

Social Studies Relates Past To Present

Mike Robinson finds that being a jack-of-all trades is helpful to him in his job as Assistant Headmaster, social studies teacher, and coach.

Science teacher Robbie Barth developed a very interesting course in Psychology for Juniors this year.

Teaching World History, S.C. History, English III, and Writing/Speech allows Carolyn Murray to delve into all her interests.

Although physical education is her first love, Debra Russell also teaches science and biology.
