

School Spirit Comes Alive

School spirit has been high all year, but during Homecoming Week it was at a fever pitch. The varsity football cheerleaders planned unique activities to allow students to express their spirit and get involved in supporting the Eagles.

Elliott Nicholson and Caroline deVlaming model their yard sale purchases.

Daily activities ranged from Old Timer's Day to a Sexiest Male Legs Contest. Students really were caught up in the action all week, but they were perhaps most creative on Celebrity Day. Alfalfa (two of them), the Pointer Sisters, Joe Morrison, and many others appeared at RWA.

The great support by all Eagle fans proves that school spirit is really alive here.

Surely Madonna's song "Angel" was written for Angel Kingsmore.

Eric Cathcart tries to steal a kiss from Kim Brown behind Lee Dixon's back.

