

Senior Class Prophecy

As a college graduation present, Gina Kelly's parents gave her ownership of the Roadrunner Grill and Arcade (Beep! Beep!) where she may now be found behind the counter flopping hamburgers.

If you tune your radio into Winnsboro's new News Station, you will hear Lee Cunningham, who is the owner of WLEE, reporting gossip in the 'boro.

After being imprisoned for stealing a patent to wear bracelets from Annie, "Crazy" Lee Dixon now makes them for prisoners to use as nooses when they wish to commit suicide.

After Cynthia Mazat was fired from her job as head cheerleader for the Washington Redskins, she got her old job back with Burger King being the Top Whopper Flopper in Winnsboro, S.C.

Rana Weed, after graduating from the College of Charleston with her Ph.D. in Spelling and Pronunciation, now tutors her body-building sweetheart Arnold Schwartzinager on speaking correctly and effectively in public.

Russ White has graduated from Winthrop and moved back to Chester where he got his old job back with Doc Anderson. Being attacked by a rabid gerbil, he goes mad, kills Doc, and takes over the practice.

Rod "Bonehead" Taylor has opened his own factory of "Taylor's Creme Horns!"

After graduating from Salem College, Annie McLeod, along with Mr. McSwain, has established an organic commune to give Hippies a home and to promote peace!

Brad Moore now designs sports cars for Yugo, but they still won't let him drive them. He also serves as a part time bowling ball.

Robin Clinton has taken over Dr. Ruth's talk show where she answers questions that even Dr. Ruth finds controversial and baffling.

Shannon Wade has now made her first million with Matel. They now have a doll that constantly mimicks Shannon's nagging whine.