

Senior Prophecy

Twenty years from now . . .

Wes Bass, the new host of Dance Fever, has taken Denev Tario's place, after a successful career as Ernest T. Bass in the remake of Andy Griffith.

After changing his major and his college four times, Jay Branham finally settled down as a commercial pilot. He left this job, unhappy with the money, and took the starring role, an insane pilot, in "Airplane III."

Martha Branham carries on the Branham chain of restaurants including the most famous, "Martha's Place." She can still be seen cruisin' the "Boro" every Saturday night.

Baettie Burroughs is now the proud owner of "Baettie's School of Fashion" after Millie kicked the bucket.

Robbin Castles, married to the New York Mets second baseman, Steve Phillips, now gets in to all the games free.

Missy Cooper, a nationwide reknowned gossip columnist with her headquarters in New York, also has just made her first million with her best-seller, My Family Tree.

Residing in the basement of a condemned Key West beach house, Bobby DuBard is flat broke, surrounded by half-finished inventions that would save the world millions of dollars and hours of work.

Cheryl Hall, Miss Universe 2003 is married to Tom Selleck and drives a 2003 Volkswagen. They own a ranch in Blythewood.

Billy Hendrix is experiencing his life-long dream: living in his country manor, relaxing in his Jacuzzi, and sipping wine (left over from Mexico)! The only exception is that he still can't find a date for Saturday night.

After fourteen years of loyal service, Dee Dee Johnson has been fired from her job as physical therapist for breaking three persons' legs. She now is the main attraction at Bill's Bar-B-Que on a mud-wrestling team.

Behind bars waiting for her parole, Molly Levy has been convicted of fraud for taking the credit of cure found by Dr. Joyce Brothers. She spends her time just laughing with the inmates.

Upon finishing Winthrop College, Debbie Lewis realizes that the field of physical education was not the career for her. Because of this, Debbie then took her "Guru power" to the radio where she took over Mr. Rubarb's morning spot and now it is called "Debbie's Guru Morning Show."

Living through three years in the convent, Elizabeth Long has discovered that it is just not her bag. Moving to Los Angeles, she is a marriage counselor by day and she runs a nightclub by night.

John McNeely has just broken Jack Nicklaus' record winnings. John was awarded two million dollars at the Fairfield Country Club Pro-Am. In his off-season, he stars in Broadway musicals.

D. Melton is yet to be found.

walking and talking with the animals. She makes regular late-night appearances on "The Tonight Show," replacing Joan Embry, and of course she brings her pet rooster.

At the age of 38, Gen Palmer is the proud owner of a set of gold false teeth. He never did figure out how to work the machines at the Winnsboro Vocational School. His company, "B&B," continues to flourish as a multi-million dollar hobby.

After graduating, Kim Peak became vice-president of the "Who's Who Society" because she never could figure out who was who. When she finally got everything straight, she went on to become a registered nurse and to marry a tall, redheaded surgeon. In her spare time she is still running errands for Billy Hendrix.

Sam Pope is now the successful co-host of Donahue. Her career as a pro-basketball player was very short-lived. Determined to stay involved with basketball, she sponsors a team called the "Pygmies," the players being shorter than herself.

Lisa Robinson has become the first lady professional catcher for the Atlanta Braves. Nevertheless, she is still trying to convince the ticket seller at the movies that she is over seventeen.

"Buck Rogers in the Twenty-fifth Century," has a new owner and producer. It is Scotti Sanders who is also featured on the Honeycombs Cereal box.

After winning the Lady Di look-alike contest Barbara Saunders' talents were discovered and she became employed by the Queen of England as organist in Westminster Abbey.

Bill Stidham has expanded the "Rat Patrol" and now owns the largest Security Service on the East coast, namely "The Java Patrol." His service protects all the little "Gee-bah" creatures.

Tommy Stoudemire is making a fortune with Stukie Enterprises, specializing in lawn mowers and tractors.

Soon after entering Furman University, Fran Taylor was kicked out for bad grades. Because of this misfortune, she still reports for work every morning at 6:45 at the White Oak Conference Center. Will she become the World's oldest waitress saying "tea or coffee?"

Joeli Weed is now the secretary for a very successful lawyer. Even though she has worked for him for a number of years she still does not know how to say "court house" right and she is still allowed her two hour lunch break so she will be sure not to get lost in Columbia again.

A retired trainer of the Dallas Cowboys, Kirk Weir now manages Kirk's Tacky Accessories! This is the largest clothing company in the United States, because Kirk's sexy Cowboy Cheerleader wife is his store model.

A nationwide scandal began when Sidney Wolf was impeached from Presidency and shipped back to Italy after being found out to be an illegal alien.