

SMALLER MEMBERS OF OUR FAMILY

Although most of the school activities are centered around the upper school, the little people are an important part of our school life. Some of the bigger events which they participated in this year included music programs, Homecoming activities, and the square dance.

We are proud to have these little people. They make our family complete.

