

Lines of cars are a familiar sight after school each day as parents pick up their children. Here Mrs. Ann Pope gives her son, Ed Pope, a smile as she rides up.

Mr. Heyward Burley helps out in the canteen during the football games. He and a number of other Booster Club members volunteer this service at all home games.

Todd Childers and David Scott show their appreciation to Mrs. Peggy Allen who provided a pre-game meal for the football team. It has become a tradition for parents to do this.

Mrs. Mary Gail Douglas gives her son Brad Douglas a victory hug after the basketball team turned in a superb performance in our victory over Malboro Academy in Bennettsville.
