

Rose Owens, Teri Barefield, and Paul Patrick exemplify the RWA emphasis on proper dress as they wait for the beginning of Hamlet at USC.

Allan Turner and Doug Raley work on a research project in the library. Achievement is important to them as it is to other RWA students.

Eagle sportsmanship is apparent as Dean Branham (32) congratulates a Robert E. Lee player who was also named All-Tournament.

Mrs. Amy Nunn made a special necklace for Sally Hinnant's tooth that she lost at school. This is only an example of the special treatment teachers give to students to make them feel important.

The way students respond to other students is a mark of RWA's class. Here Belinda Surratt and Janet Spencer show their concern as Danielle Dunn explains her problem to them during break.
