

Eagles Reap Individual Honors

Before the season, many people doubted the Eagles' ability, but dedication, enthusiasm, and togetherness earned them a record of 8-2. All-Conference players David Goudelock, Brad Brantley, Todd Childers, Paul Gardner, Mack Johnson, Paul Patrick, David Scott, and Rion Burley all played a major role in the team's success. The team was lead by Ernie Hughes who was named Conference Coach of the year.

The Eagles dominated their first four opponents: King, Sloan, Catawba, and Holly Hill. Not only did they win, but held each opposing team to under 7 points.

For the next game, the Eagles travelled to Orangeburg where they challenged the Orangeburg Prep Indians and slid by them 21-19. This no doubt may be termed the most exciting game of the season. The Eagles went on to beat Calhoun and Thornwell by scores of 47-7 and 34-14 respectively.

Their winning streak was broken when the Eagles were halted by the Stallions from Williamsburg. The game was scoreless until early in the fourth quarter. Because of the many mistakes made by RWA, Williamsburg edged by with a 6-0 victory.

The homecoming game was another nice victory with a score of 25-15 over the Cavaliers of Robert E. Lee from Bishopville. The Eagles ended the 1987 football season with a 15-14 loss to Jefferson Davis. Unfortunately the Eagles didn't qualify for the play-offs due to a complicated point system.
