

We Dedicate Aerie '85 to Mr. Taylor

"Mr. Taylor? Dynamic! Our new school represents his strength and courage. His smile ensures our children of his love while he guides them with a strong and steady hand. We love you."

— Jackie Baker

"All the times I have talked with Mr. Taylor, through discussions about class and student council activities, I have found him to be very friendly and understanding. He is devoutly interested in the students and what is best for them. He is an excellent headmaster, and I am glad we have had him as our leader."

— Peter Rambo

Carroll Taylor is the driving force who has made the difference between success or failure of Richard Winn Academy.

— R. A. Westbrook

Because of the person he is, the ideals he represents, and what he means to Richard Winn Academy, we dedicate Aerie '85 to F. Carroll Taylor, Headmaster.

"D's are not considered to be good in school, but the D's of discipline, desire, determination, and above all, dedication spell one thing — F. Carroll Taylor; and that's an A+ for our school."

— Donna Miller

In the seven years that Mr. Taylor has been at R.W.A., we have experienced growth in numbers, as well as in the physical plant. Of more importance to a successful school however, is a feeling of pride which he has generated by dedicated leadership."

— Ellen Nicholson

No one knows better than his wife, Joy, the endless hours Mr. Taylor gives to RWA. We deeply appreciate her help, support, and understanding.
