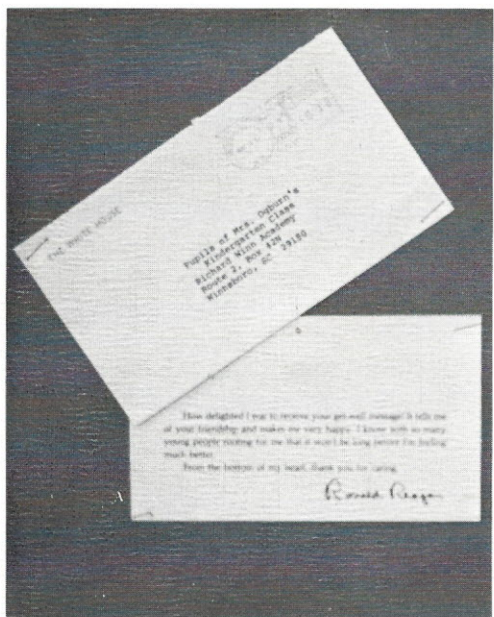

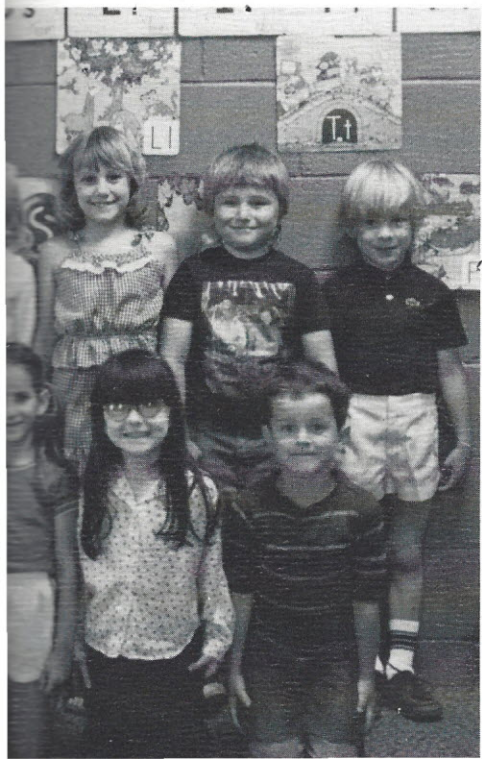

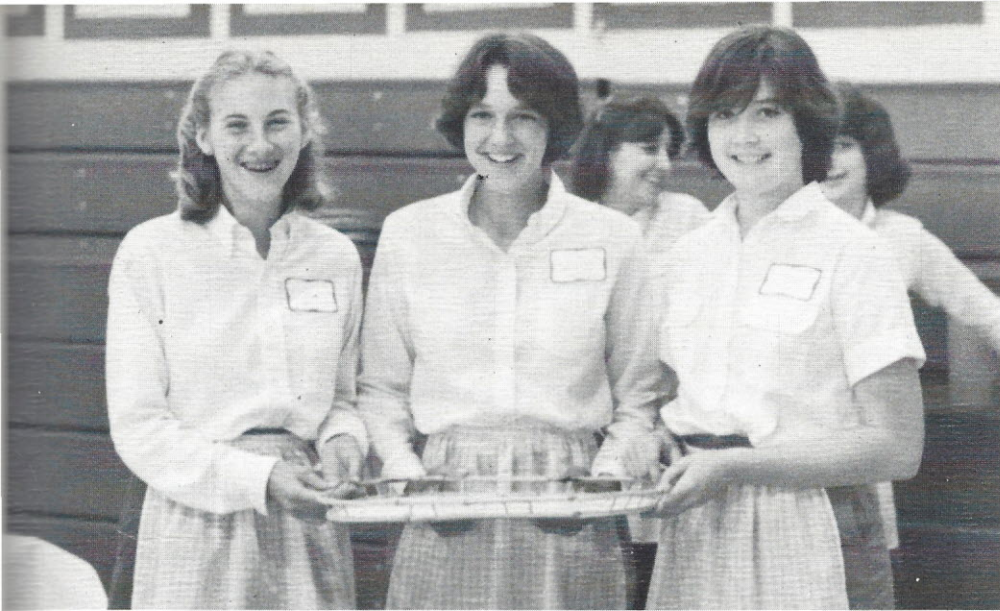

The seniors' "Fantastic Voyage" to Florida proved to be an unforgettable trip, and "I ain't kidding ya!" They burned rubber all the way to Orlando on the "Double Dutch Bus." Disney World was "hot stuff" as were the tour guide, the bell hop, the girls from Missouri, and Betty the bus driver.

Who could ever forget Fagan's speedos, the midnight tour, the toga parties, the Polynesian Luau, and, last but certainly not least, the friendship shared by all.

Q. What's in a forest?

A. MORE THAN JUST TREES.

There's wildlife and sparkling streams and rolling hills and clear skies.

That's why Westvaco is dedicated to the principles of multiple use of our woodlands and those we help our neighbors manage through cooperative agreements.

The renewability of forests can assure not only a steady supply of wood products but also abundant wildlife, watershed protection and esthetic values for all people for all time.
