Meet the Apple!

This year the Apple Computer was introduced to Richard Winn Academy. Ten students consisting of three seniors and seven juniors learned the BASIC. Joy Taylor and her class work diligently in preparing programs for others to see and enjoy. Next year the school hopes to expand their Computer Science class program.

"One Takes All"

On the fateful night of October 8, 1982, Dee Dee Johnson, a senior, was the second young lady to receive the prestigious titles of Miss Homecoming Queen and Miss Sweetheart in the history of Homecoming at Richard Winn Academy. Dee Dee was escorted by Hugh Stone.

Joeli Weed, 1981 Miss Homecoming, and Joyce Carroll Pope, 1981 Miss Sweetheart, assisted in crowning our shining star. Congratulations to Dee Dee!

Varsity Boys

Varsity Boys Basketball during the '82-'83 campaign was a learning one for the young Eagle team. The Eagles who won only five games set a school record by breaking the 100 point scoring barrier. Next year's team promises to be one of the best with returning seniors Ritchie Montieth, Bobby Castles and Wylie Wright to lead the Eagles to victory in '84.

Lady Eagles

Behind the leadership of five outstanding seniors, the Lady Eagles made a name for themselves in the Sertoma Classic in Rock Hill and made the state playoffs in compiling a 16-5 record. Congratulations to the '82-'83 edition of the girls basketball team.

Softball

Richard Winn Academy enjoyed the success of its girls' softball team this season. On the way to competing in state play-offs, the team compled 11 victories straight without a single defeat.

After the successful regular season, the RWA girls prepared for the state play-offs. After getting a bye in the first round, the Eagles were matched against Manning Christian, whom they easily defeated 15-2. In the state semi-finals, Country Day traveled to Winnsboro. After a shaky first inning, the Eagles played evenly with the Rebels from Hollywood, S.C., but were unable to overcome the early Rebel lead. The Eagles were defeated 7-4 in a tight contest. RWA finished its season one game away from the state championship with a 12-1 record.

Baseball

With baseball still in the rebuilding stages, the Eagles struggled through a tough year in '83. With a lot of good young athletes, RWA showed drastic improvement towards the end of the season. An upset of King in the years final game set the stages for what should be a GREAT YEAR in '84.

Senior Prophecy

Twenty years from now . . .

Wes Bass, the new host of Dance Fever, has taken Deney Tario's place, after a successful career as Ernest T. Bass in the remake of Andy Griffith.

After changing his major and his college four times, Jay Branham finally settled down as a commercial pilot. He left this job, unhappy with the money, and took the starring role, an insane pilot, in "Airplane III."

Martha Branham carries on the Branham chain of restaurants including the most famous, "Martha's Place." She can still be seen cruisin' the "Boro" every Saturday night.

Baettie Burroughs is now the proud owner of "Baettie's School of Fashion" after Millie kicked the bucket.

Robbin Castles, married to the New York Mets second baseman, Steve Phillips, now gets in to all the games free.

Missy Cooper, a nationwide reknowned gossip columnist with her headquarters in New York, also has just made her first million with her best-seller, My Family Tree.

Residing in the basement of a condemned Key West beach house, Bobby DuBard is flat broke, surrounded by half-finished inventions that would save the world millions of dollars and hours of work.

Cheryl Hall, Miss Universe 2003 is married to Tom Selleck and drives a 2003 Volkswagen. They own a ranch in Blythewood.

Billy Hendrix is experiencing his life-long dream: living in his country manor, relaxing in his Jacuzi, and sipping wine (left over from Mexico)! The only exception is that he still can't find a date for Saturday night.

After fourteen years of loyal service, Dee Dee Johnson has been fired from her job as physical therapist for breaking three persons' legs. She now is the main attraction at BIII's Bar-B-Que on a mud-wrestling team.

Behind bars waiting for her parole, Molly Levy has been convicted of fraud for taking the credit of cure found by Dr. Joyce Brothers. She spends her time just laughing with the inmates.

Upon finishing Winthrop College, Debbie Lewis realizes that the field of physical education was not the career for her. Because of this, Debbie then took her "Guru power" to the radio where she took over Mr. Rubarb's morning spot and now it is called "Debbie's Guru Morning Show."

Living through three years in the convent, Elizabeth Long has discovered that it is just not her bag. Moving to Los Angeles, she is a marriage counselor by day and she runs a nightclub by night.

John McNeely has just broken Jack Nicklaus' record winnings. John was awarded two million dollars at the Fairfield Country Club Pro-Am. In his off-season, he stars in Broadway musicals.

D. Melton is yet to be found.

walking and talking with the animals. She makes regular latenight appearances on "The Tonight Show," replacing Joan Embry, and of course she brings her pet rooster.

At the age of 38, Gen Palmer is the proud owner of a set of gold false teeth. He never did figure out how to work the machines at the Winnsboro Vocational School. His company, "B&B," continues to flourish as a multi-million dollar hobby.

After graduating, Kim Peak became vice-president of the "Who's Who Society" because she never could figure out who was who. When she finally got everything straight, she went on to become a registered nurse and to marry a tall, redheaded surgeon. In her spare time she is still running errands for Billy Hendrix.

Sam Pope is now the successful co-host of Donahue. Her career as a pro-basketball player was very short-lived. Determined to stay involved with basketball, she sponsors a team called the "Pygmies," the players being shorter than herself.

Lisa Robinson has become the first lady professional catcher for the Atlanta Braves. Nevertheless, she is still trying to convince the ticket seller at the movies that she is over seventeen.

"Buck Rogers in the Twenty-fifth Century," has a new owner and producer. It is Scotti Sanders who is also featured on the Honeycombs Cereal box.

After winning the Lady Di look alike contest Barbara Saunders' talents were discovered and she became employed by the Queen of England as organist in Westminster Abbey.

Bill Stidham has expanded the "Rat Patrol" and now owns the largest Security Service on the East coast, namely "The Java Patrol." His service protects all the little "Gee-bah" creatures.

Tommy Stoudemire is making a fortune with Stukie Enterprises, specializing in lawn mowers and tractors.

Soon after entering Furman University, Fran Taylor was kicked out for bad grades. Because of this misfortune, she still reports for work every morning at 6:45 at the White Oak Conference Center. Will she become the World's oldest waitress saying "tea or coffee?"

Joeli Weed is now the secretary for a very successful lawyer. Even though she has worked for him for a number of years she still does not know how to say "court house" right and she is still allowed her two hour lunch break so she will be sure not to get lost in Columbia again.

A retired trainer of the Dallas Cowboys, Kirk Weir now manages Kirk's Tacky Accessories! This is the largest clothing company in the United States, because Kirk's sexy Cowboy Cheerleader wife is his store model.

A nationwide scandal began when Sidney Wolf was impeached from Presidency and shipped back to Italy after being found out to be an illegal alien.

106 Chelle Nance just recently acquired Dr. Doolittle's position

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1983, being of sound minds and bodies, do declare is to be our Last Will and Testament and do hereby bequeath these, our worldly goods, to the fortunate individuals so designated below.

MELTON: To the starting football players, the ability to pass Algebra class in no homework and a 50 average. To next year's Varsity Basketball team, 1 see of JVC 60 minute video tapes to tape next year's "comedy hour." To Paul eton, the ability to go 12 long rounds with the teachers and never get mocked out before the final bell. To Bobby Castles, D passes on the All-State moving arm which he received from Jimmy-EE-Reed.

EAETTIE BURROUGHS: To Dena Reeves, one free tank of gas on prom night and the ability not to run any more flashing red lights on main street at 4:00 in the morning. To Becky Mattox, the ability to talk about other people without setting caught for it. To Jonathan and Jason, the ability to carry on the Burscholson's chorus class without getting caught. To Frances Ann, the ability cope with Mr. Robinson her last three years at RWA in hopes she has better tack than she did.

ES BASS: To Marion, his ability to keep the memories of Earnest T. alive at

JAY BRANHAM: Leaves with a smile on his face and joy in his heart.

GEN PALMER: Leaves . . . end of conversation.

To next year's Senior football players this year's Senior football players leave the ability to sleep halfway through practice at camp, and not get in trouble while the others run.

SID WOLF: Leaves Richard Winn Academy, Winnsboro, South Carolina . . . As far away as possible

DEBBIE LEWIS: To Ann Teal (Annie) and Abby Cathcart (Abbacab), the ability make it to graduation and to never get tired of going up town every chance you get. To Paul Holmes and Robert Stidham, a big squeeze and a lot of love. To Becky Mattox, her parking space, in which she always gets blocked in, and nerve pills which she is-sure you will need to get through your Senior year.

BOBBY DuBARD: To Eric Steele, Bobby DuBard and Kirk Weir leave a dozen doughnuts, also, a bowsaw and a pair of pliers for retrieval of "flat metal pictures." To whom it may concern, Bobby leaves the book "How to Break 1000 on the SAT" otherwise known as "Great Science Fiction Short Stories" edited by Issac Asimov. To Britt Cathcart, (or whoever "does the sound" at future Beauty Contests), faulty microphones, tangled cords and, to make things fun, a Cuban radio station.

ROBBIN CASTLES: To Mrs. Nicholson's chorus class, Robbin leaves, hoping that Mrs. Nicholson doesn't fuss at her other students for asking for the words to all songs on the night of a concert. Robbin and Baettie leave Dena the ability to go to the prom her Sr. year without "robbing the cradle"! To her brother Bobby, the ability to come in late and promise his watch broke and never tell Mama where the Gulf card is. To Page, Robbin leaves hoping that Page will one day catch "the catcher," but warns her to stay clear of the second baseman. To Mr. Taylor, a year's supply of Tab, to Coach Gasque, a life-time supply of Bazooka Joe bubblegum. And, last but not least, to Coach Robinson, Robbin leaves.

MISSY COOPER: I leave the Jr. Class my car so they won't have to buy a car for the "car bash." To Dena Reeves enough common sense not to get up under another sunlamp. To Jamie Cooper, good luck on another 10 years at RWA. To Ben Bass, enough patience for driving the kids to school. P.S. Now you will know what I went through.

MOLLY LEVY: To Tina Evans, "her place-bottom row, on the end" — at all chorus programs. To next year's Senior class, all her senior privileges, in hopes they have as much fun using them as she did. To all faculty, a big SMILE! To Zan and Michele, the honor of carrying out the Levy name at Richard Winn. To next year's basketball manager, a water cooler, 3 dirty towels, and a spare ladies' Timex watch.

To Mrs. Nicholson, Molly, Kim, Fran, and Robbin leave an alto section and a book entitled, "Altos are People, Too."

JOHN McNEELEY: To Scott Jeffers, a tape of his singing so he won't be the only tenor in chorus next year. To Robert Sidham, his great golf swing. To Perry Ann Patrick, John leaves Scott Jeffers and a picture of Marcus.

KIM PEAK: To Melissa Weed her "banana-brained" intelligence to aggravate Mr. Gasque next year. To Scott Peak the ability to leave for school on time next year. To Perry Ann, the ability to ride the van through it all, should the same thing happen next year. To George Taylor, a book entitled, "1001 Ways to Argue: A Transcendalist's Point of View."

KIRK WEIR: To the future golf teams John and Kirk leave the ability to skip 7 holes in a golf match. To Perry Ann Patrick, 2 expense free weeks in Creative Writing with George Taylor. To next year's Senior class, his Bus Station booth. To Marion and Britt, the ability to restock the Training Room during Trainer's Camp. To Coach Robinson, Crawford Hughes.

DEE DEE JOHNSON: To Miss Reid and all the other Varsity Football Cheerleaders, the ability to end up on the 50 yard line in the pom-pom routine and a can of Lysol, in hopes that they will not have to use it. To Mr. Gasque, a Sharp calculator and a guide in hopes that he will figure out how to use it. To Melissa Weed and Mac Ruff, three dollars each for Jay's next party and a tattle-tale detector. To Mack, the ability to get caught with chewing gum by Mr. Gasque.

LISA ROBINSON: To Dean Taylor, her parking place, and the ability not to give Gina Robinson a nervous breakdown before she reaches her teen's. To Lester Robinson, the ability to make it through 5 years of RWA. To Coach Gasque, the ability to last for one more year of having Dean in his classes. Lisa Robinson and Sam Pope leave Coach Robinson a set of pygmies and a book of short jokes in hope that he may stay same by picking at them for their height.

BILLY HENDRIX: To Coach Gasque, 10 acres and a bulldozer so he can finally have his own fishing pond. To John Ruff, D. Melton and Billy Hendrix leave one roll of quarters to play Pac-Man at Melton's. To Frances Anne, the ability to be able to get along with all the faculty members of Richard Winn. To Mrs. Stevenson, his phone number at Wofford so she can call and wake him up in the morning. To next year's Senior Class President, the ability to get along with everybody and never cause any trouble during class meetings.

JOELI WEED: To Mr. Taylor and Mrs. Nicholson, an apology. To Julie, a lecture on how to behave on a chorus beach trip, and Julie knows what else!!! To Jennifer Weed, the ability to get along with Julie. To Jena Barnett, an extrapadded glove, in hopes that her fingers won't sting anymore! To Ritchie Monteith, her good attendance record, Mrs. Pope's old Economics tests, her basketball skills, in hopes that he will be able to dunk it next year, and most of all, her love.

BILL STIDHAM: To next year's chorus class, a book entitled, "How to Cope with All Sorts of Lectures"! To Mrs. Nicholson, a bottle of Daytril 500 and a box of Kleenex. To Frances Anne Hendrix, a gold cross so she won't have to use her fingers anymore, to keep the boys away. To Robert Stidham and Brett Witt, the ability to still be the freaks on the football field. To Turner Pope, his camouflage hunting pants, in hopes that by the time he gets old enough to wear them, he will be able to kill as many turkeys as he does!!!

SAM POPE: Sam Pope and Dee Dee Johnson leave to Mr. Robinson, one bikini bathing suit and the hopes that he will find a girl to fill it. To Becky DuBard, one set of strong lungs, her big mouth, and enough voice so that Becky can carry on the blue-gold cheer during football season. To Jena Barnett, one pack of colored rubberbands, one private joke, and the ability to go out on the weekends during basketball season without getting caught by Coach Robinson. To Mr. Gasque, one typewriter, a stack of paper, a stack of correction tape, and one typing book, in hopes that one day he will learn how to type. To Miss Reid and next year's Varsity Football Cheerleaders, one book of excuses for being late, 10 cans of spray paint, and the ability not to get all the way to Ridgeway before realizing they left the sign and one spare tire just in case Elisa Hare has another flat tire.

CHELLE NANCE: To Laurell and Lori I leave the hopes that Janice will occasionally stay for lunch. To Janice I leave all my books and my parking space.

To Mrs. Ferguson, Chelle, Barbara, Elizabeth, and Martha leave one million balance sheets that don't, a clock forever on 12:00, and the hope that one day someone will answer her questions.

To next year's Seniors, Chelle, Fran, Molly, Kirk, Elizabeth, Bobby, and Barbara leave their booth at the Bus Station during lunch.

MARTHA BRANHAM: To next year's Seniors who leave for lunch, the ability to get back to school on time at least once. To David, her parking place and a warning to "stay out of her room!" while she's at college.

FRAN TAYLOR: To Amelia Patrick the ability to get up and work the breakfast shift at White Oak. To "Miller," Fran Taylor leaves the privilege of being called "Fran" and the ability to play one-on-one with Coach Robinson without losing her temper.

To Mr. George Taylor, Elizabeth, Chelle, Barbara, Fran, Molly, Kirk, Bobby, and Martha leave the hot-off-the-press edition of "1001 Excuses for Not Getting a Tardy" in hopes that he will be more lenient in the future!

Graffiti (the strive to be remembered)

As one looks at the desks around school, he is apt to find artwork left by previous occupants, whose mark in life is a big '84, "Tar zan loves Jane" or "We were meant 2 be 2 gether 4 ever."

Once in a while, though, one may find a really good poem, or a series of "notes" left by someone who cares about what he writes Sometimes one may even find a fabulous caricature of a favorite teacher, often accompanied by a caption which is befitting.

There are several types of graffiti but the one which is most outstanding is the elaborate engraving on desk tops. This type of graffiti is used by those who are into self-preservation measures. They want their work to be read and admired by future occupants of his favorite desk. This type of graffiti is also frowned upon since it cannot be removed.

Because there is so much graffiti and so many participants, it has been suggested that a course be set up to teach the fine aspects of defacing school property, ending with a contest provided all participants had not already been suspended for perfecting their entries.
